

1. William Smallwood's Pianoforte Tutor

Musical sounds are explained by characters called notes, which are named after the first seven letters of the alphabet, namely, A. B. C. D. E. F. G. The notes are written upon what is termed the Stave. The Stave consists of five lines and four spaces which run parallel across the book, thus:-

The lines and spaces are counted upwards, from the lowest to the highest.

The names of the notes are determined by the Clef which is placed at the commencement of the stave. There are various Clefs, but only two are necessary for the Pianoforte: the Treble or G Clef, which is placed on the second line of the stave: and the Bass or F Clef, which is placed on the fourth line of the stave:

Two staves are required, as a rule, for Pianoforte music; they are joined together by a Brace, thus:-

NAMES OF THE TREBLE NOTES

E is on the 1st line, G is on the 2nd line, B is on the 3rd line, D is on the 4th line, F is on the 5th line. F is in the 1st space, A is in the 2nd space, C is in the 3rd space, E is in the 4th space.

The stave is enlarged by added lines, called Ledger lines, and two notes can be obtained by having one below the stave and another above it:- Ledger lines below the stave which can be carried further if desired.

It is better not to learn the ledger lines until the notes on the stave are learned.
