First Aid for Colleges and Universities Keith J. Karren, Daniel Limmer, Brent Q. Hafen, Joseph J. Mistovich, 2007-02 First Aid for Colleges and Universities Ninth Edition is intended for students in a full semester course leading to First Aid CPR certification It is designed specifically for college level courses in First Aid and meets American Red Cross guidelines while providing more depth and detail than the other available texts in the market In addition to comprehensive coverage of many first aid situations this book provides self tests critical thinking exercises and skill assessment checklists The Ninth Edition has been revised to include the 2005 American Red Cross CPR standards for adult and pediatric patients as well as coverage of the variations between American Red Cross and American Heart Association guidelines First Aid Training : First on the Scene. Student Reference Guide St. John Ambulance, 2006 First Aid United States. Department of the Army, United States. Department of the Navy, United States Marine Corps, U S Army U S Navy & U S Air Force, 2005 This manual meets the first aid training needs of individual service members Because medical personnel will not always be readily available the nonmedical service members must rely heavily on their own skills and knowledge of life sustaining methods to survive on the integrated battlefield This publication outlines both self aid and aid to other service members buddy aid More importantly it emphasizes prompt and effective action in sustaining life and preventing or minimizing further suffering and disability First aid is the emergency care given to the sick injured or wounded before being treated by medical personnel The term first aid can be defined as urgent and immediate lifesaving and other measures which can be performed for casualties by nonmedical personnel when medical personnel are not immediately available Nonmedical service members have received basic first aid training and should remain skilled in the correct procedures for giving first aid This manual is directed to all service members The procedures discussed apply to all types of casualties and the measures described are for use by both male and female service members This publication is in consonance with the following North Atlantic Treaty Organization NATO International Standardization Agreements STANAGs and American British Canadian and Australian Quadripartite Standardization Agreements QSTAGs A Handbook of Instruction Intended for the Use of Classes in First Aid to the Injured Sidney A.
