Abstract

The following text illustrates how words are represented in English and Spanish. First, the words in your notebook are listed in their space in each language and numbered for the next step.

Do you have children already? Or have you ever been called the "mommy" or "daddy" as a child or even been assigned a responsibility? Most kids begin to take on responsibilities at a very young age, and this is a natural part of growing up. It's not just about being a "mommy" or "daddy" and taking care of the house, but it's about being a responsible person. It's about being a person who can take care of themselves and others. It's about being a person who can take care of the world.
