Lesbians in Television and Text after the Millennium R. Beirne, 2008-09-15 Taking up such issues as mainstreaming the male gaze and female masculinity this book puts forward provocative readings of little explored texts and offers new insights into the contemporary representation of lesbians

Sarah Waters Kaye Mitchell, 2013-07-18 A multiple award winning author Sarah Waters is one of the most critically and commercially successful novelists writing today In such novels as Fingersmith Tipping the Velvet Affinity and The Night Watch her writing has played compellingly with popular and generic forms and narrative techniques and covered a number of important contemporary themes This critical guide is the first book to offer a wide range of current critical perspectives on Waters work With chapters written by leading established and emerging scholars the book explores issues such as gender sexuality class time and space in Waters fiction as well as her appropriation of a range of genres from the historical and neo victorian novel to the gothic The book also includes a new interview with Waters herself a timeline of her life chapter summaries and guides to further reading making this an essential guide to the work of one of the most exciting voices in contemporary fiction

Neo-Victorian Lesbians on Screen Sarah E. Maier,Rachel M. Friars,2025-09-09 In Neo Victorian Lesbians on Screen Maier and Friars argue that the on screen portrayal of lesbians situated in the long nineteenth century across various countries is at the very least a dual task the imperative project of revoicing lesbian silence and female companionship is complicated by the lack of and or complex representation of such women in the past The adaptations with varying degrees of success carefully manipulate the gaze of the viewer to illustrate both how crucial the act of looking proves to be for lesbian attachment in these films and how the viewer s own gaze changes the way the lesbian is represented Maier and Friars consider the adaptations awareness of the audience and the ways in which the films implicitly acknowledge the stakes behind bringing the lesbian to life as it were in visual media Because screen adaptations disrupt historical distance by literally picturing Victorian subjects via a medium they did not have film adaptations of novels and biofictions and original screenplays are challenged by the lesbian subject s vivid presence on screen The lesbian is no longer a contained neo Victorian presence in the othered nineteenth century but her very existence on screen signals her effervescent modernity which filmmakers alternately embrace or reject

Demory,Christopher Pullen,2016-04-30 This critical introduction to gay and lesbian identity within the media explores the concept of new storytelling The case studies look at film television and online media focusing on the narrative potential of individual storytellers who as producers writers and performers challenge identity concerns and offer new expressions of liberty

Sex, Time and Place Simon Avery,Katherine M. Graham,2016-10-06 Sex Time and Place extensively widens the scope of what we might mean by queer London studies Incorporating multidisciplinary perspectives including social history cultural geography visual culture literary representation ethnography and social studies this collection asks new questions widens debates and opens new subject terrain Featuring essays from an international range of established scholars and emergent voices the collection is a timely contribution to this growing field Its essays cover topics such as activist and radical communities and groups AIDS and the city art and literature digital archives and technology drag and performativity lesbian Londons notions of bohemianism and deviancy sex reform and research and queer Black history

Going further than the existing literature on Queer London which focuses principally on the experiences of white gay men in a limited time frame Sex Time and Place reflects the current state of this growing and important field of study It will be of great value to scholars students and general readers who have an interest in queer history London studies cultural geography visual cultures and literary criticism The New Partridge Dictionary of Slang and Unconventional English: J-Z Eric Partridge, 2006 Entry includes attestations of the head word s or phrase s usage usually in the form of a quotation Annotation 2006 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews com Dramaturgy of Sex on Stage in Contemporary Theatre Kate Mulley, 2024-01-16 Dramaturgy of Sex on Stage in Contemporary Theatre explores the dramaturgy of sex in contemporary works for the stage in the social cultural and historical context of the time and place during which they were written and performed Comprising chapters by writers from across North America and Europe the book covers an expansive range of plays musicals and dance performances from Broadway to the Fringe from post AIDS epidemic to post COVID 19 pandemic Analysing these intimate moments both textually and as staged through an intersectional and critical lens illuminates the way power structures are maintained and codified and how they can be queered and dismantled onstage and off This examination of depictions of sex on stage attempts to understand from a dramaturgical and sociological perspective how these depictions have developed over time and how the rise of intimacy directors has responded to the changes within the contemporary theatrical landscape and in the world at large This is an essential companion for any scholar or practitioner looking to stage discuss or understand intimacy in performance Victorian Dress in Contemporary Historical Fiction Danielle Mariann Dove, 2023-10-19 Victorian Dress in Contemporary Historical Fiction is the first full length study to investigate and attend to the deeply suggestive and highly symbolic iterations of Victorian women s dress in the contemporary cultural imagination Drawing upon a range of popular and less well studied neo Victorian novels published between 1990 and 2014 as well as their Victorian counterparts 19th century illustrative material and extant Victorian garments Danielle Dove explores the creative possibilities afforded by dress and fashion as gendered sites of agency and affect Focusing on the relationship between texts and textiles she demonstrates how dress is central to the narrativization re formulation and re fashioning of the material past in the present In its examination of the narrative trajectories lively vitalities and material entanglements that accrue to and originate from dress in the neo Victorian novel this study brings a fresh approach to reading Victorian sartorial culture For researchers and students of Victorian and neo Victorian studies dress history material culture and gender studies this volume offers a rich resource with which to illuminate the power of fashion in fiction The Victorian Woman Question in Contemporary Feminist Fiction J. King, 2005-06-01 The Victorian Woman Question in Contemporary Feminist Fiction explores the representation of Victorian womanhood in the work of some of today s most important British and North American novelists including A S Byatt Sarah Waters Margaret Atwood Angela Carter and Toni Morrison By analysing these novels in the context of the scientific religious and literary discourses that shaped Victorian ideas about gender it contributes to an important inter disciplinary debate For while showing the power of these discourses to shape women s roles the novels also suggest how individual women might challenge that power through their own lives
