Sheena Camerons Writing:

Cultural Perspectives on Indigenous Students' Reading Performance Gui Ying Annie Yang-Heim, 2023-03-21 This book explores the contextual particularly cultural related factors that may impact reading outcomes of young Indigenous learners in their early years underpinned by the conceptual framework of cultural capital originated by Bourdieu By drawing upon a participatory and exploratory case study conducted at a regional school in Australia over a period of six months it highlights the challenges that Indigenous students face in reading and how the contextual factors contribute to Indigenous students development in reading skills and their reading performance This book helps readers to gain a better and deeper understanding of Indigenous culture the importance of the role that culture plays in Indigenous children s literacy education and how it shapes the way they learn and think The Writing Book Sheena Cameron, Louise Dempsey, 2013 Guide to teaching writing at emergent early and fluent levels It includes practical information that will support primary and middle school teachers to plan and deliver an effective writing programme Back cover Undesirable Practices Jessica Cammaert, 2016-07-01 Originally presented as the author s thesis doctoral Queen s University 2014 The Family Group Conference Toolkit Cathy Ashley, 2006 Hollywood's Women of Action Philip Caudrey, 2024-04-26 The action heroine has never been more popular than she is today with the likes of The Hunger Games 2012 Mad Max Fury Road 2015 and Wonder Woman 2017 granting her a newfound prominence in Hollywood filmmaking When most knowledgeable action fans think of the action heroine historically however they tend to do so through the prism of her most iconic characters Emma Peel in the 1960s Lynda Carter s Wonder Woman in the 1970s Ripley and Sarah Connor in the 1980s Xena Warrior Princess and Buffy the Vampire Slayer in the 1990s and of course the likes of Hermione Granger Katniss Everdeen Imperator Furiosa and Princess Diana in modern times Yet the action heroine s epic journey goes back much further than this Indeed it has its origins in the earliest days of cinema amongst the serial queens of the early silent era and the fleeting cowgirls swordswomen and jungle girls of Hollywood s Golden Age in the 1930s 1940s and 1950s This book is about that epic journey It traces the action heroine s century long struggle for legitimacy and respect beginning with the silent era serial The Perils of Pauline 1914 and ending with the big budget action blockbusters of today This book asks why the action heroine s path towards acceptability on mainstream film and television has proven such a long and tortuous one why she is so hated by a vocal minority of male action fans and how she has overcome the conservatism of the Hollywood system to at last forge a reputation for herself as a genuinely viable protagonist on both the big and small screens History of Scottish Women's Writing Douglas Gifford, 2020-03-31 No detailed description available for A History of Scottish Women s Writing New Writing Scotland , 1983 Essays on Neil M. Gunn Neil M. Gunn, 1971 She Said It's Your Child 2 Sherene Holly Cain, 2020-12-29 How far would you go to have your heart s desires What if the true love you wanted came with a price How much would you pay Darica s world is turned upside down as she becomes aware that her desires her husband s selfishness and her lover's past have created a perfect storm that leaves her knocking on death's door. But realizing the error of her ways won't turn back the hands of time and undo the unthinkable things she did to get to this point. Rolanda thought she had raised her sons to value women unlike their abusive cheating father. She even married another man to give them a better life. She learns however that DNA plays a major role in relationships and family ties are hard to break. Nolan and Dolan don't know it but the one woman who holds the key to their hearts is fighting for her life. There are choices to make, secrets to reveal, and enemies waiting in the wings.

Hope Is All I Have William Douglas, 2024-07-10. The three most shocking words you will ever encounter in your lifetime are You Have Cancer. Once you hear those words, your life will be forever changed. Instead of being at the end of my lifetime in dealing with cancer, it was actually the beginning of a new path. A path unlike one I have ever traveled. How did I prevail through a stage four cancer diagnosis and come out for the better? This memoir, written in my own words, entails the inspiration to live no matter the circumstances. It is a story of faith, hope, love, friendship, medicine, and how to navigate through many unknown challenges while entrenched in the battle of your life. If you or a family member, friend, loved one, or just an acquaintance has ever been faced with cancer, this memoir will give you an insightful story of their enduring battle. It's an easy read about a most difficult subject. Be prepared to learn about a disease that currently affects one out of every two males and one out of every three females who live in the United States. You will be inspired by the true perseverance of this author to survive.

