The Quest for Spiritual Maturity Tom Seals, 2009-07-01 Seals discusses ways to develop into spiritually mature men and women of God in the face of the many persistent and powerful challenges of modernity Lord, Help Me Grow Up!: The Four Stages of Spiritual Maturity Dionne R. Thomas, 2021-10-09 Do you desire to grow spiritually but often feel stuck Well this is the book for you Natural Maturity is often fully understood but Spiritual Maturity is often forgotten about or highly misunderstood We understand natural progression For example when we are born we understand that there is a natural evolution that should take place as we grow up so shall it be spiritually In this book I will discuss in great detail the process of spiritual maturity I will go over the four stages of spiritual maturity which are extraction wilderness identity and the production stage I will also discuss the vital keys that lead to success in each stage as well as things you will have to war against and conquer in order for you to make it to the next stage of maturity In addition I will use Moses as an example as he too experienced all four stages of maturity in his walk with God and is a great role model to learn from as we walk and grow in Christ Spiritual Maturity Leslie Reynolds, 2001-10-15 piritual Maturity The Whole Elephant provides a look at spiritual maturity for both spiritual seekers and the spiritually religiously committed It provides a glimpse of the whole elephant to use a term based on the Hindu metaphor of the blind men and the elephant It contains widely diverse answers to ten defining questions about spiritual maturity These questions include the characteristics of spiritual maturity the relationship to psychological and moral maturity and to social action and the culture stages to and which organizations support attainment alone or in community how to support others on the path and where you are The answers are given by thirty spiritual leaders not leaders of the national or academic variety but leaders of the shoe leather variety clergymen Catholic Protestant Jewish and New Age university professors and a psychotherapist monks and sisters a Native American followers of Islam Hindu and Buddhist practices members of 12 Step programs and a human development trainer an African American Sufi and black Baptist deacon It is spiritual maturity made accessible to everyone It closes with the reflections of a university professor after viewing the Holocaust Museum providing a glimpse of the possible cost of holding on so rigidly to our specific understanding of who God is and his possible plan for us Imagine a dialogue among people who hold very different points of view The group consists of a Bible church pastor a law school professor a member of Alcoholics Anonymous the abbot of a Zen monastery a Roman Catholic sister who is an instructor in Spiritual Direction a Baptist worship leader and a Methodist pastor Imagine two of them as reluctant participants one the member of Alcoholics Anonymous because he is not exactly a fan of organized religion the second is the Bible pastor who appeared suspicious of mingling with other leaders of non Bible based religions The dialogue follows Always the teacher the law professor begins by giving his definition of spiritual maturity Coming of age in the spirit While everyone nods wisely in agreement they then realize that they all have differing definitions of spirit and even of coming of age The Methodist pastor picks up the thread The person would have an awareness of the divine in life They would have a sense in which they would understand that which we call God and feel some connectedness and relatedness to that God Looking around for agreement he continues

They would be able to utilize the rites and rituals of their faith in an effective manner with as little sense of magic or mere wish fulfillment as possible They would be able to give witness to that in a variety of ways whatever is appropriate that comes with their setting He points out aware of the diversity of the setting that what he was saying could be taken in the broadest possible sense This application would apply to a Buddhist or a Muslim as well as a Christian Afraid that the conversation might digress the Baptist worship leader enters the conversation to qualify Its not something we can produce Its Christ likeness produced inside us through friendship with the triune God He explains that what spiritual maturity means to the Christian is Holy Spirit maturity He elaborates he means Holy Spirit produced maturity Nodding in agreement the Buddhist abbot says I think there is a certain spiritual maturity that comes with people who are really into any spiritual practice deep into whatever spiritual practice They seem to be open to all others seem to have respect for one another That would be wonderful if we all had that openness to one anothers spiritualities I encountered my own prejudice All human beings have particular biases beliefs that we hold to be true whether we are aware of them or not One question I asked rather awkwardly of
