Where We Belong Madeline Sayet, 2022-06-08 I've been trying to remember a story Can you help me A long time ago our ancestors told it to us I think it has to do with where we belong In 2015 Mohegan Theater Maker Madeline Sayet travelled to England to pursue a PhD in Shakespeare but her voyage across the ocean became an unexpected journey of transformation Riding the spirit wind of her Mohegan ancestors who crossed the Atlantic in the 1700s on diplomatic missions to protect her people Where We Belong is a search for belonging in a globalized world It is at once a rich investigation into the impulses that divide and connect us as people but it is also about a wolf that learns how to become a bird and fly

Where We Belong Lynn Austin, 2017-10-03 The Adventure of a Lifetime for Two Indomitable Socialite Sisters In the city of Chicago in 1892 the rules for Victorian women are strict their roles limited But sisters Rebecca and Flora Hawes are not typical Victorian ladies Their love of adventure and their desire to use their God given talents has brought them to the Sinai Desert and into a sandstorm Accompanied by Soren Petersen their somber young butler and Kate Rafferty a street urchin who is learning to be their ladies maid the two women are on a quest to find an important biblical manuscript As the journey becomes more dangerous and uncertain the four travelers sift through memories of their past recalling the events that shaped them and the circumstances that brought them to this time and place

Where We Belong Paul Shepard, 2009-04-01 Gathered here in book form for the first time the fourteen essays in Where We Belong exemplify Paul Shepard's interdisciplinary approach to human interaction with the natural world Drawn from Shepard's entire career and presented chronologically these pieces vary in setting from the Hudson River to the American prairie to New Zealand Equally impressive is Shepard's spatial range as he moves from subtle differences to grand designs from the intimacy of an artist's brush stroke to a vista of the harsh Greek terrain Alluding to a range of sources from Star Trek to Marshall McLuhan to the Bible the writings discuss such topics as the geomorphology of New England landscape paintings beautification and conservation projects the Oregon Trail and tourism Whether Shepard is pondering why the Great Plains conjured up sea imagery in early observers or how pioneers often resorted to architectural terms temple castle bridge tower when naming the West's natural formations he exposes and thus invites us to unshoulder the cultural and historical baggage we bring to the act of seeing Throughout the book Shepard seeks the antecedents of environmental perception and questions whether the paradigm we inherited should be superseded by one that leads us to a greater concern for the health of the planet This volume is an important addition to Shepard's canon if only for the new view it offers of his intellectual development More important however these selections demonstrate Shepard's grasp of a wide range of ideas related to the physical environment including the various factors historical aesthetic and psychological that have shaped our attitudes toward the natural world and color the way we see it
