Subjectivity Gender And The Struggle For Recognition:

Subjectivity, Gender and the Struggle for Recognition P. McQueen, 2014-12-15 In this book Paddy McQueen examines the role that recognition plays in our struggles to construct an identity and to make sense of ourselves as gendered beings It analyses how such struggles for gender recognition are shaped by social discourses and power relations and considers how feminism can best respond to these issues Subjectivity, Gender and the Struggle for Recognition P. McQueen, 2014-12-15 In this book Paddy McQueen examines the role that recognition plays in our struggles to construct an identity and to make sense of ourselves as gendered beings It analyses how such struggles for gender recognition are shaped by social discourses and power relations and considers how feminism can best respond to these issues The Persistence of Critical Theory Gabriel R. Ricci, 2017-07-05 The latest volume of Culture and Civilization gathers contemporary exponents of critical theory specifically those based in the Frankfurt School of social thinking Collectively this volume demonstrates the continuing intellectual viability of critical theory which challenges the limits of positivism and materialism We may question how the theoretical framework of Marxism fails to coordinate with the conditions that defined labor forces as did Max Horkheimer and Theodor Adorno or deliberate on the conditions that justify the claims we make through public discourse as did Jurgen Habermas Or like Axel Honneth we may reflect on recognition theory as a means of addressing social problems Whatever our objective the focus of critical theory continues to be the consciousness of established positive interests that without debate may sustain injustices or conditions which the public may not have chosen to impose Throughout the hardship of punitive dismissal and exile in the 1930s and 40s and the shock of the New Left in the 1960s and 70s and finally the later linguistic and pragmatic turn the Frankfurt School has sustained the idea that people escape disaffection and alienation when their knowledge of the social and political world is dialectically mediated through creative interaction This new volume in the Culture and Civilization series continues the tradition of critical thought Chaucer's Ethical Philosophy Laura Ashe, 2025-01-02 Chaucer's Ethical Philosophy argues that Chaucer's fictions engage with the most urgent questions of modern political and moral philosophy Close analysis of Troilus and Criseyde the Canterbury Tales and the Book of the Duchess reveals the ways in which Chaucer anticipates modern philosophical debates using his fictions to explore the ethics of subjectivity and recognition agency and moral responsibility concerns that Chaucer experimentally formulated and discomposed across his works are amongst those that most animate and trouble contemporary ethical philosophy This book places Chaucer in close dialogue not only with medieval philosophy and theology and his great European literary sources Boccaccio Dante Guillaume de Machaut but with major figures and concepts of modern philosophical thought Hegel Levinas Wittgenstein Butler recognition subjectivity gender It illuminates his use of distinctively medieval forms of narrative to explore ideas and develop philosophies that we have been conditioned to think of as exclusively modern In this he reveals both the essential nature of the questions and the contingent socially and culturally conditioned nature of our answers and he shows us that medieval structures of thought remain central to our understandings of the world In response to the fundamental ethical question how should I treat another person Chaucer s fictional experiments are shown to be as philosophically complex and ethically powerful as anything in current thought Proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Linguistics and Culture (ICLC-4 2023) Muhammad Hasyim,2024-05-22 This is an open access book Research and teaching activities in the fields of language literature and culture are still being carried out even during the Covid 19 era that hit the world It is undeniable that the results of research and learning of language literature and culture at this time were a bit hindered because most activities were carried out from home During the Covid 19 period which started in early 2020 practically more activities were done at home Likewise institutions during the Covid 19 era were carried out online For example the Language Agency continues to carry out activities but it is carried out online such as online webinars that contribute to the wider community in accordance with the duties and functions of the Language Agency carried out using a hybrid method or completely online Various events are packaged creatively and innovatively to produce a new spirit in speaking Research and teaching of language literature and culture during the Covid 19 period resulted in many amazing innovations and creativity in line with technological developments Covid 19 has inspired many in research on language literature and culture In the field of language you can see research on the language used in Covid 19 such as said cases of suspected respiratory tract infection ODP People Under Monitoring confirmed cases a person who is late known to be infected with Covid 19 etc That s the content Content on YouTube about the use of language is a hot object of research to research In terms of culture the Government is making various efforts to break the chain of the spread of the Covid 19 pandemic in a massive and systematic manner Covid 19 is not only a deadly virus but has a domino effect that is also terrible One of the policies used by the government in preventing and controlling the spread of Covid 19 is implementing the Large Scale Social Restrictions PSBB policy As an investment culture also requires strategies and enablers so that it is able to achieve the target of the happiness and welfare of the Indonesian people This strategy is implemented through providing for a diversity of cultural expressions developing cultural practices utilizing cultural promotion objects accelerating institutional reform and increasing the government s role as a facilitator Teaching issues especially teaching methods of language literature and culture need to be highlighted in terms of IT based innovation and creativity after Covid 19 How especially teaching methods in applying the material Research on learning methods has also been carried out a lot especially methods that focus on students entering the new normal era or the new era after Covid 19 with innovative research and learning of language literature and culture It is interesting to reveal a major event namely the 3rd International Conference on Linguistics and Cultural Studies sponsored by the Faculty of Cultural Sciences Hasanuddin University Makassar The Routledge Research Companion to Geographies of Sex and Sexualities Gavin Brown,Kath Browne,2016-05-20 Comprehensive and authoritative this state of the art review both charts and develops the rich sub discipline geographies of sexualities exploring sex gender sexuality and sexual practices Emerging from the desire to examine differences and exclusions as a key aspect of human geographies these geographies have engaged with heterosexual and queer lesbian gay bi and trans lives Developing thinking in this area geographers and other social scientists have illustrated the centrality of place space and other spatial relationships in reconstituting sexual practices representations desires as well as sexed bodies and lives This book reviews the current state of the field and offers new insights from authors located on five continents In doing so the book seeks to draw on and influence core debates in this field as well as disrupt the Anglo American hegemony in studies of sexualities sexes and geographies This volume is the definitive collection in the area bringing together many international leaders in the field alongside scholars that are well established outside the Anglophone academy and many emerging talents who will lead the field in the decades to come

