Where Rainbows End Cecelia Ahern, Cecelia, 2005 A River On Fire Jasvinder Sharma, 2008-08-09 This bouquet of short stories presents a true to life picture of the society before us Instead of an imagined world the storyteller through these stories offers a slice of life a down to earth scenario in which the reader finds himself involved unknowingly The writer having a good understanding of basic human feelings brings them out dexterously in these tales on divergent issues These fine tumultuous powerful and heartfelt sagas are not just stories these are experiences Reading them the reader does not remain solely an observer he becomes a part of them the stories open a world of fallacy malice and maladjustment and take him directly to it This is the world that is already known to him but he very often chooses to close his eyes to it Brimming with unlikely and colourful characters the tales offer a fine blend of irony and humanity with some of them replete with heart warming humour the world of the storyteller has the fullness of human psyche with its dreams passions awe and wonder Despite the ambience of fantasy hardcore realism quandaries and predicament underline his stories
