A Team Approach to Behaviour Management Chris Derrington, Barry Groom, 2004-02-17 This is an accessible and clearly set out book with a consistently positive and empowering tone. The examples and level of the material are realistic and likely to promote discussion, which is skilfully handled, would lead to a more consistent approach. European Journal of Special Needs. Trying to know something about everything is a tall order, but this book can ease the burden considerably if you feel the teaching assistants or any staff in your school would benefit from help and advice on behaviour management. This is just the thing for a busy SENCO, although as a special needs adviser, I can already see how I might use and adapt some of the excellent resources and activity ideas to add sparkle to my own centre and school-based training. British Journal of Special Education. The resource is designed for SENCOs, trainers who work with TAs, and it really does hit its target audience, striking a good balance between the SENCO's need for comprehensive coverage of the material and the TA's need for an accessible training and developmental experience. In addition, there are clearly potential applications for perhaps slightly tweaked elements of the resource with other teaching and non-teaching staff in schools.
