War Trash Ha Jin:

War Trash Ha Jin, 2005-05-10 Ha Jin's masterful new novel casts a searchlight into a forgotten corner of modern history the experience of Chinese soldiers held in U S POW camps during the Korean War In 1951 Yu Yuan a scholarly and self-effacing clerical officer in Mao's volunteer army is taken prisoner south of the 38th Parallel Because he speaks English he soon becomes an intermediary between his compatriots and their American captors With Yuan as guide we are ushered into the secret world behind the barbed wire a world where kindness alternates with blinding cruelty and one has infinitely more to fear from one's fellow prisoners than from the guards Vivid in its historical detail profound in its imaginative empathy War Trash is Ha Jin's most ambitious book to date

The Intimacies of Conflict Daniel Y. Kim, 2020-11-03 Winner 2020 Peter C Rollins Prize given by the Northeast Popular American Culture Association Enables a reckoning with the legacy of the Forgotten War through literary and cinematic works of cultural memory Though often considered the forgotten war lost between the end of World War II and the start of the Cold War the Korean War was as Daniel Y Kim argues a watershed event that fundamentally reshaped both domestic conceptions of race and the interracial dimensions of the global empire that the United States would go on to establish He uncovers a trail of cultural artefacts that speaks to the trauma experienced by civilians during the conflict but also evokes an expansive web of complicity in the suffering that they endured Taking up a range of American popular media from the 1950s Kim offers a portrait of the Korean War as it looked to Americans while they were experiencing it in real time Kim expands this archive to read a robust host of fiction from US writers like Susan Choi Rolando Hinojosa Toni Morrison and Chang rae Lee and the Korean author Hwang Sok yong The multiple and ongoing historical trajectories presented in these works testify to the resurgent afterlife of this event in US cultural memory and of its lasting impact on multiple racialized populations both within the US and in Korea The Intimacies of Conflict offers a robust multifaceted and multidisciplinary analysis of the pivotal but often unacknowledged consequences of the Korean War in both domestic and transnational histories of race

The Theological and the Political Mark Lewis Taylor, 2011 Princeton s Mark Lewis Taylor has always worked at the intersection of the political and theological Now in this intense and exciting work he explores in a systematic way how those two dimensions of human reality can be conceived anew and together Taylor argues that the decline of political discourse the justification of torture and preemptive war mass incarceration the misuse of religion to justify atrocity and most especially the sheer weight of suffering in the world all these developments urge us to reconceive theology itself In conjunction with the latest insights of political theory decolonial thought and spectral theories in contemporary philosophy Taylor suggests that the political is the context of the theological and a realm in which we can discern beyond simple categories of transcendence and immanence a transimmanence that is theologically illuminative and politically liberating Publisher description

Tonal Intelligence Sunny Xiang, 2020-12-15 Why were U S intelligence organizations so preoccupied with demystifying East and Southeast Asia during the mid twentieth century Sunny Xiang offers a new way of understanding the American cold war in Asia by tracing aesthetic manifestations of Oriental inscrutability across a wide range of texts She examines how cold war regimes of suspicious thinking produced an ambiguity between Oriental enemies and Asian allies contributing to the conflict's status as both a real war and a long peace Xiang puts interrogation reports policy memos and field notes into conversation with novels poems documentaries and mixed media work by artists such as Theresa Hak Kyung Cha Kazuo Ishiguro Ha Jin and Trinh T Minh ha She engages her archive through a reading practice centered on tone juxtaposing Asian diasporans who appear similar in profile yet who differ in tone Tonal Intelligence considers how the meaning of race war and empire came under pressure during two interlinked periods of geopolitical transition American nation building in East and Southeast Asia during the mid twentieth century and Asian economic modernization during the late twentieth century By reading both state records and aesthetic texts from these periods for their tone rather than their content Xiang shows how bygone threats of Asian communism and emergent regimes of Asian capitalism have elicited distinct yet related anxieties about racial intelligibility Featuring bold methods unlikely archives and acute close readings Tonal Intelligence rethinks the marking and making of race during the long cold war
