World War II

Excerpted from the book World War II: The American Story

World War II was a global conflict that lasted from 1939 to 1945. It was the deadliest conflict in human history, resulting in an estimated 70 million deaths. The war was fought between the Axis powers (Germany, Italy, and Japan) and the Allied powers (the United States, the United Kingdom, and the Soviet Union).

World War II: The Homefront

During World War II, the homefront in the United States was a place of both sacrifice and resilience. Citizens were asked to ration food and other resources, and many worked in war-related industries. The war also brought about significant social and economic changes, including the integration of African Americans into the workforce and the expansion of the federal government's role in the economy.
