1. Explain the context of the scene and then use a quote from the text.

Example: Melody became so upset when Mrs. Billups said the sound of the letters that she "flailed and jerked and basically spazzed out" (Draper 55).

2. Tell the reader that you are going to use textual evidence.

Example: An example of this occurs when Melody states, "I think she had figured it would be easy to work with people who were dumber than she was" (Draper 60).
