Shifting The Center Ferguson:

Shifting the Center Susan J. Ferguson, 2018-08-14 Shifting the Center Understanding the Contemporary Family 5e is a popular anthology of readings used in Sociology of Family and Marriages Families Intimate Relationship courses Its editor Susan Ferguson brings together selections written by leading family researchers and drawn from a variety of scholarly sources including articles from the leading family journals and excerpts from number of classic book length studies The table of contents follows the same scope and sequence as the leading family survey texts Shifting the Center Susan J. Ferguson, 2022-11-21 Shifting the Center Understanding Contemporary Families Sixth Edition is a popular anthology of readings used in Sociology of Family and of Marriages Families Intimate Relationship courses Editor Susan J Ferguson brings together carefully selected pieces written by leading family researchers and drawn from a variety of scholarly sources including articles from the leading family journals and excerpts from several classic book length studies She also provides background and context to help students connect the topics in the readings to the broader themes in the study of family sociology The table of contents follows the same scope and sequence as the leading family survey texts Sexuality and New Religious Movements J. Lewis, 2016-01-12 Issues relating to sexuality eroticism and gender are often connected to religious beliefs and practices but also to prejudices against and fear of religious groups that adopt alternative approaches to sexuality This is especially apparent in connection with new religious movements which many times find themselves accused by the media and anti cultists of promoting illicit and controversial views on sexuality This anthology aims to critically investigate the role of sexuality in a number of new religious movements including Mormon fundamentalist communities the Branch Davidians the Osho movement the Ra l movement contemporary Wicca and Satanism in addition to the teachings of Adidam and Gurdjieff on sexuality Written/Unwritten Patricia A. Matthew, 2016-10-03 The academy may claim to seek and value diversity in its professoriate but reports from faculty of color around the country make clear that departments and administrators discriminate in ways that range from unintentional to malignant Stories abound of scholars despite impressive records of publication excellent teaching evaluations and exemplary service to their universities struggling on the tenure track These stories however are rarely shared for public consumption Written Unwritten reveals that faculty of color often face two sets of rules when applying for reappointment tenure and promotion those made explicit in handbooks and faculty orientations or determined by union contracts and those that operate beneath the surface It is this second unwritten set of rules that disproportionately affects faculty who are hired to diversify academic departments and then expected to meet ever shifting requirements set by tenured colleagues and administrators Patricia A Matthew and her contributors reveal how these implicit processes undermine the quality of research and teaching in American colleges and universities They also show what is possible when universities persist in their efforts to create a diverse and more equitable professorate These narratives hold the academy accountable while providing a pragmatic view about how it might improve itself and how that improvement can extend to academic culture at large The contributors and interviewees are Ariana E Alexander Marlon M Bailey Houston A Baker Jr Dionne Bensonsmith Leslie Bow Angie Chabram Andreana Clay Jane Chin Davidson April L Few Demo Eric Anthony Grollman Carmen V Harris Rashida L Harrison Ayanna Jackson Fowler Roshanak Kheshti Patricia A Matthew Fred Piercy Deepa S Reddy Lisa S nchez Gonz lez Wilson Santos Sarita Echavez See Andrew J Stremmel Cheryl A Wall E Frances White Jennifer D Williams and Doctoral Candidate X

The 1.5 Generation Mary Yu Danico,2004-01-31 The 1 5 generation Ilchom ose refers to Koreans who immigrated to the United States as children Unlike their first generation parents and second generation children born in the United States 1 5ers have been socialized in both Korean and American cultures and express the cultural values and beliefs of each In this first extended look at the 1 5 generation in Hawaii Mary Yu Danico attempts to fill a void in the research by addressing the social process through which Korean children are transformed from immigrants into 1 5ers Dozens of informal in depth interviews and case studies provide rich data on how family community and economic and political factors influence and shape Korean and Korean American identity in Hawaii Danico examines the history of Koreans in Hawaii their social characteristics and current demographics Her close consideration of socio cultural influences firmly establishes the 1 5 generation in the mainstream discussion of identity formation and race relations

Race, Gender, Sexuality, and Social Class Susan J.  Sociology Exploring the Architecture of Everyday Life David M Newman shows students how to see the unfamiliar in the familiar to step back and see organization and predictability in their take for granted personal experiences With his approachable writing style and lively personal anecdotes the author s goal from the first edition has always been the same to write a textbook that in his words reads like a real book Newman uses the metaphors of architecture and construction to help students understand that society is not something that just exists out there independently of themselves it is a human creation that is planned maintained or altered by individuals Using vivid prose examples from current events and the latest research findings this fully updated Twelfth Edition presents a unique and thought provoking overview of how society is constructed and experienced Instead of surveying every subfield in sociology the more streamlined coverage focuses on the individual and society the construction of self and society and social inequality in the context of social structures Sociology David M. Newman, 2025-06-24 The Fifteenth Edition of Sociology uses vivid prose current examples and fresh data to present a unique and thought provoking overview of how society is constructed and experienced With his approachable writing style and lively anecdotes author David M Newman s goal from the first edition has been the same to write a textbook that reads like a real book Representations of Motherhood Donna Bassin, Margaret Honey, Meryle Mahrer Kaplan, 1994-01-01 Explores the maternal experience from the mother s point of view The book questions a society that has devalued and sentimentalized motherhood and presents images of generative and creative women who are also mothers It also discusses the portrayal of mothers in art film and literature Mapping the Social Landscape Susan J Ferguson, 2020-09-29 The 58 readings in Mapping The Social Landscape follow the organization of a typical introductory sociology course and represent a plurality of voices and views within sociology including classic statements from the discipline s great thinkers as well of the works of contemporary scholars who address current social issues The Indian Journal of Social Work ,2002 The Eyes of Hope Teresa Ann Swartz, 2001 Lesbian Motherhood Amy Hequembourg, 2013-01-11 A unique practical application of poststructuralist theory to lesbian mothers narratives Lesbian Motherhood Stories of Becoming analyzes the personal stories of 40 lesbian mothers to discover the complex ways their sense of self is constructed in the current legal political and social climate These intimate narratives are examined by using Gilles Deleuze and Felix Guattari s conceptual framework to understand subjectivities by focusing on the many flexible lines of movement that constitute subjectivities or becomings This unique source reveals deep insight into a lesbian s construction of self through her stories about her own sexuality parenting and other experiences in becoming a mother Lesbian Motherhood Stories of Becoming challenges the assimilation resistance perspective typically expressed by scholars of lesbian motherhood Qualitative interviews reveal startling new perspectives to lesbian mother subjectivities viewed within the context of the legal political and social areas that seek to define and regulate contemporary family life This powerful source explores in detail the discursive strategies through which lesbian subjectivities are created and recreated Deleuze and Guattari s concept of becoming provides a valuable framework for analyzing the discursive strategies employed by those participating in this study Lesbian Motherhood Stories of Becoming offers insightful powerful information that is indispensable to GLBT scholars and social theorists Teaching Race in the 21st Century L. Guerrero, 2016-04-16 This collection brings together pedagogical memoirs on significant topics regarding teaching race in college including student resistance whiteness professor identity and curricula Linking theory to practice the essays create an accessible and useful way to look at teaching race for wide audiences interested in issues within education
