Voyage De Noces:

Present Pasts Dervila Cooke, 2005 This is the first in depth study of the twelve Modiano texts specifically concerned with life writing in autobiographical and biographical cum historiographical projects The texts covered range from La Place de la toile 1968 through to La Petite Bijou 2001 Close textual analysis is combined with a theoretical approach based on current thinking in autobiography biography and reader response Modiano's use of autofiction and biofiction is analysed in the light of his continuing obsession with both personal trauma and History as well as his problematic relationship with his paternally inherited Jewish links His view of identity of self and other is thus discussed in relation to a particular literary and socio historical context French postmodern post World War II and post Holocaust Viajando Madeleine Villalta, 2008-06

Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumièrre screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumièrre brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director's entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual's education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age Jean Renoir and René Clair to French New Wave artists such as François Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard A Self-Conscious Art Akane Kawakami, 2000-12-01 A Self Conscious Art is the first full length study in English to attempt to deal with the formal complexities of Modiano's work by reading against the grain of his self professed ingenuousness A detailed examination of his narratives shows the deeply postmodern nature of his writing Parodying precursors such as Proust or the nouveau romanciers his narratives are built around a profound lack of faith in the ability of writing to retrieve the past through memory and this failure is acknowledged in the discreet playfulness that characterises his novels This book is a timely introduction to the work of one of the most successful modern French novelists Odysseys / Odyssées Jeanne M. Garane, 2017-02-06 The volume explores diverse aspects of French language travel writing Arranged chronologically by topic the essays cover the medieval Anglo Norman story of the Irish traveller Saint Brendan's fantastical visit to hell the sixteenth century French expeditions to Florida the seventeenth century Dernières découvertes dans l'Amérique septentrionale de M de la Sale mises au jour par le chevalier Tonti 1697 the eighteenth century Histoire générale des voyages by l'abbé Prevost the eighteenth century Impressions d'Orient et d'Arabie written in French by the Polish count

Gallix,2007 The Feminist Encyclopedia of French Literature Eva M. Sartori,1999-07-30 The earliest known literary productions by women living in Europe were probably written by French writers As early as the 12th century women troubadours in the south of France were writing poems French women continued writing through the ages their number increasing as education became more available to women of all classes And yet of the great number of works by women writers who preceded the current feminist movement very few have survived A few writers such as Marie de France George Sand and Simone de Beauvoir became part of the canon But critics mostly male had judged the works of only a few women writers worthy of recognition As part of the feminist move to reclaim women writers and to rethink literary history scholars in French literature began to take a new look at women writers who had been popular during their lifetimes but who had not been admitted into the canon This reference book provides extensive information about French women writers and the world in which they lived Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries for authors literary genres such as the novel poetry and the short story literary movements such as classicism realism and surrealism life cycle events particular to women such as menstruation and menopause events and institutions which affected women differently than men such as revolutions wars and laws on marriage divorce and education The volume spans French literature from the Middle Ages to the present and covers those writers who lived and worked mainly in France The entries are written by expert contributors and each includes bibliographical information The entries focus on each writer s awareness of how her gender shaped her outlook and opportunities on how categorizations structures and terms used to describe literary works have been defined for women and the ways in which women writers have responded to these definitions The volume begins with a feminist history of French literature and concludes with a selected general bibliography and a chronology of women writers Le grand dictionnaire Hachette-Oxford Marie-Hélène Corréard,Valerie Grundy,Jean-Benoit Ormal-Grenon,Nicholas Rollin,2007-05-10 A book that lists French language words and gives their equivalent in English and English language words with their equivalent in French Genre Trajectories Garin Dowd,Natalia Rulyova,2015-08-25 This book provides a fresh interdisciplinary perspective on genre and identifies developments in genre studies in the early 21st century Genre approaches are applied to examine a fascinating range of texts including ancient Greek poems Holocaust visual and literary texts contemporary Hollywood films selfies melodrama and classroom practices Scars of the Spirit Geoffrey Hartman,2015-11-17 In this fascinating collection of essays noted cultural critic Geoffrey Hartman raises the essential question of where we can find the real or authentic in today s world and how this affects the way we can understand our human predicament Hartman explores such issues as the fantasy of total and perfect information available on the Internet the biographical excesses of tell all daytime talk shows and how we can understand what is true in biographical and testimonial writing And what he asks is the ethical point of all this personal testimony What has it really taught us Underlying the entire book is a question of how the Holocaust has shaped the possibilities for truth and for the writing of an authentic life story in today s world and how we can approach the world in a meaningful way Hartman produces a meditation on how an appreciation of the aesthetic qualities of art and writing may help us to answer these questions of meaning Dictionnaire Des Proverbes François P. J. P. D. L. N. D. L. E. F.,1749