Gender Fields Sofia Aboim, Pedro Vasconcelos, 2024-09-30 Exploring gender through the lens of field theory Gender Fields proposes a new framework for understanding the social organisation of gender identity In conversation with Pierre Bourdieu's field theory the book conceptualises under theorised situated dimensions of gender bridging the gap between macro and micro theories of gender Drawing on extensive fieldwork conducted over five years in several countries in Europe and beyond the authors situate gender as a critical site of autonomous socio political struggle and highlight the centrality of the transgender experience in redefining gendered personhood and freedom Increased trans visibility catalysed new social and political arenas of contestation that expanded the potential for reimagining gender norms and identities The authors examine political and legal arenas the medical field and health markets gender naming individual practices and material discursive embodiments offering new insights into gender change While numerous explanations have been proposed this book offers a fresh perspective on these revolutionary developments Gender Fields characterises gender as a field of struggle through a set of basic tools that can be usefully applied to studies in diverse settings As such it will appeal to scholars across the social sciences with an interest in issues of gender social theory and identity

Understanding the Dynamics of Language and Multilingualism in Professional Contexts Philippe Lecomte, Mary Vigier, Claudine Gaibrois, Betty Beeler, 2023-01-13 This book provides readers with the latest research on the dynamics of language and language diversity in professional contexts Bringing together novel findings from a range of disciplines it challenges practitioners and management scholars to question the conventional understanding of language as words with stable meanings an assumption which treats language as a tool that can be managed by language policies that standardize language Each of the contributions is designed to recognize the strides that have been made in the past two decades in research on language and languages in organizational settings while addressing remaining blind spots and emerging issues Particular attention is given to multilingualism sociolinguistic approaches to language in the workplace migration challenges critical perspectives on the power of language use and the management of organizations as dialogical discursive spaces

The Promise of Diversity Nicolas Wasser, 2017-02-15 Nicolas Wasser critically examines how sexual and racial identities are currently being articulated through capitalist brands and labor On the basis of an ethnographic case study about a Brazilian fashion enterprise he shows how young lesbian gay and black sales employees align themselves with the ambivalent promises put forward by diversity management Their affective labor the study argues is at the center of new and globally unfolding regimes of the precarious Readers will thus find a rich sociological account from the Global South on how neoliberal logics of self optimization both traverse and fuel the aspirations of the minoritized

