boy's mother dies on his fifth birthday sparking a lifetime of repressed anger that he unleashes once a year in reckless duels with the Fate God or Power who let the coincidence happen. A young woman on a run in Seattle experiences a shooting star moment that pierces her with a love that will eventually help heal the Jesuit, the angry young man and innumerable others. The journeys of this unintentional menagerie carry them to the healing lands of Montana and a newly founded community where nothing tastes better than Maker's Mark mixed with glacier ice and nothing seems less likely than the soul-filling delight. A troupe of spiritual refugees, urban sophisticates, road-weary musicians and local cowboys begin to find in each other's company. With Sun House, David James Duncan continues exploring the American search for meaning and love that he began in his acclaimed novels The River Why and The Brothers K. Index of Patents Issued from the United States
