defined in the past and emphasizes the changing focus necessary to meet the relevant health care needs of an increasingly wounded society in the 21st century Applications of Self-Care Within the Counselling Practice Gabriella

Karakas, Daniel R. du Plooy, Vicki Hutton, Margaret Anne Carter, 2025-05-11 This volume presents counsellors self care journeys across all stages of the professional lifespan early career mid career and tenured professional Each chapter presents a contributor s personal reflection and insight on sustaining oneself in the field through a strengths based autoethnographic lens Addressing challenges like burnout structural barriers and global events e g pandemics natural disasters and human rights movements the collection highlights the realities of balancing self care while supporting others Although all affiliated with ACAP University College the contributors bring unique perspectives shaped by personal experiences such as motherhood caregiving grief and cultural contexts and professional backgrounds in clinical psychology research allied health trauma informed care and multidisciplinary practice Aimed at inspiring emerging counsellors and students while offering insights to seasoned professionals this volume provides practical strategies on how resilience and longevity can be supported across the counselling profession Trauma Informed Support and Supervision for Child Protection Professionals Fiona Oates, 2022-08-19 This book presents a narrative approach to creating a supportive environment for health and human service practitioners who work with vulnerable children and their families one of the most difficult and complex areas of practice People working in these environments are routinely exposed to violence and trauma and commonly experience symptoms of traumatic stress as a result Traditionally human service and health care service organisations have struggled to support practitioners who experience primary and secondary trauma in either a preventative context or post exposure Using contemporary trauma theory this book provides a trauma informed support and supervision framework for supervisors and managers of practitioners that recognises the uniqueness of the practice field the diversity of practitioners who undertake the work and the diversity of contexts in which they work It will be required reading for all human service and health professionals including social workers psychologists and nurses as well as teachers counsellors and youth workers Learning the Language of Addiction Counseling Geri Miller, 2020-12-09 Fully revised Learning the Language of Addiction Counseling Fourth Edition introduces students and mental health professionals to the field of addiction counseling and helps them develop the knowledge understanding and skills needed to counsel people who are caught in the destructive cycle of addiction Drawing from her years of experience working in the addiction counseling field Geri Miller provides an engaging balanced overview of the major theoretical underpinnings and clinical practices in the field From assessment and diagnosis of addiction to preparing for certification and licensure as an addiction professional this comprehensive book covers all of the essentials You Can'T Heal a Wound by Saying It'S Not There Dr. Saundra J.

Taulbee, 2017-07-07 Today men and women are running around empty trying to fill a void with addictions to work busyness alcohol drugs high debt pornography serial dead end relationships and sex without commitment My book speaks about the futility of this empty search and helps you find peace and meaning beyond yourself You Cant Heal a Wound by Saying Its Not There is about recognizing the wounds we all have from growing up that cripple us until we face them and overcome them Written in a case study format and interspersed with poignant illustrations and memoirs from the authors life this book helps people identify what they need to do to grow up and become all that God intended so that they can use their life to help someone else be better I have learned much from people who have taught me over the years in private psychotherapy practice I have also learned much from people I have served in churches and from our church systems that sometimes leave people marginalized Thus I have a passion for and am drawn to those who have been alienated for one reason or another from church and institutionalized religion With that said I am currently planting a new church with outreach to people who feel disconnected from God www.connectionscommunitychurchirvine.net
