Number Twelve Son Timothy Neff Gocke, 2017-03-21

Number Twelve Son by Timothy Neff Gocke. Author Timothy Neff Gocke's book discusses the many different shots that come our way in life. You've heard the old saying you call the shots in life. If that were only true, life would be much easier. Too many times we get those unexpected shots, you know the ones that catch us off guard. Tim discusses how persevering with those difficult shots will determine our life's success. Since nothing is perfect in life, the author has found that he is a successful survivor. He found at an early age that perseverance along with hard work and dedication were the keys to victory in life. Gocke's book discusses the many peaks and valleys in his life's journey, but most of all, how he reached those peaks and endured those valleys through perseverance. So sit back and enjoy the ride. His many true believe it or not stories will fascinate and amaze you. You may even wonder while reading his book how did he make it through this difficult journey of his. Of course the answer is in his book, and with God. God's best shots have given Gocke much more than an outside shot in life.

Jackrabbit Bill Chastain, 2019-10-01. Clint Castleberry was already an Atlanta area football sensation when he arrived at Georgia Tech in 1942, and in one meteoric college season he became a national sports hero as well. He was the first college freshman ever to be voted All American. At least one Heisman Trophy was all but certain. Though weighing just 155 pounds, he seemed destined to become one of the greatest tailbacks in college football history. But then World War II intervened, and Castleberry became instead another young man whose destiny was cut short. His 19 is the only number ever retired in the illustrious history of Georgia Tech football. Bill Chastain weaves Clint Castleberry's story around other legends of Georgia Tech football, including John Heisman, William Alexander, and Bobby Dodd, to create a glorious portrait of a proud football tradition and America's Greatest Generation. The Cardinals George Becnel, 2007-10.
