Shona Paper June 2014:

A Club of Their Own Eli Lederhendler, Gabriel N. Finder, 2016-10-05 Volume XXIX of Studies in Contemporary Jewry takes its title from a joke by Groucho Marx I don't want to belong to any club that will accept me as a member The line encapsulates one of the most important characteristics of Jewish humor the desire to buffer oneself from potentially unsafe or awkward situations and thus to achieve social and emotional freedom By studying the history and development of Jewish humor the essays in this volume not only provide nuanced accounts of how Jewish humor can be described but also make a case for the importance of humor in studying any culture A recent survey showed that about four in ten American Jews felt that having a good sense of humor was an essential part of what being Jewish means to them on a par with or exceeding caring for Israel observing Jewish law and eating traditional foods As these essays show Jewish humor has served many functions as a form of insider speech It has been used to ridicule to unite people in the face of their enemies to challenge authority to deride politics and politicians in America to ridicule conspicuous consumption in Israel to contrast expectations of political normalcy and bitter reality However much of contemporary Jewish humor is designed not only or even primarily as insider speech Rather it rewards all those who get the punch line A Club of Their Own moves beyond general theorizing about the nature of Jewish humor by serving a smorgasbord of finely grained historically situated and contextualized interdisciplinary studies of humor and its consumption in Jewish life in the modern world

Between Mere Talk and Blame Game? Munyaradzi Mawere, 2018-02-14 One of the fundamental challenges in rethinking and remaking development in Africa from a Pan African perspective is that too much mere talk and blame game have played out at the expense of real action The blame game and mere talk on Africa's poverty and underdevelopment jam have remained printed in bold on the face of the continent yet Africa's dire situation warrants nothing less than real emphatic action This book focuses on the empirics of the production and reproduction of poverty and underdevelopment across Africa in a fashion that warrants urgent pragmatic policy attention and quest for workable homegrown solutions to persistent predicaments The volume advances the need to recognise the realities of global inequalities and move swiftly in a most informed and transparent manner to address the poverty and underdevelopment conundrum The book sets the tempo and pace on the need for praxis and pragmatism on the African situation It is handy to students and practitioners in African studies poverty and development studies global studies policy studies economics and political science Fifty Years of the Indigenous Shona Philosophy Pascah Mungwini, 2017-12-29 Some of the most provocative questions confronting philosophers in Africa are grounded in the historical memory of conquest and the peripheralisation of the continent Mungwini offers a critical reconstruction of indigenous Shona philosophy as an aspect of the African intellectual heritage held hostage by colonial modernity In this comprehensive work he lays bare the thoughts of the Shona who are credited with the founding of the ancient Great Zimbabwe civilisation Retracing the epistemic thread in the fabric of Shona culture and philosophy he explores the assumptions that inform their thinking The exchange of such knowledge is fundamental to the future of humanity

Transnational Land Grabs and Restitution in an Age of the (De-) Militarised New Scramble for Africa: A Pan African Socio-Legal Warikandwa, Tapiwa V., Nhemachena, Artwell, 2017-09-26 One of the fundamental challenges in deconstructing, rethinking and remaking the world from a Pan African vantage point is that some captives have tended to delight in the warmth of the imperial predator's mouth In other words some captives forget that the imperial predator's mouth gets warm because empire is eating and heating up from prey on the continent De Militarisation Transnational Land Grabs and Restitution in an Age of the New Scramble for Africa A Pan African Socio Legal Perspective is a book that knocks on key aspects relating to land militarisation a Post African World Order and a chaotic Post God World Order which require critical scholarly and policy attention in the quest to free Africa from centuries old imperial depredations The book carefully navigates the imperial entrapments which are designed to focus African attention only on decolonising African minds without also engaging in the imperially more unsettling decolonisation of African materialities

