of a Warrior Poet T. John Mattson, 2020-09-25 My early lessons taught me to work hard and fight through the obstacles that would be encountered in my life My poetic efforts began simply without much structure as I wrote about the issues that I was dealing with daily Surviving homelessness and the culture that pierces through it such as substance abuse hostility personal safety etc I was compelled to write about topics in a way that was clear and not overly symbolic I soon began to feel drawn to issues that in my earlier days I was not active in such as politics Throughout this journey most of my other interests would find their way to my paper as I tried to reexamine those concepts from a different vantage point And though using old school rhyme may not be the most popular these days it is within my comfort zone as I continue to be a work in progress