Race and Racism in the United States Charles A. Gallagher, Cameron D. Lippard, 2014-06-24. How is race defined and perceived in America today, and how do these definitions and perceptions compare to attitudes 100 years ago or 200 years ago? This four-volume set is the definitive source for every topic related to race in the United States. In the 21st century, it is easy for some students and readers to believe that racism is a thing of the past; in reality, old wounds have yet to heal, and new forms of racism are taking shape. Racism has played a role in American society since the founding of the nation, in spite of the words "all men are created equal" within the Declaration of Independence. This set is the largest and most complete of its kind, covering every facet of race relations in the United States while providing information in a user-friendly format that allows easy cross-referencing of related topics for efficient research and learning. The work serves as an accessible tool for high school researchers, provides important material for undergraduate students enrolled in a variety of humanities and social sciences courses, and is an outstanding ready reference for race scholars. The entries provide readers with comprehensive content supplemented by historical backgrounds, relevant examples from primary documents, and first-hand accounts. Information is presented to interest and appeal to readers but also to support critical inquiry and understanding. A fourth volume of related primary documents supplies additional reading and resources for research.

Second-Generation South Asian Britons Sheena Kalayil, 2019-03-05. Second Generation South Asian Britons: A Narrative Inquiry into Multilingualism, Heritage Languages, and Diasporic Identity uses the narratives of seven high-professional second-generation South Asian Britons to explore issues related to Heritage Language learning.

and maintenance discourses of identity and the practices of multicultural families in the UK Through semi structured interviews conducted in English the participants of the study provide articulate and reflective accounts of the language dynamics in the families they grew up in the communities and environs of their childhood their young adulthoods and their current lives as parents of dual heritage children By investigating both the stories that they tell and how they tell them this study offers insights into how monolingual narratives can be used to comment on multilingualism Biological Science

Jon Scott, Anne Goodenough, Gus Cameron, Dawn Hawkins, Martin Luck, Jenny Koenig, Alison Snape, Despo Papachristodoulou, Kay Yeoman, Mark Goodwin, 2022 A fresh approach to biology centred on a clear narrative active learning and confidence with quantitative concepts and scientific enquiry Spanning the breadth of biological science and designed for flexible learning it will give you a deeper understanding of the key concepts and an appreciation of biology as a dynamic experimental science Making Themes Work Anne Davies, Caren Cameron, Colleen Politano, 1993 Making Themes Work is the first book in the series Building Connections designed to provide practical strategies innovative ideas and adaptable examples for holistic teaching in elementary classrooms This book shows teachers how to organize curriculum and effectively integrate learning experiences using themes It gives educators the information they need to make themes work for them and their students In this book teachers will find many valuable examples and strategies including innovative ways to start a theme effective ways for students to show what they know practical ways to think about theme planning powerful evaluation strategies classroom tested ways to manage and organize themes common questions about themes and the answers ways to inform parents administrators and colleagues about learning through themes The Reading Activity Handbook Sheena Cameron, 2005-02 The Reading Activity Handbook is an essential reference tool for all teachers of pupils aged 4-14 It provides a collection of brilliantly simple teaching ideas designed to help pupils engage with what they read deepening comprehension You can use the ideas with any reading material in shared guided or independent sessions The Reading Activity Handbook is a comprehensive collection of reading response ideas that includes 19 photocopy masters to support students learning It is designed for teachers of children aged from 4 to 14 years Benefits include It allows teachers to work with individuals and small groups It creates opportunities to observe and monitor students comprehension It provides authentic reading writing talking and creative experiences for students It deepens levels of comprehension by requiring students to return to the text for different purposes It helps students make personal connections with literature helps students make personal connections with literature helps students make personal connections with literature helps students make personal connections with literature Rewriting the North Chloe Ashbridge, 2023-05-15 This book shows how twenty first century writing about Northern England imagines alternative democratic futures for the region and the English nation signalling the growing awareness of England as a distinct and variegated political formation In 2016 the Brexit vote intensified ongoing constitutional tensions throughout the UK which have been developing since the devolution of Scotland

Wales and Northern Ireland in 1997 At the same time British devolution developed a distinctively cultural registration as a surrogate for parliamentary representation and an attempt to disrupt the status of London as Britain's cultural epicentre Rewriting the North shifts this debate in a new direction examining Northern literary preoccupation with devolution's constitutional implications Through close readings of six contemporary authors Sunjeev Sahota Sarah Hall Anthony Cartwright Adam Thorpe Fiona Mozley and Sarah Moss this book argues that literary engagement with the North emphasises regional devolution's limited constitutional charge calling instead for an urgent abandonment of the British centralised state form

Arabic, Self and Identity Yasir Suleiman, 2011-08-10 This book builds on Suleiman's earlier research on the link among the Arabic language identity and conflict which he explored at some length in The Arabic Language and National Identity and A War of Words The present study builds on his interest in the symbolic realms of signification and Suleiman approaches the Arabic language as a marker of identity and as a factor in sociopolitical conflict in society

