Longlisted for the 2022 International Gothic Association's Allan Lloyd Smith Prize. The bestselling genre of Frankenfiction sees classic literature turned into commercial narratives invaded by zombies, vampires, werewolves, and other fantastical monsters. Too engaged with tradition for some and not traditional enough for others, these monster mashups are often criticized as a sign of the artistic and moral degeneration of contemporary culture. These hybrid creations are the monsters of our age lurking at the limits of responsible consumption and acceptable appropriation. This book explores the boundaries and connections between contemporary remix and related modes including adaptation, parody, the Gothic, Romanticism, and postmodernism. Taking a multimedia approach, case studies range from novels like Pride and Prejudice and Zombies and The Extraordinary Adventures of the Athena Club series to television programmes such as Penny Dreadful to popular visual artworks like Kevin J. Weir's Flux Machine GIFs. Megan de Bruin Mol uses these monstrous and liminal works to show how the thrill of transgression has been contained within safe and familiar formats, resulting in the mashups that dominate Western popular culture. Teaching Literature T. Agathocleous, A. Dean, 2002-12-16. In Teaching Literature, scholars explain how they think about their everyday experience in the classroom using the tools of their ongoing scholarly projects and engaging with current debates in literary studies. Until recently, teaching has played second fiddle to literary research as a mode of knowledge in academia, leaving new teachers with nowhere to turn for advice about teaching and no forum for discussion of the difficulties and opportunities they face in the classroom.
