The Global Achievement Gap Tony Wagner, 2010-05-21 Despite the best efforts of educators our nation's schools are dangerously obsolete Instead of teaching students to be critical thinkers and problem solvers we are asking them to memorize facts for multiple choice tests This problem isn't limited to low income school districts even our top schools aren't teaching or testing the skills that matter most in the global knowledge economy Our teens leave school equipped to work only in the kinds of jobs that are fast disappearing from the American economy Meanwhile young adults in India and China are competing with our students for the most sought after careers around the world Education expert Tony Wagner has conducted scores of interviews with business leaders and observed hundreds of classes in some of the nation's most highly regarded public schools He discovered a profound disconnect between what potential employers are looking for in young people today critical thinking skills creativity and effective communication and what our schools are providing passive learning environments and uninspired lesson plans that focus on test preparation and reward memorization He explains how every American can work to overhaul our education system and he shows us examples of dramatically different schools that teach all students new skills In addition through interviews with college graduates and people who work with them Wagner discovers how teachers parents and employers can motivate the next generation to excellence An education manifesto for the twenty first century The Global Achievement Gap is provocative and inspiring It is essential reading for parents educators business leaders policy makers and anyone interested in seeing our young people succeed as employees and citizens

The Black History Bowl Cadmus S. Hull, 2018-12-07 Black History Month starting as Negro History Week began as an effort by Carter G Woodson 1875 1950 to recognize the valuable contributions Black African Americans have made in the United States and throughout the world

African American History which has been virtually ignored is beginning to be acknowledged in classroom books and curriculums However enough has not been done to fully recognize the contributions of African Americans to history Thus The Black History Quiz Guide was designed and created to further the goal that Carter G Woodson was trying to accomplish to present a fair picture of the role African Americans have played in American and World History The black history quiz guide is divided into eight 8 sections of black history facts Each section begins with a black history worksheet The worksheet is followed by fact sheets on the black history contributors who are listed on the worksheet at the end of each section The answers to the worksheet are on the page that follows the facts The black history quiz is designed to test your present knowledge of black history as well as enhance your knowledge of history It is hoped that you will enjoy the quiz guide as you enrich your knowledge of the contributions that African Americans have made to history From Hunter-Gatherers to Farmers and Herders , World History Lessons for the Stuff That's Hard to Teach Social Studies School Service,2006 Activities for secondary students centered on specific historical and current events Buddha's Travels ,2007
