 description available for The Edinburgh Companion to Critical Theory Gendering South Asia Bibhushana Poudyal,2025-04-08 This book looks at how gendered female bodies and non phallic bodies function are rhetoricized as functioning are made to function or are functioned upon in two extremized spaces the private and the public Using rape and menstruation as the marker of the invisible private and the female body and non phallic bodies on the street as the marker of the visible public it shows how these binaries often overlap in the global capital The author discusses how the raped body constantly becomes visible in the media the cycle of the bodily fluid is tabooed and consumerized in the market and the street constantly marginalizes victimizes erases hypersexualizes and hyper visibilizes the female body as valued devalued capital and homophobic transphobic culture alienates the body which is non heterosexual and non heteronormative An important contribution this volume will be indispensable for students and teachers of gender and sexuality studies public health

Social Hierarchies in School Victoria Rawlings,2016-11-17 This book investigates the reasons why the traditional psychological understanding of bullying fails those affected and deconstructs how bullying is shaped by prominent discourse By drawing on poststructuralist feminist theory Victoria Rawlings highlights the social and cultural inequalities too often forgotten in analysis of aggressive behaviour in schools and places particular emphasis on gender and sexuality as facilitating and constraining forces within school environments and bullying discourses This book provides a necessary assessment as to why current anti bullying approaches are failing and offers an alternative explanation as to how and why bullying occurs This is a timely and authoritative study which is based on qualitative research including interviews and group sessions which are used to emphasize the real life experiences of young people in schools today Interdisciplinary in nature this book has a broad appeal and will be of special interest to scholars in the fields of gender and sexuality studies sociology and education

Sexual Fields Adam Isaiah Green,2022-12-22 In the late modern period an unprecedented expansion of specialized erotic worlds has transformed the domain of intimate life Organized by appetites and dispositions related to race ethnicity class gender and age these erotic worlds are arenas of sexual exploration but also sites of stratification and dominion wherein actors vie for partners social significance and esteem These are what Adam Isaiah Green calls sexual fields which represent a semblance of social life for which he offers a groundbreaking new framework To build on the sexual fields framework Green has gathered a distinguished group of scholars who together make a strong case for sexual field theory as the first systematic theoretical innovation since queer theory in the sociology of sexuality Expanding on the work of Bourdieu Green and contributors develop this distinctively sociological approach for analyzing collective sexual life where much of the sexual life of our society resides today Coupling field theory with the ethnographic and theoretical expertise of some of the most important scholars of sexual life at work today Sexual Fields offers a game changing approach that will revolutionize how sociologists analyze and make sense of contemporary sexual life for years to come

Language, Society and Power Annabelle Mooney,Betsy Evans,2018-09-20 Language Society and Power is an accessible introduction to studying language in a variety of social contexts This book examines the ways language functions how it influences the way we view society and how it varies according to age ethnicity class and gender It considers whether representations of people and their language matter explores how identity is constructed and performed and considers the creative potential of language in the media politics and everyday talk The fifth edition of this popular textbook features Updated chapters with new activities Examples that include material related to youth language computer mediated communication texting and electronic communication New material on online mass media fake news and Twitter as a form of political agency More discussion of social media social networking memes and mobile communication An introduction to the concepts of translanguaging and superdiversity An expanded Gender chapter that questions binary gender identities A companion website which includes more video material to support learning as students make their way through the book Language Society and Power assumes no linguistic background among readers and is a must read for all students of English language and linguistics media communication cultural studies sociology and psychology who are studying language and society for the first time

Education and the Politics of Becoming Diana Masny,David Cole,2020-10-28 This collection examines education in the light of a politics of becoming It takes a non hierarchical transdisciplinary approach challenging the macropolitics of pre established governmental and economic agendas for education Drawing on the philosophy of Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari the contributors consider questions such as how education might engage a politics of becoming and how education and becoming function in a society of control Since Deleuze and Guattari contend that a society is defined by its becomings its transformations this collection asks how education itself a process in becoming may contribute collective creations to a society in continual flux The chapters bring theory and praxis together deploying power affect cartography space relationality assemblage and multiple literacies in order to experiment with music art language teacher education curriculum and policy studies This collection is an innovative resource creating an encounter with the macropolitics of education and altering teaching learning evaluation and curriculum This book was originally published as a special issue of Discourse Studies in the Cultural Politics of Education

Women and Gendered Violence in Canada Chris Bruckert,Tuulia Law,2018-01-01 Violence against women is usually framed as an issue of interpersonal violence perpetuated by men While domestic violence and sexual assault are significant social problems such a narrow framing obscures the diversity of women s experience fails to illuminate the role social structures play and excludes discussions of workplace and state violence By drawing on a range of theoretical traditions emerging from feminism criminology and sociology Women and Gendered Violence in Canada significantly expands the conversation on violence against women The first section of the book develops the conceptual and contextual framework that informs the remainder of the text and the following three sections are organized around types of victimization interpersonal labour site and state Each chapter ends with lists of suggested activities and first person narratives are integrated throughout to personalize the material and issues being examined