Warrior Women and Trans Warriors Carolina Castellanos Gonella, 2024-11-15 Latin American literature has depicted warrior woman and trans warrior characters in armed conflicts but literary critics have not paid much attention to their empowerment They also have critiqued these characters using traditional gender binary concepts or have viewed their access to power as evil or abnormal Warrior Women and Trans Warriors Performing Masculinities in Twentieth Century Latin American Literature introduces a new perspective by analyzing how one trans warrior and two warrior women from three canonical novels contest traditional codes of behavior and appearance It examines Pintada in the Mexican novel Los de abajo 1915 Do a B rbara in the Venezuelan novel Do a B rbara 1929 and Diadorim in the Brazilian novel Grande sert o veredas 1956 Warrior Women and Trans Warriors focuses on how these three characters challenge conventional norms and empower themselves by giving orders using weapons fighting competing with other characters exposing traditional gender ideologies and transgressing sartorial gender rules Drawing on trans theory intersectionality gender performance theory and masculinities studies this book argues that performing masculinities allow these characters to occupy the place of the most desired position of their contexts

Boundaries of Queerness Katharina Kehl, 2024-07-24 This book explores how race sexuality and gender are employed in political projects of belonging whilst examining the implications for individual identity formation in the context of Sweden

When Students Protest Judith Bessant, Analicia Mejia Mesinas, Sarah Pickard, 2021-08-20 Student political action has been a major and recurring feature of politics across the globe throughout the past century Students have been involved in a full range of public issues from anti colonial movements anti war campaigns civil rights and pro democracy movements to campaigns against neoliberal policies austerity racism misogyny and calls for climate change action Yet student protest actions are frequently dismissed by political elites and others as adolescent mischief or manipulation of young people by duplicitous adults This occurs even as many working in government traditional media and educational organisations attempt to suppress student movements Much of mainstream scholarly work has also deemed student politics as undeserving of intellectual attention These three edited volumes of books help set the record straight Written by scholars and activists from around the world When Students Protest Secondary and High Schools is the first of a three volume study The authors document and analyse how generations of secondary and high school students in many countries have been thoughtful committed and effective political actors and especially so over the past decade This book also reveals moves by power holders to stigmatise repress and even criminalise student political campaigns While these efforts were sometimes successful this volume shows that whether responding to problems within schools or engaging the major public issues of the day school activists have renewed and revived the political culture of their society while also challenging long held age based prejudices

The Look of a Woman Eric Plemons, 2017-07-27 Developed in the United States in the 1980s facial feminization surgery FFS is a set of bone and soft tissue reconstructive surgical procedures intended to feminize the faces of trans women While facial surgery was once considered auxiliary to genital surgery many people now find that these procedures confer distinct benefits according to the different models of sex and gender in which they intervene Surgeons advertise that FFS not only improves a trans woman s appearance it allows her to be recognized as a woman by those who see her In The Look of a Woman Eric Plemons foregrounds the narratives of FFS patients and their surgeons as they move from consultation and the operating room to postsurgery recovery He shows how the increasing popularity of FFS represents a shift away from genital based conceptions of trans selfhood in ways that mirror the evolving views of what is considered to be good trans medicine Outlining how conflicting models of trans therapeutics play out in practice Plemons demonstrates how FFS is changing the project of surgical sex reassignment by reconfiguring the kind of sex that surgery aims to change

Donald Winnicott and the Politics of Care Joanna Kellond, 2022-03-20 This book explores the significance of psychoanalyst Donald Winnicott's ideas for contemporary debates about care Locating Winnicott in relation to a range of fields including psychology philosophy sociology critical theory and feminist theory it examines the implications of his thinking for understanding and transforming the relationship between care and society Winnicott was unique amongst psychoanalysts for the emphasis he placed on care in the development of subjectivity The book unpacks Winnicott's understanding of care and assesses its relevance for conceptions of social responsibility justice and transformation In a world where care is in crisis how might we theorise the conditions necessary for the development of caring subjectivities and is it possible to infer a relationship between those conditions and progressive social change This unique book will be of interest to readers in psychosocial studies politics and anyone concerned with thinking about the relationship between care and social transformation

