

Discussion Questions for "Harrison Bergeron"

How is the idea of equality different in 2081 than it is today? (1)

In 2081, everyone is equal not only in the eyes of the law but in every way; nobody is smarter, more athletic, better looking, etc. than anyone else.

What is laughed about here: much the Constitution has been changed by 2081? (2)

It has been amended many, many times.

How intelligent are George and Hazel Bergeron? (3)

Hazel is of average intelligence, which means she can't think about anything except in short bursts, and George has no intelligence any longer period.

What technology does George have to wear and what is its purpose? (4)

George has a government-mandated transmitter in his ear that makes a large sharp noise every time he wants to prevent him from taking unfair advantage of his brain.

What can we infer from the fact that Hazel has never in her life that she has forgotten for the moment what caused her to cry? (5)

She is unable to think clearly for very long.

How are the ballerinas handicapped, and why are they handicapped in the ways they are? (6)

They have to wear weights to make them less graceful, and they wear masks to conceal their beauty, so that no one else will feel inferior to them while watching them.

Besides the radio in his ear, what else is George wearing? (7)

Forty-seven pounds of lead in a canvas bag, which was fastened around George's neck.

What is the purpose of each of George's handicaps? (8-10)

The transmitter is to keep him from being smarter than others; the bag of lead is to make him less athletic and physically capable than others.

What would be the penalty for George attempting to lighten the load of the handicap bag he is required to wear around his neck, by removing one or more lead ball bearings from it? (11)

Two years in prison and a $1,000 fine for each ball removed from the bag.

What does George think of the handicapping system established by the government? (12-13)

George was toying with the vague notion that maybe, someday, somebody he handicapped ... but then later he tells Hazel, "I'd mind us get away with it ... then other people'd get away with it—"

INTRODUCTION TO COLLEGE PHILOSOPHY Victor Moeller, 2013-07-11

This college course, an Introduction to Philosophy, is not a history of the great philosophers and their systems. It is not a survey of the traditional divisions of philosophy: metaphysics, epistemology, phenomenology, ethics, politics, and aesthetics. It is, however, a process of doing philosophy that takes up some of the basic questions and problems that we will all encounter in life sooner or later. It is also an application of the Socratic method of teaching and learning that develops habits of independent critical and reflective thinking. It is a series of Socratic seminars on the Great Books by the greatest faculty of the Western world and a process that illustrates how to pass from the world of work, need, and empirical science into the world of all things, beings, that Being provides. The Heath Introduction to Literature Alice S. Landy, 1996. At about half the length and a much lower price than comparable anthologies, this introductory anthology of short fiction, poetry, and drama is organized by genre and features chapter introductions and a bibliography of film adaptations. Readings have been chosen with an eye toward classic selections and gender balance while allowing the book to retain the teachability and traditional emphases for which it has long been admired. Socratic Seminars in Middle School Victor Moeller, Marc

Teaching Literature in High School Thomas M. McCann, John V. Knapp, 2021-12-15 In looking for an approach to teaching literature in high school teachers largely fall back on the methods that they had experienced as students These practices often involve a teacher assigning a complex work of literature and then assessing students reading through in class recitations or quizzes Teachers typically dominate the discourse and sometimes take charge of the task by reading aloud whole swathes of texts to their students We know from our own experience as teachers supervisors of teachers and student teachers and researchers in the field that students are often bored with these approaches and teachers are frequently frustrated with learners unenthusiastic responses to the teachers favorite works of literature There has to be a better way This book offers approaches to engage students in productive procedures for reading complex texts and provides sample activities to allow learners to practice those procedures
