Reflected in Their Literature from 1870 to 1914 Fanny Johnson,1922 Thinking and Learning through Children's Literature Miriam G. Martinez,Junko Yokota,Charles Temple,2017-04-18 Much of teachers attention these days is focused on having students read closely to ferret out the author s intended meaning and the devices used to convey that meaning But we cannot forget to guide students to have moving engagements with literature because they need to make strong personal connections to books of merit if they are to become the next generation of readers literate people with awareness of and concern for the diversity of human beings around them and in different times and places Fortunately guiding both students personal engagement with literature and their close reading to appreciate the author s message and craft are not incompatible goals This book enthusiastically and intelligently addresses both imperatives first surveying what is gained when students are immersed in literature then celebrating and explicating the main features of literature students need to understand to broaden their tastes and deepen their engagement at the same time they meet external standards then presenting a host of active methods for exploring all major genres of children s books and finally presenting suggestions for interdisciplinary teaching units grounded in literature Created by noted leaders in the fields of children s literature and literacy the book is enlivened by recurring features such as suggested reading lists issues for discussion links to technology and annotations of exemplary books

The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1856 The Intelligent Unconscious in Modernist Literature and Science Thalia Trigoni,2020-11-16 This book reassesses the philosophical psychological and above all the literary representations of the unconscious in the early twentieth century This period is distinctive in the history of responses to the unconscious because it gave rise to a line of thought according to which the unconscious is an intelligent agent able to perform judgements and formulate its own thoughts The roots of this theory stretch back to nineteenth century British physiologists Despite the production of a number of studies on modernist theories of the relation of the unconscious to conscious cognition the degree to which the notion of the intelligent unconscious influenced modernist thinkers and writers remains understudied This study seeks to look back at modernism from beyond the Freudian model It is striking that although we tend not to explore the importance of this way of thinking about the unconscious and its relationship to consciousness during this period modernist writers adopted it widely The intelligent unconscious was particularly appealing to literary authors as it is intertwined with creativity and artistic novelty through its ability to move beyond discursive logic The book concentrates primarily on the works of D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf and T S Eliot authors who engaged the notion of the intelligent unconscious reworked it and offered it for the consumption of the general populace in varied ways and for different purposes whether aesthetic philosophical societal or ideological Shortlisted for the Modernist Studies Association MSA First Book Prize and for the 2021 British Society for Literature and Science Book Prize The Mirror of Literature, Amusement, and Instruction ,1846 Containing original essays historical narratives biographical memoirs sketches of society topographical descriptions novels and tales anecdotes select extracts from new and expensive works the spirit of the public journals discoveries in the arts and sciences useful domestic hints etc etc etc Literature and Event Mantra Mukim,Derek Attridge,2021-11-29 If event is a proper name we reserve for monumental changes crises transitions and ruptures that are by their very nature unnameable or unthinkable then this volume is an attempt to set up an encounter between such eventhood as it comes to have a bearing on literary works and the work of reading literature As the event continues to provide a valuable analytical paradigm for work undertaken within the newer subdisciplines of literary and critical theory including close reading bio politics world literature and eco criticism this volume makes a concerted effort to update the scholarship in this area and foreground the recent resurgence of interest in the concept The book provides both a retrospective appraisal of the significance of events to literary studies and the literary humanities as well as contemporary and prospective appraisals of the same and thus would appeal scholars and instructors in the areas of literary theory comparative literature and philosophical aesthetics alike Along with a specialist focus on thinkers such as Derrida Badiou Deleuze and Malabou the essays in this volume read a wide corpus of literature ranging from Han Kang Homer Renee Gladman Proust and Flaubert to Yoruba ideophones Browning Anne Carson Jenichiro Oyabe and Ben Lerner The Eclectic Magazine of Foreign Literature, Science, and Art ,1878 C.T. Hsia on Chinese Literature Chih-tsing Hsia,2004 Best known for the groundbreaking works A History of Modern Chinese Fiction 1961 and The Classic Chinese Novel 1968 C T Hsia has gathered sixteen essays and studies written during his Columbia years as a professor of Chinese literature Wider in range and scope C T Hsia on Chinese Literature stands beside his two earlier books as part of his critical legacy to all readers seriously interested in the subject C T Hsia's writings on Chinese literature express a candor rare among his Western colleagues Thus the first section of the book contains three essays that place Chinese literature in critical perspective examining its substance and significance and questioning some of the critical approaches and methods adopted by Western sinologists for its study and appreciation The second section has two essays on traditional drama one on the Yuan masterpiece The Romance of the Western Chamber and the other a sophisticated study of the plays of the foremost Ming dramatist Tang Hsien tsu The third section is the richest and longest of the book containing six essays on traditional and early modern fiction At least four of these on The Military Romance and the novels Flowers in the Mirror The Travels of Lao Ts'an and Jade Pear Spirit are among the author's finest works Finally the fourth section of the book covering modern fiction includes one essay on the novel The Korchin Banner Plains an essay on women in Chinese communist fiction and three concise yet illuminating studies of the short story during the three republican decades before Mao the first dozen years under Mao and in Taiwan during the 1960s