Disorder and the Disinformation Society Jonathan Paul Marshall, James Goodman, Didar Zowghi, Francesca da Rimini, 2015-04-17 This book is the first general social analysis that seriously considers the daily experience of information disruption and software failure within contemporary Western society Through an investigation of informationalism defined as a contemporary form of capitalism it describes the social processes producing informational disorder While most social theory sees disorder as secondary pathological or uninteresting this book takes disordering processes as central to social life The book engages with theories of information society which privilege information order offering a strong counterpoint centred on disinformation Disorder and the Disinformation Society offers a practical agenda arguing that difficulties in producing software are both inherent to the process of developing software and in the social dynamics of informationalism It outlines the dynamics of software failure as they impinge on information workers and on daily life explores why computerized finance has become inherently self disruptive asks how digital enclosure and intellectual property create conflicts over cultural creativity and disrupt informational accuracy and scholarship and reveals how social media can extend but also distort the development of social movements

The Cultural and Artistic Legacy of Oliver Mtukudzi Munyaradzi Nyakudya, Bridget Chinouriri, Pauline Mateveke, Ezra Chitando, 2022-09-10 This book delves into a critical and comprehensive analysis of Mtukudzi's legacy as an outstanding musician who anchored his music on cultural identity specifically through the artistic manipulation of language

As a cultural worker his remit extended beyond performance This raised his stature to the levels of such African music icons as Fela Kuti of Nigeria Salif Keita of Mali and Miriam Makeba Hugh Masekela of South Africa all towering giants in African musical performance This volume examines how Mtukudzi artistically manipulated language to convey a timeless message of cultural identity fighting for the respect of rights for women children and all It unpacks how Mtukudzi subtly uses language to put across political views that speak truth to power harnessing Zimbabwean language to articulate and promote the nation's cultural heritage and to advocate for societal development and the promotion of rights of vulnerable groups The chapters in this volume are a mix of interdisciplinary Zimbabwean scholars of linguistics performance studies religion history communication and media studies unravelling Mtukudzi as a fighter for human rights and justice who subtly critiqued political systems and practices It concludes that Mtukudzi strove to be a cultural worker who used the power of language through music to contribute towards the rehabilitation of a battered African identity

Divining the Future of Africa Munyaradzi Mawere, 2014-12-01 This book explores the relationship between Africa the West and China It notes that while Africa is a continent of diverse cultures raw materials human resource indigenous knowledges and above all the biggest recipient of foreign aid globally it continues to lag behind all regions of the world in terms of socio economic development The book grapples with the important question on why this has been the case It provides crucial critical insights on how Africa's situation could be reversed and the tapestry of its socio economic problems eased The book draws a link between culture globalisation and socio economic development breaking new grounds in the discourse on development in post colonial Africa This is an incisive clarion call to bypass the outlandish claims and sterile discussions on the parodying of Africa by Euro centric scholars It is a contribution on the imperative to re think the future of development in Africa It makes a compelling argument by self reliant development processes in which Africans reclaim their voice independence and autonomy unapologetically The book provides some grist for the mills of policy makers institutional planners practitioners and students of anthropology political studies sociology economic history local governance cultural economics and gender development African heritage and international studies

Beyond Constraint Shona N. Jackson, 2024-10-11 In Beyond Constraint Shona N Jackson offers a new approach to labour and its analysis by demonstrating the fundamental relation between black and Indigenous People's sovereign free and coerced labour in the Americas Through the writings of Cedric Robinson Walter Rodney C L R James and Sylvia Wynter Jackson confronts the elision of Indigenous People's labour in the black radical tradition She argues that this elision is an effect of the structural relation of antiblackness to anti indigeneity through which native and black bodies are arranged on either side of a split between unproductive labour and productive work necessary for capital accumulation and for how we read capital in political economic critique This division between labour and work forces the radical tradition to sustain the break between black and Indigenous peoples as part of its critical strategies of liberation To address this impasse Jackson reads the tradition against the grain for openings to indigeneity and
