

29:1

Woe to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt! add ye year to year; let them kill sacrifices

Isaiah 29

29:9

Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink

29:3

And I will camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee

29:12

And the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned

Book of Mormon Seminary Home-Study Guide The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints,2013-10-22 The home study seminary program is designed to help you strengthen your understanding of the gospel of Jesus Christ and apply its teachings in your daily life through a study of the scriptures For your study this school year you will first complete reading assignments from the scripture text for this course the Book of Mormon and then you will complete the individual lessons Once a week you will meet with a seminary teacher to submit your work and participate in a weekly lesson Seminary is a daily religious education program Prayerfully studying your scriptures should be a daily practice You will need to work on your seminary assignments each school day even though you will not attend a seminary class each day There are 32 units to be completed during the course The reading chart on page viii shows what you should study for each unit Your teacher will help you understand when each unit is due The lessons in this study guide should each take about 30 minutes to complete in addition to your daily scripture study You should have two scripture study journals or two notebooks separate from your personal journal in which you will write the assignments from the study guide activities Each week that you meet with your teacher you should turn in the scripture study journal containing the completed assignments from the study guide activities you completed for that week Your teacher will read and respond to the assignments and return that scripture study journal to you the following week You could also write your responses on paper in a loose leaf binder and turn in the pages you did that week Then when your teacher returns the pages you could put them back into the notebook

Jesus in the Gospels: Study Manual Leander E. Keck,Nellie M. Moser,2010-09-01 Study Manual content illuminates some aspect of the Jesus in the Gospels each week and connects Scripture to daily life and Jesus call to discipleship The overarching aim is to deepen discipleship through better understanding of the biblical texts and their message The study helps group members understand that Jesus is rooted in Judaism and the Scriptures of Judaism and that Christianity and the New Testament are rooted in the Scriptures of Judaism our Old Testament The Study Manual guides daily study and preparation for the weekly group meeting The main elements in the format are designated by scriptural phrases They have no wine John 2 3 is a brief statement about the human condition and alerts the reader to some aspect of daily life that Scripture can shed light on Beginning with Moses and all the prophets Luke 24 27 is a way of referring to Scripture as a whole and signals the fact that we can understand Jesus in the Gospels better by understanding the Old Testament better Do you want to become his disciples too John 9 27 New International Version is designed to stimulate thoughtful reflection so readers can come to their own conclusions about what their own discipleship calls for Accompanying each day s Scripture reading assignments are suggestions of things to look for that take the reader deeper into Scripture As readers become aware of detail in Scripture they might ask themselves repeatedly What am I to make of this The study manual provides space for writing notes on insights observations and questions related to the Scripture and for putting into words personal perceptions of Jesus from the week s Scripture