Decolonising the Mediterranean Gabriele Proglia, 2017-03-07 Decolonising the Mediterranean means first and foremost investigating how the legacy of colonial rule over bodies and land has been used by other entities and powers to impose new forms of hegemony after the fall of empires and European powers It means denouncing and dissecting the tools employed in the production of new geometries of power in the global Mediterranean as well as in the farthest most recondite corners of the Mediterranean World Decolonising the Mediterranean is an epistemological practice of border dismantling and scrutiny of the ways in which powers overlap and intertwine The multiplication of the border is investigated in this volume from an in between position namely a specific positionality of subjectivities in order to connect the global and local and address Mediterranean issues with a transnational approach Decolonising the Mediterranean means thinking of the Mediterranean as a space of investigation beyond its geographical boundaries Finally it requires deconstructing the power relations at play viewing the Mediterranean as an excess space of signification in order to reconsider the past and present stories and subjectivities erased by Eurocentric nationalist historical discourse In this sense the Mediterranean may then be more than a method a matter of politics or a space without borders where the future can be reinvented from the bottom up This volume is structured into six chapters each written by a different author focusing on a single North African Maghreb and Mashrek country's colonial legacy to investigate borders in a transnational perspective While the research directions and topics of investigation adopted here are different they can all be situated on the boundary line described above and each chapter suggests a specific path for decolonising knowledge

Constituting Central American-Americans Maritza E. Cárdenas, 2018-07-09 Central Americans are the third largest and fastest growing Latino population in the United States And yet despite their demographic presence there has been little scholarship focused on this group Constituting Central American Americans is an exploration of the historical and disciplinary conditions that have structured U S Central American identity and of the ways in which this identity challenges how we frame current discussions of Latina o American ethnic and diasporic identities By focusing on the formation of Central American identity in the U S Maritza E C rdenas challenges us to think about Central America and its diaspora in relation to other U S ethno racial identities     The Healing Power of Education Marcia J. Watson-Vandiver,Greg Wiggan,2021 Situating the African American learning experience within the stream of historic enslavement and hundreds of years of institutionalized racism this timely book introduces antiracist foundations for teaching in the 21st century The authors take a holistic approach that uses Afrocentricity to identify and address critical omissions and distortions in school curricula Drawing on empirical findings from a high performing 100% African American school they identify what teachers and students recognize as successful features of the schools approach including a unique learning environment support systems spiritual affirmations evidences of Black education a reframing of Afrocentricity and education that promotes positive Black identity This much needed book demonstrates the healing power of education provides evidence of social emotional and psychological transformation within the learning experience and frames education as a tool for liberation Book Features Offers a clear chronological analysis of Black education in the United States and across the Diaspora Includes the perceptions and experiences of students and teachers at a successful Afrocentric school Provides the tools needed to teach multicultural histories in an antiracist way Examines the benefits of Afrocentric curricula and the role of corrective history in promoting positive Black identity Explores the intersections of precolonial history student achievement and Afrocentric education     Indigenous Heritage and Identity of the Last Elephant Catchers in Northeast Thailand Alisa Santikarn,2025-10-01 In 2019 when Mew Salangam passed away at 91 newspapers across Thailand described him as belonging to the last generation of elephant doctors Mew was a member of the Kui Ajiang community in Thailand an Indigenous group living in the Northeast known for catching elephants Sometime beginning in the 1950s this practice gradually came to an end Indigenous Heritage and Identity of the Last Elephant Catchers in Northeast Thailand examines how the end of elephant catching has affected the heritage and identity of the Kui Ajiang offering an analysis that calls for close attention to the broader currents of Thai history and the development of Thai environmental and cultural heritage policies Furthermore the term Authorised Environmental Discourse AED is introduced in tandem with Laurajane Smith s Authorised Heritage Discourse AHD to portray how heritage embedded in nature and culture reflects impacts of political authority and how a community responds to threats of loss and challenges to the authenticity of its traditions