Writers' Handbook 2026 J. Paul Dyson, 2025-07-10 The 2026 edition of firstwriter.com's annual directory for writers is the perfect book for anyone searching for literary agents book publishers or magazines It contains over 1 400 listings including revised and updated listings from the 2025 edition and over 200 brand new entries Finding the information you need is now quicker and easier than ever before with multiple tables and a detailed index and unique paragraph numbers to help you get to the listings you're looking for The variety of tables helps you navigate the listings in different ways and includes a Table of Authors which lists over 5 000 authors and tells you who represents them or who publishes them or both The number of genres in the index has expanded to over 950 So for example while there was only one option for Romance in previous editions you can now narrow this down to Historical Romance Fantasy Romance Supernatural Paranormal Romance Contemporary Romance Diverse Romance Erotic Romance Feminist Romance Christian Romance or even Amish Romance The new edition includes Over 600 literary agents and agencies Over 350 magazines and Over 400 publishers that don't charge fees International markets become more accessible than ever with listings that cover both the main publishing centres of New York and London as well as markets in other English speaking countries With more and more agents publishers and magazines accepting submissions online this international outlook is now more important than ever There are no adverts no advertorials and no obscure listings padding out hundreds of pages By including only what's important to writers contact details for literary agents publishers and magazines this directory is able to provide more listings than its competitors at a lower price The book also allows you to create a subscription to the firstwriter.com website for free until 2027 This means you can get free access to the firstwriter.com website where you can find even more listings and also benefit from other features such as advanced searches daily email updates feedback from users about the markets featured saved searches competitions listings searchable personal notes and more I know firsthand how lonely and dispiriting trying to find an agent and publisher can be So it's great to find a resource like firstwriter.com that provides contacts advice and encouragement to aspiring writers I've been recommending it for years now Robin Wade literary agent at the Wade Doherty Literary Agency Ltd and long term firstwriter.com subscriber

Material and Digital A/r/tographic Explorations Nicole Y.S. Lee, Marzieh Mosavarzadeh, Joanne M. Ursino, Rita L. Irwin, 2024-09-05 This book considers the generative tension between the materiality and virtuality of walking methodologies in a r/tography and arts based educational research It explores the materiality of practice manifestations manipulations residues and traces of both real and imagined experiences and events Authors present artistic representations renderings artifacts and documentations that allow for various forms of return and re-visitation of places spaces and temporal moments The book also investigates the digital and virtual including video images media work and emergent technologies that allow one to literally metaphorically affectively and conceptually go somewhere that might be previously impossible to reach Authors consider curricular and pedagogical implications of digital virtual walking in relation to desire agency autonomy freedom and other issues around ethics The book brings together entanglements of the corporeal and incorporeal addressing the questions How does the im/materiality of bodies characters in motion in a r/tographic practices shape understandings of place space and the self in relation How do issues and particularities come to matter through one's entanglements with in the incorporeal

Fatal Abstraction Darryl Campbell, 2025-04-08 A tech insider explains how capitalism and software development make for such a dangerous mix Software was supposed to radically improve society Outdated mechanical systems would be easily replaced programs like PowerPoint would make information flow more freely social media platforms like Facebook would bring people together and generative AI would solve the world's greatest ills Yet in practice few of the systems we looked to with such high hopes have lived up to their fundamental mandate In fact in too many cases they've made things worse exposing us to immense risk at the societal and the individual levels How did we get to this point In Fatal Abstraction Darryl Campbell shows that the problem is managerial software programs created and overseen not by engineers but by professional managers with only the most superficial knowledge of technology itself The managerial ethos dominates the modern tech industry from its globe spanning giants all the way down to its trendy startups It demands that corporate leaders should be specialists in business rather than experts in their company's field that they manage their companies exclusively through the abstractions of finance and that profit margins must take priority over developing a quality product that is safe for the consumer and beneficial for society These corporations rush the development process and package cheap unproven potentially dangerous software inside sleek and shiny new devices As Campbell demonstrates the problem with software is distinct from that of other consumer products because of how quickly it can scale to the dimensions of the world itself and because its inner workings resist the efforts of many professional managers to understand it with their limited technical background A former tech worker himself Campbell shows how managerial software fails and when it does what sorts of disastrous consequences ensue from the Boeing 737 MAX crashes to a deadly self-driving car to PowerPoint propaganda and beyond Yet just because the tech industry is currently breaking its core promise does not mean the industry cannot change or that the risks posed by managerial software should necessarily persist into the future Campbell argues that the solution is tech workers with actual expertise establishing industry wide principles of ethics and safety that corporations would be forced to follow Fatal Abstraction is a stirring rebuke of the tech industry s current managerial excesses and also a hopeful glimpse of what a world shaped by good software can offer
