Cracking the AP World History Exam, 2010 Edition Princeton Review, 2009-08-04 Provides test taking strategies a subject review and two full length practice tests "Why Won't You Just Tell Us the Answer?" Bruce Lesh, 2023-10-10 Every major measure of students historical understanding since 1917 has demonstrated that students do not retain understand or enjoy their school experiences with history Bruce Lesh believes that this is due to the way we teach history lecture and memorization Over the last fifteen years Bruce has refined a method of teaching history that mirrors the process used by historians where students are taught to ask questions of evidence and develop historical explanations And now in his new book Why Won't You Just Tell Us the Answer he shows teachers how to successfully implement his methods in the classroom Students may think they want to be given the answer Yet when they are actively engaged in investigating the past the way professional historians do they find that history class is not about the boring memorization of names dates and facts Instead it is challenging fun Historical study that centers on a question where students gather a variety of historical sources and then develop and defend their answers to that question allows students to become actual historians immersed in an interpretive study of the past Each chapter focuses on a key concept in understanding history and then offers a sample unit on how the concept can be taught Readers will learn about the following Exploring Text Subtext and Context President Theodore Roosevelt and the Panama Canal Chronological Thinking and Causality The Rail Strike of 1877 Multiple Perspectives The Bonus March of 1932 Continuity and Change Over Time Custer's Last Stand Historical Significance The Civil Rights Movement Historical Empathy The Truman MacArthur Debate By the end of the book teachers will have learned how to teach history via a lens of interpretive questions and interrogative evidence that allows both student and teacher to develop evidence based answers to history's greatest questions Handbook on Measurement, Assessment, and Evaluation in Higher Education Charles Secolsky, D. Brian Denison, 2012-03-22 Increased demands for colleges and universities to engage in outcomes assessment for accountability purposes have accelerated the need to bridge the gap between higher education practice and the fields of measurement assessment and evaluation The Handbook on Measurement Assessment and Evaluation in Higher Education provides higher education administrators student affairs personnel institutional researchers who generate and analyze data and faculty with an integrated handbook of theory method and application This valuable resource brings together applied terminology analytical perspectives and methodological advances from the fields of measurement assessment and evaluation to facilitate informed decision making in higher education Special Features Contributing Authors are world renowned scholars across the fields of measurement assessment and evaluation including Robert E Stake Trudy W Banta Michael J Kolen Noreen M Webb Kurt Geisinger Robert J Mislevy Ronald K Hambleton Rebecca Zwick John Creswell and Margaret D LeCompte Depth of Coverage includes classroom assessment and student outcomes assessment techniques for accountability and accreditation test theory item response theory validity and reliability

Comparative Sociology of Examinations Fumiya Onaka, 2019-03-28 Contemporary societies are constructed constricted and constrained by various series of examinations Governments of both Western and non Western countries tend to conduct detailed multi layered and continuous systems of tests or examinations International tests such as PISA and TIMSS have also been introduced to compare the relative performances of learners within diverse educational institutions across different countries Examinations therefore provide a methodological pivot for comparing a range of societies They enable us to contrast the West and the East the North and the South tribal and mass society ancient and postmodern civilization and so on Comparing parallel societies from across Asia the Middle East Europe and North America this book proposes fundamental transitions in sociological research from system to process and from communication to composition through intensive studies on examinations It uses ethnographies interviews questionnaires documents statistics and big data analyses to make comparisons on broad scales of time and space In so doing it suggests hypotheses encompassing different kinds of societies in human history including those in the Axial Age and the Modern Ages

Why China did not have a Renaissance – and why that matters Thomas Maissen, Barbara Mittler, 2018-06-25 Concepts of historical progress or decline and the idea of a cycle of historical movement have existed in many civilizations In spite of claims that they be transnational or even universal periodization schemes invariably reveal specific social and cultural predispositions Our dialogue which brings together a Sinologist and a scholar of early modern History in Europe considers periodization as a historical phenomenon studying the case of the Renaissance Understood in the tradition of J Burckhardt who referred back to ideas voiced by the humanists of the 14th and 15th centuries and focusing on the particularities of humanist dialogue which informed the making of the Renaissance in Italy our discussion highlights elements that distinguish it from other movements that have proclaimed themselves as r Renaissances studying in particular the Chinese Renaissance in the early 20th century While disagreeing on several fundamental issues we suggest that interdisciplinary and interregional dialogue is a format useful to addressing some of the more far reaching questions in global history e g whether and when a periodization scheme such as Renaissance can fruitfully be applied to describe non European experiences
