To Get A Police Report:

The Reporter, 2013 Identity Theft Guide, Advanced Reporting Miles Maguire, 2014-07-25 News gathering is a large complicated and often messy task that has traditionally been viewed by journalists as irretrievably idiosyncratic best learned through trial and error Advanced Reporting takes the opposite approach focusing on reporting as a process of triangulation based on three essential activities analyzing documents making observations and conducting interviews In this readable book veteran journalism professor Miles Maguire shows how the best reporters use these three tools in a way that allows them to cross check and authenticate facts to reduce or eliminate unsupportable allegations and to take readers and viewers to a deeper level of insight and understanding This book will help to prepare students for a profession marked by increasing complexity and competition To succeed in this environment journalists must learn to make the most of digital media to intensify the impact of their work At the same time reporters must contend with a host of sophisticated public relations techniques while engaging with news audiences that no longer just consume journalism but also collaborate in its creation Discussion questions and exercises help students put theory into practice The Dalai Lama's Secret and Other Reporting Adventures Henry S. Bradsher, 2013-04-08 For over a quarter of a century award winning journalist Henry Bradsher reported stories from around the world In this lively and engaging account Bradsher recounts episodes from a distinguished career that took him to the Himalayas the jungles of Bhutan Kremlin caviar receptions China's Forbidden City and the battlefields of Vietnam Throughout Bradsher emphasizes the unpredictability of a correspondent's life and the strains perils and privileges of standing witness to momentous world events In South Asia Bradsher reported the Dalai Lama's escape from Tibet in 1959 and the last five years that Jawaharlal Nehru led India with a side trip to hunt tigers in Nepal with Queen Elizabeth In Moscow he covered the downfall of Nikita Khrushchev and he later suffered the KGB bombing of his car in response to his tenacious reporting His incisive coverage from Hong Kong led Chinese officials to label Bradsher as the most despicable journalist But after a power shift they welcomed him as the first American journalist allowed to work in China in over a year Bradsher predicted and reported Bangladesh's independence struggle and he worked in the Middle East covering Egyptian Israeli peace arrangements Access to the events that shaped the Cold War also led to Bradsher's meeting many world leaders including Nehru Khrushchev Leonid Brezhnev Zhou Enlai Richard Nixon Gerald Ford Jimmy Carter Ronald Reagan Anwar Sadat and Menachem Begin Although Bradsher's reporting riled officials in Moscow Beijing and even the United States prompting Henry Kissinger's attempts to thwart the publication of his reports history has proven its accuracy Bradsher's relentlessness in his own work accompanied a profound respect for fellow journalists worldwide who endanger themselves to keep the public informed Credit Repair Kit For Dummies Stephen R.
