The Marines, Counterinsurgency, and Strategic Culture Jeannie L. Johnson, 2018 The US Marine Corps has traditionally been one of the most innovative branches of the US military but even it has struggled to learn and retain lessons from past counterinsurgency wars Jeannie L. Johnson looks at the clash between strategic culture and organizational learning through the US Marine Corps's long experience with counterinsurgency She first undertakes a fascinating examination of what makes the Marines distinct their identity norms values and perceptual lens To do this Johnson uses an innovative framework for analyzing strategic culture Next she traces the history of the Marines counterinsurgency experience from the expeditionary missions of the early twentieth century through the Vietnam War and finally to the Iraq War She shows that even a service as self aware and dedicated to innovation as the US Marine Corps is significantly constrained in the lessons learned process by its own internal predispositions Even when internal preferences can be changed ingrained biases endemic to the broader US military culture and American public culture create barriers to learning

Counterinsurgency Field Manual The U.S. Army Marine Corps, 2024-05-31 When the U S military invaded Iraq it lacked a common understanding of the problems inherent in counterinsurgency campaigns It had neither studied them nor developed doctrine and tactics to deal with them It is fair to say that in 2003 most Army officers knew more about the U S Civil War than they did about counterinsurgency The U S Army Marine Corps Counterinsurgency Field Manual was written to fill that void The result of unprecedented collaboration among top U S military experts scholars and practitioners in the field the manual espouses an approach to combat that emphasizes constant adaptation and learning the importance of decentralized decision making the need to understand local politics and customs and the key role of intelligence in winning the support of the population The manual also emphasizes the paradoxical and often counterintuitive nature of counterinsurgency operations sometimes the more you protect your forces the less secure you are sometimes the more force you use the less effective it is sometimes doing nothing is the best reaction An new introduction by Sarah Sewall director of the Carr Center for Human Rights Policy at Harvard s Kennedy School of Government places the manual in critical and historical perspective explaining the significance and potential impact of this revolutionary challenge to conventional U S military doctrine An attempt by our military to redefine itself in the aftermath of 9 11 and the new world of international terrorism The U S Army Marine Corps Counterinsurgency Field Manual will play a vital role in American military campaigns for years to come The University of Chicago Press will donate a portion of the proceeds from this book to the Fisher House Foundation a private public partnership that supports the families of America s injured servicemen To learn more about the Fisher House Foundation visit www.fisherhouse.org US Military Innovation Since the Cold War Harvey Sapolsky, Benjamin Friedman, Brendan Green, 2009-04-28 This book explains how the US military reacted to the Revolution in Military Affairs RMA and failed to innovate its organization or doctrine to match the technological breakthroughs it brought about Many called for the transformation of the US military in the years after the end of the Cold War seeking the changes in organization and doctrine that would complete the RMA innovation and a commitment to counter insurgency peace keeping and nation building missions This volume describes the origins uses and limits of the RMA technologies examines how each of the five US armed services categorising the Special Operations as a separate service made their adjustments both to the technologies and the use of force and how the role of the civilian officials and the defense industry altered in this process of change and avoidance of change The book examines the internal politics of the services as well as civil military relations to identify the external pressures on the services for significant change in their doctrine and weapons Many have noted the failure of the services to innovate in what can be called the Second Inter war Period the years after the Cold War This book offers explanations for this failure and arguments about the possible range and desirability of military innovation in the post Cold war era This book will be of great interest to students of strategic studies US defence politics military studies and US politics Harvey M Sapolsky is Professor of Public Policy and Organization in the Department of Political Science at MIT and former Director of the Security Studies Program Benjamin H Friedman is a Research Fellow in Defense and Homeland Security Studies at the Cato Institute and a Ph D Candidate in Political Science at MIT Brendan Green is a Ph D Candidate in Political Science at MIT and an affiliate of the Security Studies Program Black Hearts Jim Frederick, 2010-02-09

Riveting a testament to a misconceived war and to the ease with which ordinary men under certain conditions can transform into monsters New York Times Book Review This is the story of a small group of soldiers from the 101st Airborne Division s fabled 502nd Infantry Regiment a unit known as the Black Heart Brigade Deployed in late 2005 to Iraq s so called Triangle of Death a veritable meat grinder just south of Baghdad the Black Hearts found themselves in arguably the country s most dangerous location at its most dangerous time Hit by near daily mortars gunfire and roadside bomb attacks suffering from a particularly heavy death toll and enduring a chronic breakdown in leadership members of one Black Heart platoon 1st Platoon Bravo Company 1st Battalion descended over their year long tour of duty into a tailspin of poor discipline substance abuse and brutality Four 1st Platoon soldiers would perpetrate one of the most heinous war crimes U S forces have committed during the Iraq War the rape of a fourteen year old Iraqi girl and the cold blooded execution of her and her family Three other 1st Platoon soldiers would be overrun at a remote outpost one killed immediately and two taken from the scene their mutilated corpses found days later booby trapped with explosives Black Hearts is an unflinching account of the epic tragic deployment of 1st Platoon Drawing on hundreds of hours of in depth interviews with Black Heart soldiers and first hand reporting from the Triangle of Death Black Hearts is a timeless story about men in combat and the fragility of character in the savage crucible of warfare But it is also a timely warning of new dangers emerging in the way American soldiers are led on the battlefields of the twenty first century Publications Combined: Marine Combat Training (MCT) Battalion Course Materials , To the Marines Welcome to Golf Company and the next step in your journey to becoming part of the

Our Combat Instructors will lead, teach, mentor, and guide every one of you through a rigorous 29-day program of instruction. You will be taught by the most experienced professional and knowledgeable staff: non-commissioned officers and non-commissioned officers that the Marine Corps has to offer. These SNCOs and NCOs were hand-picked out of hundreds of applicants to come to the School of Infantry to be Combat Instructors. I highly encourage you to prepare your mind and body for this training; the knowledge you gain here will carry you throughout your Marine Corps career. During the training cycle, I expect you to commit yourself to your training and education by learning as much as you can from our Combat Instructors. Finally, when you graduate, I expect you to retain what you learned and uphold the time-honored traditions of our Marine Corps. Remember that regardless of military occupation specialty, every Marine is a Rifleman first. Every Marine, regardless of his military occupation, is trained as a Rifleman. This concept has been around since the Marine Corps' inception in 1775, when every man who volunteered was required to bring his own musket. In the early 1900s, as the Marine Corps grew and additional military occupations were created, the Commandant General John A. Lejeune ensured that every Marine, regardless of his Military Occupational Specialty (MOS), received marksmanship training. During the Korean War, the Marine Corps was the only service to create rifle companies entirely from cooks, drivers, and other non-infantry Marines. From this war, the proverbial saying "Every Marine a Rifleman" was born. In the nineteen eighties, the Commandant General Al Gray recognized the need to train all Marines in more than just basic marksmanship but in modern-day combat skills. The School of Infantry was assigned to conduct this training, known as Common Skills, because it is common to every Marine. These common skills allow every Marine, regardless of MOS, to act as a Rifleman when called upon. MCT Battalion generates Marine Riflemen to possess a foundational understanding of and their role in applying the Marine Corps warfighting ethos, core values, basic tenets of maneuver warfare, leadership responsibilities, mental, moral, and physical resiliency in order to contribute to the successful accomplishment of their unit's mission. New Rifleman Definition: A Marine Rifleman embodies the Marine Corps warfighting ethos, offensively minded, lethal, with their weapon, mentally, morally, physically resilient, proficient in basic field craft, and possessing a foundational understanding of leadership and the basic tenets of maneuver warfare.
