Campbell,1996 This report describes students reading achievements at grades 4 8 and 12 and within various subgroups of the general population State level results are presented for individual states that chose to participate in the 1994 Trial State Assessment Chapter 1 presents an overview of the 1994 NAEP reading assessment and sample questions and responses Chapter 2 provides overall average proficiency results for the nation regions subgroups of students and jurisdictions participating in the Trial State Assessment Chapter 3 describes students reading performance in terms of achievement levels Chapter 4 focuses on cross state comparisons of proficiency results from the state by state assessment at grade 4 Chapter 5 describes contextual factors related to students reading achievement Chapter 6 describes specific abilities demonstrated by students in the NAEP reading assessment and reports student performance when reading for different purposes The most striking finding from the 1994 assessment is that the average reading proficiency of 12th grade students declined significantly from 1992 to 1994 Other major findings include 1 the decline in average proficiency among 12th graders between 1992 and 1994 was concentrated among lower performing students 2 reading proficiency at all three grade levels was higher on average for students whose parents had more education 3 at all three grade levels female students had higher average reading proficiencies than male students and 4 students who reported having a greater array of literacy materials in their homes displayed higher average reading achievement Contains 38 tables and 23 figures of data Appendixes provide an overview of procedures used in the 1994 assessment and describe students reading performance cross state proficiency and achievement level results and sample texts and questions RS State Education Journal Index ,2008 "It's Being Done" Karen Chenoweth,2007-04-01 2007 Notable Education Book American School Board Journal This straightforward and inspiring book takes readers into schools where educators believe and prove that all children even those considered hard to teach can learn to high standards Their teachers and principals refuse to write them off and instead show how thoughtful instruction high expectations stubborn commitment and careful consideration of each child s needs can result in remarkable improvements in student achievement

The Mismeasure of Education Jim Horn,Denise Wilburn,2013-07-01 With new student assessments and teacher evaluation schemes in the planning or early implementation phases this book takes a step back to examine the ideological and historical grounding potential benefits scholarly evidence and ethical basis for the new generation of test based accountability measures After providing the political and cultural contexts for the rise of the testing accountability movement in the 1960s that culminated almost forty years later in No Child Left Behind and Race to the Top this book then moves on to provide a policy history and social policy analysis of value added testing in Tennessee that is framed around questions of power relations winners and losers In examining the issues and exercise of power that are sustained in the long standing policy of standardized testing in schools this work provides a big picture perspective on assessment practices over time in the U S by examining the rise of value added assessment in Tennessee a fine grained and contemporary case is provided within that larger context The last half of the book provides a detailed survey of the research based critiques of value added methodology while detailing an aggressive marketing campaign to make value added modeling VAM a central component of reform strategies following NCLB The last chapter and epilogue place the continuation of test based accountability practices within the context of an emerging pushback against privatization high stakes testing and other education reforms This book will be useful to a wide audience including teachers parents school leaders policymakers researchers and students of educational history policy and politics

Leadership Lessons from Comprehensive School Reforms Joseph Murphy, Amanda Datnow, 2003 Leadership Lessons From Comprehensive School Reform addresses a topic that has received far too little attention in the comprehensive school reform movement the role of school and district leaders in the reform process This volume shows how much we've learned about how leaders shape comprehensive reform and how the reform process must shape leadership Robert Slavin Co Director Center for Research on the Education of Students Placed at Risk Johns Hopkins University This volume provides the most thorough balanced and informative source available on comprehensive school reform In addition to insights regarding implementation of many of the most prominent CSR models the book is a primer on distributed leadership providing perspectives on the interplay of principals teacher leaders central office administrators and model developers engaged in school and district reform James Lytle Superintendent Trenton New Jersey Public Schools This book offers well grounded insights about the leadership practices of educators involved in the implementation of Comprehensive School Reform models Leaders and leadership scholars will find it a rewarding read I recommend it highly Kenneth Leithwood Ontario Institute for Studies in Education Ontario Canada Discover what we've learned about educational leadership from comprehensive school reforms models straight from the experts and insiders Comprehensive School Reform CSR is proving to be one of the most promising avenues for improving student achievement The authors have found that leadership is frequently acknowledged to be a prime factor in the successful implementation of comprehensive school reform Murphy and Datnow have gathered together a group of CSR insiders and researchers to examine the issue of leadership in CSR for the first time Contributors and CSR models include Expeditionary Learning Schools Modern Red Schoolhouse Co Nect Success for All New American Schools Chicago Annenberg Challenge Bay Area School Reform Collaborative Accelerated Schools Coalition of Essential Schools Comer School Development Process

Making the Unequal Metropolis Ansley T. Erickson, 2016-04-01 In a radically unequal United States schools are often key sites in which injustice grows Ansley T Erickson's Making the Unequal Metropolis presents a broad detailed and damning argument about the inextricable interrelatedness of school policies and the persistence of metropolitan scale inequality While many accounts of education in urban and metropolitan contexts describe schools as the victims of forces beyond their control Erickson shows the many ways that schools have been intertwined with these forces and have in fact via land use decisions curricula and other tools helped sustain inequality Taking Nashville as her focus Erickson uncovers the hidden policy choices that have until now been missing from popular and legal narratives of inequality In her account inequality emerges not only from individual racism and white communities resistance to desegregation but as the result of long standing linkages between schooling property markets labor markets and the pursuit of economic growth By making visible the full scope of the forces invested in and reinforcing inequality Erickson reveals the complex history of and broad culpability for ongoing struggles in our schools

The Best Teachers in the World John E. Chubb, Benno C. Schmidt, 2013-09-01 John Chubb shows how we can raise student achievement to levels comparable to those of the best nations in the world through a radically new strategy for raising teacher quality He asserts that we must attract and retain much higher caliber individuals in teaching which we can accomplish by reducing the size and increasing the compensation of the teaching force via technology abolishing licensing and training teachers in institutions and programs that have demonstrated their efficacy in producing effective and improving the quality of school leadership on which teaching quality heavily depends NAEP 1998

Writing State Report for Department of Defense Dependents Schools Laura Jerry, 1999 Linking Teacher Preparation

Program Design and Implementation to Outcomes for Teachers and Students Jennifer E. Carinci, Cara Jackson, Stephen J. Meyer, 2020-02-01 Improving the use of evidence in teacher preparation is one of the greatest challenges and opportunities for our field The chapters in this volume explore how data availability quality and use within and across preparation programs shed light on the structures policies and practices associated with high quality teacher preparation Chapter authors take on critical questions about the connection between what takes place during teacher preparation and subsequent outcomes for teachers and students which has remained a black box for too long Despite a long history of teacher preparation in the U S and a considerable investment in preservice and in service training much is still to be learned about how pre service preparation impacts teacher effectiveness A strong empirical basis that informs how specific aspects of and approaches to teacher preparation relate to outcomes for graduates and their preK 12 student outcomes will provide a foundation for improved teaching and learning Our book responds to stakeholders collective responsibility to students and teachers to act more deliberately Issues of data availability and quality the uses of data for improvement priorities for future research and opportunities to promote evidence use in teacher preparation are discussed throughout the volume to inspire collective action to push the field towards more use of evidence Chapters present research that uses a variety of research designs methodologies and data sources to explore important questions about the relationship between teacher preparation inputs and outcomes
