Leveraging the ePortfolio for Integrative Learning Candyce Reynolds, Judith Patton, 2023-07-03 The fruit of the authors more than 15 years of using and writing about ePortfolios in general education and disciplinary programs and courses this book is a comprehensive and practical guide to the use of the ePortfolio as a pedagogy that facilitates the integrative learning that is a central goal of higher education Faculty and administrators of programs using ePortfolios can use this guide to help their students work individually on an ePortfolio or as part of a class or program requirement Readers will discover through examples of student portfolios and targeted exercises how to assist students in making their learning visible to themselves their peers their instructors and their future employers While interest in ePortfolios has exploded because they provide an easier and more comprehensive ways to assess student learning than traditional portfolios and because they have the potential to transformatively develop students ability to connect and apply their knowledge faculty and administrators all too often are disappointed by the lackluster ePortfolios that students submit Reynolds and Patton demonstrate how systematically embedding practices in the classroom that engage students in integrative learning practices dramatically improves outcomes

The authors describe easy to use and practical strategies for faculty to incorporate integrative ePortfolios in their courses and curricula and create the scaffolding to develop students skills and metacognition The book opens by outlining the underlying learning theory and the key concepts of integrative learning and by describing the purpose structure and implementation of ePortfolios Subsequent sections cover classroom practices and assignments to help students understand themselves as learners make connections between course content their personal lives and to the curriculum bridge theory to practice and consider issues of audience and communication and presentation in developing their portfolios The book goes on to cover technological issues and assessment with a particular emphasis on the use of rubrics and concludes with explicated examples of ePortfolios created in a first year program ePortfolios created by graduating students career oriented ePortfolios and lifelong ePortfolios For both experienced faculty and administrators and readers just beginning to use ePortfolios this book provides a framework and guidance to implement them to their fullest potential The E-portfolio

Paradigm Nicole A. Buzzetto-More,2010 High-Impact ePortfolio Practice Bret Eynon,Laura M. Gambino,2023-07-03 At a moment when over half of US colleges are employing ePortfolios the time is ripe to develop their full potential to advance integrative learning and broad institutional change The authors outline how to deploy the ePortfolio as a high impact practice and describe widely applicable models of effective ePortfolio pedagogy and implementation that demonstrably improve student learning across multiple settings Drawing on the campus ePortfolio projects developed by a constellation of institutions that participated in the Connect to Learning network Eynon and Gambino present a wealth of data and revealing case studies Their broad based evidence demonstrates that implemented with a purposeful framework ePortfolios correlate strongly with increased retention and graduation rates broadened student engagement in deep learning processes and advanced faculty and institutional learning The core of the book presents a comprehensive research based framework along with practical examples and strategies for implementation and identifies the key considerations that need to be addressed in the areas of Pedagogy Professional Development Outcomes Assessment Technology and Scaling Up The authors identify how the ePortfolio experience enhances other high impact practices HIPs by creating unique opportunities for connection and synthesis across courses semesters and co curricular experiences Using ePortfolio to integrate learning across multiple HIPs enables students reflect and construct a cohesive signature learning experience This is an invaluable resource for classroom faculty and educational leaders interested in transformative education for 21st century learners A Co Publication with AAC U
