Stella Bruzzi New Documentary:

New Documentary Stella Bruzzi, 2000 Bruzzi relates contemporary cinema to the documentary tradition exploring questions of authorship spectatorship and truth in the context of issues of race gender and performance New Documentary Stella Bruzzi, 2006-09-27 Praise for New Documentary It's refreshing to find a book that cuts through the tired old debates that have surrounded documentary film and television It heralds a welcome new approach Sight and Sound Documentary practice changes so fast that books on the subject are often out of date before they are published Bruzzi's achievement is to have understood the genre as an activity based on performance rather than observation This is a fresh perspective which illuminates the fundamental shifts that will continue to take place in the genre as it enters its second century John Ellis Professor of Media Arts Royal Holloway University of London New Documentary provides a contemporary look at documentary and fresh and challenging ways of theorising the non fiction film As engaging as the original this second edition features thorough updates to the existing chapters as well as a brand new chapter on contemporary cinema release documentaries This new edition includes Contemporary films such as Capturing the Friedmans tre et avoir Fahrenheit 9 11 The Fog of War and Touching the Void as well as more canonical texts such as Hoop Dreams and Shoah Additional interviews with influential practitioners such as director Michael Apted and producer Stephen Lambert A comprehensively revised discussion of modern observational documentary including docusoaps reality television and formatted documentaries The work of documentary filmmakers such as Nicholas Barker Errol Morris Nick Broomfield Molly Dineen and Michael Moore and the work of Avant Garde filmmakers such as Chris Marker and Patrick Keiller Gender identity queer theory performance race and spectatorship Bruzzi shows how theories of documentary filmmaking can be applied to contemporary texts and genres and discusses the relationship between recent innovative examples of the genre and the more established canon of documentary The Documentary Handbook Peter Lee-Wright, 2009-12-04 The Documentary Handbook is mandatory reading for those who want a critical understanding of the place of factual formats in today's exploding television and media industry as well as expert guidance in complex craft skills in order to fully participate The practical advice and wisdom here is second to none Tony Steyger Principal Lecturer Southampton Solent University UK The Documentary Handbook is a critical introduction to the documentary film its theory and changing practices The book charts the evolution of documentary from screen art to core television genre its metamorphosis into many different types of factual TV programme and its current emergence in forms of new media It analyses those pathways and the transformation of means of production through economic technical and editorial changes The Documentary Handbook explains the documentary process skills and job specifications for everyone from industry entrants to senior personnel and shows how the industrial evolution of television has relocated the powers and principles of decision making Through the use of professional Expert Briefings it gives practical pointers about programme making from research developing and pitching programme ideas to their production and delivery through a fast evolving multi platform universe Approximation Stella Bruzzi,2020-04-30 In our era of fake news Stella Bruzzi examines the dynamism that results from reusing and reconfiguring raw documentary data documents archive news etc in creative ways Through a series of individual case studies this book offers an innovative framework for understanding how in our century film and media texts frequently represent reality and negotiate the instabilities of truth by approximating factual events rather than merely representing them through juxtaposing disparate often colliding perspectives of history and factual events Covering areas such as true crime politics and media the book analyses the fluidity and instability of truth arguing that approximation is more prevalent now in our digital age and that its conception is a result of viewers accidental or unconscious connections and interventions Original and thought provoking Approximation provides students and researchers of media film and cultural studies a deeper insight into our understanding and acceptance of what truth really means today Filming for the Future Patricia Pisters,2025-10-01 Louis Van Gasteren was one of the most prolific filmmakers in the history of the Netherlands with a resume that includes nearly eighty documentaries and two feature films to say nothing of artworks and books Filming for the Future offers an extended exploration of Van Gasteren s work and audio visual world Patricia Pisters introduces us to a filmmaker who always had his camera ready and was relentless in filming a wide range of topics and events of national and international importance Fascinated by technology deeply engaged with politics and intensely occupied by the traumatic effects of war Van Gasteren assembled an unparalleled record of life in twentieth century Amsterdam and beyond Filming for the Future will be an invaluable source of documentation and analysis of one of the key filmmakers of our time A Companion to Contemporary French Cinema Alistair Fox,Michel Marie,Raphaëlle Moine,Hilary Radner,2015-01-12 A Companion to Contemporary French Cinema presents a comprehensive collection of original essays addressing all aspects of French cinema from 1990 to the present day Features original contributions from top film scholars relating to all aspects of contemporary French cinema Includes new research on matters relating to the political economy of contemporary French cinema developments in cinema policy audience attendance and the types building and renovation of theaters Utilizes groundbreaking research on cinema beyond the fiction film and the cinema theater such as documentary amateur and digital filmmaking Contains an unusually large range of methodological approaches and perspectives including those of genre gender auteur industry economic star postcolonial and psychoanalytic studies Includes essays by important French cinema scholars from France the U S and New Zealand many of whose work is here presented in English for the first time Destructive Sublime Tanine Allison,2018-06-25 The American popular imagination has long portrayed World War II as the good war fought by the greatest generation for the sake of freedom and democracy Yet combat films and other war media complicate this conventional view by indulging in explosive displays of spectacular violence Combat sequences Tanine Allison argues construct a counter narrative of World War II by reminding viewers of the war s harsh brutality Destructive Sublime traces a new aesthetic history of the World War II combat genre by looking back at it through the lens of contemporary video games like Call of Duty Allison locates some of video games glorification of violence disruptive audiovisual style and bodily sensation in even the most canonical and seemingly conservative films of the genre In a series of case studies spanning more than seventy years from wartime documentaries like The Battle of San Pietro to fictional reenactments like The Longest Day and Saving Private Ryan to combat video games like Medal of Honor this book reveals how the genre's aesthetic forms reflect and influence how American culture conceives of war nation and representation itself
