Teaching Is Inquiry Cynthia Ballenger, 2025 Many teachers maintain commitments to ideas and practices that they rarely question Among these assumptions are ideas about children and the variety of reasons as to how they might learn or fail to learn Teaching as inquiry is the practice of gaining distance from one's assumptions about teaching and learning to better serve all children including those struggling in school Ballenger shares stories from her experiences demonstrating that children are always thinking and always making sense and going further that the ideas of our most puzzling students lead us to new recognition of what thinking looks like Readers will learn how teaching with documentation and reflection develops and deepens their practice over time Divided into three sections chapters address the framework for inquiry language and reading groups and the interests of particular children with special needs in relation to the curriculum Teaching Is Inquiry details the practices of teacher inquiry with a series of sometimes sad sometimes joyful stories from the classroom Book Features Urges teachers to move beyond the first look or more superficial understandings of students Demonstrates the value of documentation in order to better understand the ideas of a wide range of students including those identified as struggling Showcases the author s powers of observation that have inspired many teachers inquiry into their own practice Offers reflections that are both complex and open to further interpretation on the part of readers Extends the author s examination of puzzling moments encounters with students that may be difficult to comprehend or do not conform to more typical interactions      Awakenings A. CHAPTER ONE THE CHOSEN LAND Ooo ooh Oo ooh Nita called Suzanne Baker as she skipped across the small square of green grass that individualised the brownstone house where Anita Brampton lived No answer came so Zan as she was always called for short impatiently repeated the call adding after a moment's pause Where are you come on out Still no reply but the pretty face of Mrs Brampton appeared at the glass door inside the vestibule She smiled as she recognised the caller and nodded for her to come in Zan ran up the steps and said How do Mrs Brampton where's Nita Looking for you most likely laughed the lady of the house Then as her smile changed to a petulant look with the changing of her thought she added Dear me Nita is a sore trial Did you ever know her to accomplish anything without confusion to others Zan knew from experience that that aggrieved tone meant a long harangue on Nita's shortcomings so she hurriedly changed the subject Well as long as Nita isn't here I guess I'll run along to Miss Miller's They'll all be there waiting I suppose All right dearie I have a little bridge party in the library or I would give more time to you replied Mrs Brampton daintily patting down a few stray wisps of blonde hair that fluttered in the breeze from the open door Oh I'm in a great hurry anyway returned Zan starting out of the doorway At that moment a maid summoned Mrs Brampton to the telephone saying that her daughter wished to speak with her Wait a moment Zan Nita's on the phone and you can speak to her after I see what she wants said Mrs Brampton turning back Zan followed to the small nook where the telephone was kept and stood waiting Laughter and the sound of coins drew her attention to the bridge players in the large library Mrs Brampton finished speaking with her daughter saying Zan is here wait a second and I'll put her on the wire Turning to hand Zan the receiver she whispered When you are through here run to the dining room and have a glass of wine and cake it is all ready for my friends Oh no thank you Mrs Brampton You know Daddy doesn't approve of us having wine We always drink water at home replied Zan flushing uncomfortably Dear me I forgot The doctor is such a radical on these little things laughed the lady merrily patting the girl consolingly on the shoulder with much beringed hands She hastened back to her guests while Zan called Hello Nita Where are you anyway Ha ha ha We're all at Miss Miller's Why don't you hurry over too came a musical voice over the wire Just because you didn't do as I said I told you distinctly to wait for me at the school gates You knew I'd be a few minutes late on account of seeing my Latin teacher after school I asked Bob if he had seen you he was waiting for some boys in front of the gate but he said you had hurried away with the girls So I stopped in here thinking you may have gone home There was a moment's silence then a petulant voice so like

Mrs Brampton s that Zan smiled said Dear me I m sure it isn t my fault if you didn t meet us Why all of the girls should bother to hang around waiting for you is more than I can tell Well seeing that the whole plan is mine and not one of you girls would have been in on it if I hadn t asked you it seems mighty ungrateful to act so that s all I have to say and Zan jabbed up the receiver on its hook To be continue in this ebook      Calls Beyond Our Hearing Holly Menino,2012-04-10 Examines the research of communication in the animal world exploring how animals use voices to search for a mate play locate food communicate when threatened and more
