Rice, 2022-04-21 How does God relate to the world What difference does our understanding of God make for conceiving of God s relation to us Christian theology has seen a flourishing of activity in response to these questions under a common doctrinal theme Trinity

That said proposals for understanding how God relates to the world through the Trinity of God's being otherwise known as the relationship between the immanent and the economic Trinity vary significantly This book reflecting on the work of four modern theologians Dorner Barth Pannenberg and Jenson offers a set of constructive proposals on key issues relating to the God world relation including a way to understand divine immutability without denying God's living history with others and a trinitarian notion of divine sovereignty that demonstrates how God transcends history from within the structures of time At each step along the way the author conveys how Trinity opens up a richer more expansive conception of God's relation to us This book shows how Trinity serves the practical work of theology as faith seeking understanding Pondering Alphabetic Solutions Dr. Carolyn LaDelle Bennett, 2016-05-13 The author of Breakdown Unconscionable and No Land an Island No People Apart again tackles U S foreign and domestic affairs in context of global relations and the inescapable nexus of act and consequence This time Dr Carolyn LaDelle Bennett ponders Solutions in thought and act America one nation indivisible held together by citizen Duty Peace words without violence to V X Y Z Vive la Difference from Xenophobia and Zealotry Along with the book's alphabetic textual design are centerfold images also centering the author's motive and protest of people displaced from four continents Europe Asia Africa and the Americas rendered homeless by tribal politics leaders foreign and domestic policies endless war and conflict For the student researcher or seeker of alternative perspectives the book contains full and detailed reference and index sections as well as appendices of pertinent biographical material and historic documents of the United States and the United Nations The Educational Leader in a World of Covert Threats Mike Bottery, 2022-05-19 In a rapidly changing world with threats to the sustainability of the environment societies institutions and the people within them a crucial question for educational leaders needs to be what are these threats to sustainability and how does the role of the educational leader need adapting to meet them through this century Mike Bottery unpacks this question by examining how major terms in the field are used mis used or mis understood before looking specifically at five covert threats wicked problems positive feedback exponential growth inappropriate degrees of connectivity and tipping points He looks at the impact these threats have upon sustainability at micro meso and macro levels and how understanding and meeting these threats needs to change the educational leader's thought values and practice Bottery argues that such awareness should not only change the focus of educational institutions but also the focus of those inspecting such institutions Such recognition then needs to become part of the cultural zeitgeist of present day societies if future generations are to inherit a sustainable world In so doing The Educational Leader in a World of Covert Threats provides an original timely and essential re think of the educational leader's role which makes it unique in the educational leadership literature

Longworth, 2021-10-28 Chicago has belonged to the world for a century but its midcontinental geography once demanded a leap of the intellect and imagination to grasp this reality During that century the Chicago Council on Global Affairs guided and defined the way Chicago thinks about its place in the world Founded in 1922 as the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations as a forum to engage Chicagoans in conversations about world affairs both its name and mission have changed Today it is an educational vehicle that brings the world to Chicago and a think tank that works to influence that world At its centenary it is the biggest and most influential world affairs council west of New York and Washington with a local impact and global reach Chicago and the World is a dual history of the first one hundred years of the Chicago Council on Global Affairs and of the foreign policy battles and debates that crossed its stage The richness of these debates lay in their immediacy All were reports from the moment analyses of current crises and were delivered by men and women who had no idea how the story would end Some were comically wrong others eerily prescient and some so wise that we still profit from their lessons today The history of the past century reflects the history of the Council from its birth as a worldly outpost in a provincial hotbed of isolationism to its status today as a major institution in one of the world s leading global cities It is a tumultuous history full of ups and downs driven by vivid characters and enlivened by constant debate over where the institution and its city belong in the world The Council of today has a bias very similar to that of the Council of 1922 that openness is the only rational response to global complexity It rejected the isolationism of 1922 and it rejects nationalism now

In 1922 it recognized that the outside world affected Chicago every day In 2022 it insists that Chicago affects that world Chicago then was a receptor for outside ideas Chicago today is a generator of ideas and events Both the world and Chicago have changed but the Council's goals openness clarity involvement remain the same History of the Council The Chicago Council on Global Affairs was founded in 1922 amid the aftermath of World War I the Senate's rejection of the League of Nations and the influenza pandemic of 1918 Today at its centenary it is the biggest world affairs council west of New York and Washington DC It is both a forum for debate on global issues and a think tank working to influence those issues Chicago and the World offers a dual history of the Council and the great foreign policy issues of the past century Founded in America's heartland the Council now guides the international thinking of one of the world's great global cities Its speakers include the men and women who shaped the century Georges Clemenceau Jawaharlal Nehru Jan Masaryk George Marshall Eleanor Roosevelt Walter Lippmann Margaret Thatcher Willy Brandt Helmut Kohl Henry Kissinger Ronald Reagan Mikhail Gorbachev Joseph Biden and Barack Obama among others There have been Nobel Prize winners and Nazis one worlders and America Firsters The Council emerged in a Chicago dominated by isolationism It led the great debate over American participation in World War II and after that war over our nation's new dominant role in the world As a forum it struggled with major issues Vietnam the Cold War 9 11 As a think tank it helps lead our nation's thinking on global cities global food security the global economy and foreign policy The Council's one hundredth anniversary follows another pandemic the Covid 19 crisis at a time when a new wave of nationalism and nativism distorts America's place in the world The Council sees itself as nonpartisan but not neutral in this debate It is committed to the ideal of an informed citizenry at home and openness and involvement abroad
