Carrell, 2013-04-11 Listeners do love their pastors and they agree with the sermon content they hear Lori Carrell once explained to a group of pastors but most sermons don't ask for change and most listeners don't experience spiritual growth as a result of the sermon A participant responded Let's get practical I want my preaching to make a difference What changes are worth making and how do I make them In Preaching that Matters Lori Carrell shares answers to that question drawing on the experiences of thousands of people preachers and their listeners whose effort she has studied over many years In each chapter of this book she offers research revelations about high impact preaching that will encourage and challenge readers to continue to grow as preachers She then links these principles with Reflective Practice Challenges RPCs exercises that honor the rich experiences of pastors while opening opportunities for self analysis spiritual introspection conversation with a trusted other or implementation of research based preaching recommendations The activities have been used by hundreds of other pastors and each RPC has been carefully selected for its demonstrated contribution to the process of transforming sermon communication A selection of the RPCs are available as a downloadable file E mail resource material rowman com for more information As a communication expert Carrell approaches preaching from a sermon communication paradigm She begins with the task of identifying the spiritually transformative purpose of the sermon and then explores exegeting organizing deepening and delivering the sermon as well

Dunn, 2022-11-03 While many feel that prayer is the right of every believer I personally believe that prayer is not our right but a privilege that has been afforded us by our heavenly Father The writer of the book of Hebrews declared Let us come boldly unto the throne of grace that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need Hebrews 4:16 The invitation from our Father is to come and find rest from the daily pressures of our life It is an invitation to discover a sense of peace that can come only when we realize that no matter how big our problems may be God is bigger still His invitation is to find him to be our all in all as we cast every care upon him My prayer is for all who read this book that prayer if now a neglected privilege will become the most important part of each day that Prayer is indeed So Great an Invitation Biblical Preaching for Today's World Lloyd Perry, 1990-03-08 Biblical preaching has not outgrown its

The Power of Purpose Michael Catt, 2017-10-01 Why am I here Why is the church here Do we still have a place in the world What is our purpose In an age when formerly great churches struggle to survive baptismal pools are dry and altars empty and the church is aging seemingly indifferent to the next generation we are tempted to believe we have no purpose We are tempted to give up on living the meaningful countercultural lives to which Christ has called us and to give in to a world that encourages us to go with the flow How will we respond In his letter to the Philippians Paul gives advice that is invaluable to the twenty first century church The Philippians were assembled in the middle of a corrupt sensual society fighting against the norms of the world around them

They were God's representatives in a secular society and they maintained a singular focus vision and purpose In The Power of Purpose Pastor Michael Catt walks us through this letter to the Philippians exploring how God is still calling His church even in the rapidly changing world of the 21st century to be his representatives He is calling us to maintain a singular focus and vision He is calling us to the power of purpose Giving... marked by the sermons of the nation's greatest orators America's Puritan founder John Winthrop preached about a city upon a hill a phrase echoed more than three centuries later by President Ronald Reagan in his farewell address to the nation Abraham Lincoln's two greatest speeches have been called sermons on the mount and Martin Luther King Jr's I Have a Dream oration influenced a generation and changed history From colonial times to the present the sermon has motivated Americans to fight wars as well as fight for peace Mighty speeches have called for the abolition of slavery and for the prohibition of alcohol They have stirred conscientious objectors and demonstrators for the rights of the unborn Sermons have provoked the mob mentality of witch hunts and blacklists but they have also stirred activists in the women's and civil rights movements The sermon has defined America at every step of its history inspiring great acts of courage and comforting us in times of terror A City Upon a Hill tells the story of these powerful words and how they shaped the destiny of a nation A City Upon a Hill includes the story of Robert Hunt the first preacher to brave the dangerous sea voyage to Jamestown Jonathan Mayhew's most seditious sermon ever delivered which incited Boston's Stamp Act riots in 1765 early calls for abolition and Captain Preacher Nat Turner's bloody slave revolt of 1831 Henry Ward Beecher's sermon at Fort Sumter on the day of Lincoln's assassination tent revivalist prohibitionist Billy Sunday's booze sermon the challenging words of Martin Luther King Jr which inspired the civil rights movement Billy Graham's moving speeches as America's pastor and spiritual advisor to multiple U S presidents and Jerry Falwell's legacy of changing the way America does politics A City Upon a Hill provides a history of the United States as seen through the lens of the preached words Protestant Catholic and Jewish that inspired independence constitutional amendments and military victories and also stirred our worst prejudices selfish materialism and stubborn divisiveness all in the name of God Pray Something, Say Something, Do Something Deon F.
