Shell Annual Report 2006:

Corporate Social Responsibility in Europe Regine Barth, Franziska Wolff, 2009-01-01 The acid test of corporate social responsibility CSR is simply this does it lead to positive impacts on society and the environment or is it just rhetoric And if it does lead to positive impacts how can these be enhanced This timely book tackles this cutting edge challenge by presenting empirical findings from a range of surveys and in depth case studies These build on a new methodological and theoretical framework for assessing and explaining the sustainability impact of CSR For selected sustainability issues mitigation of climate change and chemical risk resource management in marine fisheries promotion of gender equality and countering of bribery and within different European industries the authors show that the rhetoric of CSR is still stronger than its reality They do so by investigating into CSR practices which encompass the creation of a vision on CSR its strategic and operative implementation and its organisational and cultural embedding within companies and their supply chains The authors conclude that the reality of CSR is strong enough to allow for some rhetoric They name intra and extra company success factors for and limits of producing sustainability impacts through CSR Finally they discuss its contribution to achieving public policy goals and the governance paradigms that are necessary to make CSR effective The volume successfully combines a business and public policy perspective based on an interdisciplinary approach This book will be invaluable for both students and researchers interested in the effects of CSR and will prove a useful tool for policy makers and CSR practitioners alike

Minerals Yearbook, 2009 Regulating Transnational Corporations in Domestic and International Regimes Evaristus Oshionebo, 2009-01-01 This study explores the range of strategies for regulating the social and environmental practices of TNCs in Africa's extractive industries , Restructuring and Re-organization of the Iraqi Oil Ministry and State-owned Oil Companies for Maximum Economic Growth and National

Development Muhammed Abed Mazeel, 2012 The first steps towards restructuring and reorganizing the institutions and legislation of the Iraqi oil and gas industry must include taking ownership of resources allocating acreages to Iraqi Kurdistan and neighbour states improving the transparency as well as governmental participation and fiscal principles It is important to provide an institutional framework that governs the operations of the industry including its functions structure powers and funding Operations in the upstream of the industry comprise licenses leases and contracts Other considerations covered are award processes right of governmental participation marginal fields indigenous companies termination and revocation of both licenses and leases matters on fees rents and royalties and finally provisions on Associated Natural Gas The legislation in the downstream sector focuses on licensing refining marketing and pricing of oil products transport logistics and facility management companies pipelines and depots The operating stocks and Iraq strategic stocks are also necessary The needs of the downstream natural gas include both technical and commercial licensing regulations and conditions as the network gas supply licenses transportation pipelines licenses and the whole sale market in addition to the possibility of third party access customer protection the pricing regime public service obligations competition and market regulation The legislation is an amendment to the existing Iraqi Technical Service Contracts TSC and Production Sharing Contracts Agreements PSC in Iraqi Kurdistan based on the need to create a new fiscal framework that takes various compelling issues into consideration It needs to capture the full gas value chain for taxation purposes in order to develop a fiscal regime for gas removed from oil and to create thereby a level playing field for all investors in gas and promoting the effective management of costs across the industry which in turn will maximize the government's take Other considerations revolve around the requirement to develop a fiscal system which responds to changes in price and to clarify inconsistencies or conflicts in the application of fiscal terms for oil and gas and finally to develop a fiscal rule of general application based on a body of expected fiscal laws Quality health safety and environment are missing elements in Iraq During the restructuring and reorganization of the institutions the QHSE should take on a major role in working with the aforementioned departments in the Oil Ministry and the operating companies The obligations of the state and international oil companies towards the state environmental regulations and public rules must be upheld according to the licensees lessees and contractors considering matters of abandonment decommissioning and disposal and their funding The various actors in the oil and gas production are obligated towards various communities in the oil producing region of the country with supporting community development providing employment opportunities compensation infrastructure protection and management of the environment as essential components The Ministry of Oil remains a civil service outfit that is ill equipped to conceive and enact the required policies for such a complex and sophisticated industry Hence there is a strong need for principal and basic interaction between Federal Oil Ministry existing directorial and state oil companies Kurdistan Ministry of Energy and Natural Resources and private sector operatives This applies also to the reorganization and restructuring of Federal Oil Ministry existing directorial

Making Sustainability Work Marc J. Epstein, Adriana Rejc Buhovac, 2017-09-08 The ultimate how to do it guide for corporate leaders strategists academics sustainability consultants and anyone else with an interest in actually making sustainability work for organizations An updated edition of a landmark book at a time when a growing number of corporate leaders are asking for urgent help in getting this done Implementation of Oil Related Environmental Policies in Nigeria Fidelis Allen, 2011-10-18 Fidelis Allen situates violent conflict in the Niger Delta in the context of failure by government to effectively implement relevant oil related environmental policies intended to achieve sustainable development arguing that oil and environment related conflicts in the region are reflections of this failure This failure is premised on the notion that the goal of sustainable development as clearly outlined in Nigeria's National Environmental Policy and implied in various other policies can be pursued through the activities of government individuals and business organisations that are capable of engendering economic and social progress for communities that depend on the environment for their survival In fact available evidence shows that government and oil company activities or failures to act actually contribute to the despoliation of the environment in the Niger Delta Despite existing environmental legislations and guidelines unsafe waste disposal flaring of gas and oil spillage remain key features of oil industry operations in the Niger Delta Not surprisingly the book highlights a lack of synergy between government and oil company activities and the attainment of sustainable development as a key goal of the environmental policy of the government In other words the activities of the government and oil companies do not sufficiently promote sustainable development The net consequence is reflected in the frustrations of local justice and environmental movement groups about the political processes which deter rather than enable their agitation for improvements in local living conditions and development in the Niger Delta Over time those frustrations begin to manifest at different levels including aggressive and violent behaviours against oil companies and government security agencies for their contributory roles

Oil on the Brain Lisa Margonelli, 2007-01-30 Oil on the Brain is a smart surprisingly funny account of the oil industry the people economies and pipelines that bring us petroleum brilliantly illuminating a world we encounter every day Americans buy ten thousand gallons of gasoline a second without giving it much of a thought Where does all this gas come from Lisa Margonelli's desire to learn took her on a one hundred thousand mile journey from her local gas station to oil fields half a world away In search of the truth behind the myths she wriggled her way into some of the most off limits places on earth the Strategic Petroleum Reserve the New York Mercantile Exchange's crude oil market oil fields from Venezuela to Texas to Chad and even an Iranian oil platform where the United States fought a forgotten one day battle In a story by turns surreal and alarming Margonelli meets lonely workers on a Texas drilling rig an oil analyst who almost gave birth on the NYMEX trading floor Chadian villagers who are said to wander the oil fields in the guise of lions a Nigerian warlord who changed the world price of oil with a single cell phone call and Shanghai bureaucrats who dream of creating a new Detroit Deftly piecing together the mammoth economy of oil Margonelli finds a series of stark warning signs for American drivers
