grey light of the morning after a short but annihilating artillery preparation the divisions posted in the first line dashed forward through the fog and drizzle The objective was three villages Beaumont Hamel and Beaucourt on the North bank of the river and on the South Saint Pierre Divion Let me tell you something of the country and its difficulties Swamps soggy undulations formed by the trenches and the convoys a wet clayey soil into which one sinks to the waist Mud everywhere Slime everywhere One must slide down the funnels and holes that the shells have made Thus the waves of the assault gather for their onset The Germans had constructed defences formed of five lines of trenches each alternated with at least three rows of barbed wire entanglements The chevaux de frise and other obstacles covered in places a space over 200 yards wide On the one hand and on the other the banks of the Ancre ran up into bluffs like buttresses Since his failure of the 1st of July the enemy has cut among these natural protections deep trenches which wind along parallel to the course of the river He has also set up on the slopes powerful machine gun emplacements and blockhouses with mortars The English advance went like clockwork The secret had been well kept the evening before the troops of this sector were quite unaware that an advance was to take place An absolute determination inspired both officers and men The result of the attack was never in doubt The trenches were taken by storm together with those who manned them It was a veritable harvest of men The fourth line was taken at the point of the bayonet in eighteen minutes At eight in the morning we attacked the outskirts of the three villages Beaumont Hamel was the first to be taken with its garrison Before Beaucourt we were brought to a halt by machine gun fire Saint Pierre Divion was outflanked The artillery increased its range and cut short all counter attacks To be continue in this ebook
