Intercultural Philosophy Lin Ma, Jaap van Brakel, 2016-03-25 Discusses the conditions of possibility for intercultural and comparative philosophy and for crosscultural communication at large This innovative book explores the preconditions necessary for intercultural and comparative philosophy Philosophical practices that involve at least two different traditions with no common heritage and whose languages have very different grammatical structure such as Indo Germanic languages and classical Chinese are a particular focus Lin Ma and Jaap van Brakel look at the necessary and not so necessary conditions of possibility of interpretation comparison and other forms of interaction and how we can speak of similarities and differences in this context The authors posit that it is necessary to dissolve the question of universalism versus relativism by replacing the ideal language paradigm with a paradigm of family resemblances and that it is not necessary to share a common language to engage in comparison Numerous case studies are presented including many comparisons of Western and Chinese concepts GB, GB/T, GBT Chinese Standard(English-translated version) - Catalog002 CODEOFCHINA - Dr.
