Tip# 1: Make sure to Have Contact

Going to a place without contact is a dangerous decision to do. Having contact to place will help you to make your stay peaceful and comfortable.

Tip# 2: Don't Bring To Many Books

For some students who are taking the review, they will bring all their books to a review. Is that a wise decision to make? Well, the answer is not. It is unwise to bring all those books in the review because it could only add to your stress.

Also, most of those books are read during college and you have many notes on it. However, if you really want to bring it, make sure that those books will help you to understand not to give you more reasons not to study. Finally, bringing those books might cost you in traveling back and forth. I'm telling you, you can't read many books during your review.
