Trade Policy Review, 2018 Redefining Education and Development Kaitano Dube, 2024-10-18 The book aligns with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals SDGs particularly Goal 4 which focuses on quality education It explores the evolving role of education as a critical driver for achieving all 17 SDGs by providing a platform for discussing innovative educational models and theories that foster sustainable development The book takes an interdisciplinary approach merging educational theory developmental practice and human psychology to address complex global challenges hindering sustainable development The book includes case studies and empirical research such as exploring student entrepreneurship in the agricultural sector and the factors bridging the gap between entrepreneurial intention and venture creation These examples provide readers with practical applications of theoretical concepts and demonstrate the real world impact of educational innovations which is at the core of education delivery for all and how education touches on other areas of the SDGs The book offers valuable insights for policymakers educators and development practitioners by presenting research and theory based analyses It suggests ways to improve the academic environment to foster entrepreneurship and innovation which are key to economic development and job creation especially in regions with high youth unemployment rates The content suggests educational reforms that are responsive to the changing societal and economic landscapes The book's blend of theory and practice targets a broad audience including academic scholars students development agencies non governmental organisations and policymakers It seeks to engage these diverse readers in a conversation about the future of education and its role in achieving sustainable development In summary the book seeks to provide a comprehensive exploration of the nexus between education development and human needs in the context of the SDGs offering innovative perspectives and practical solutions to equip readers to contribute to sustainable global development The Un

Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women and Its Optional Protocol Patricia Schulz, Ruth Halperin-Kaddari, Beate Rudolf, Marsha A. Freeman, 2023-01-27 This volume is the fully revised and updated version of the first comprehensive commentary on the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women and its Optional Protocol It reflects the developments during the decade following the publication of the first edition in 2012 which has also seen a notable rise in individual complaints more than 85 ten new General Recommendations and six new inquiry procedures as well as numerous statements partly in conjunction with other UN human rights bodies The Convention is a key international human rights instrument and the only one exclusively addressed to women It has been described as the United Nations landmark treaty in the struggle for women's rights At a time when the backlash against women's human rights and the concept of gender based discrimination is increasingly challenged by governments and powerful societal actors the Commentary is an important instrument to hold all state powers to account on their international obligations under the Convention The Commentary analyses the interpretation of the Convention through the work of its monitoring body the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women It comprises detailed analyses of the Preamble and each article of the Convention and of the Optional Protocol including a separate chapter on the cross cutting substantive issue of violence against women The sources relied on are the treaty language and the general recommendations concluding observations and case law under the Optional Protocol individual complaints and inquiries through which the Committee has interpreted and applied the Convention Each chapter is self contained but the Commentary is conceived of as an integral whole The book also includes an introduction which provides an overview of the Convention and its embedding in the international law of human rights as well as the most recent challenges to women s human rights worldwide

COVID-19 Pandemic and Global Inequality Rajib Bhattacharyya, Ramesh Chandra Das, Achintya Ray, 2023-10-05 The book intends to capture the most critical issue that has cropped up as an aftermath of the Corona pandemic the phenomenon of widening of global inequalities across nations depending upon their economic position support policies of the government and international relationship particularly in the context of alarming growth of unemployed in the labour market business activity and social sector This book is expected to provide new areas of research to both academicians and policy makers to re think about global cooperation for bridging the inequalities for a better world It tries to incorporate the valuable contribution of experts from various fields of knowledge in a consolidated volume This text will be revised once the chapters are finalized and put together in structured themes The table of content lists some of the chapters that have been confirmed but there are more that are being invited by the editors

World Bank East Asia and Pacific Economic Update, October 2023

Weltbank, World Bank, 2023-10 Economic activity in much of developing East Asia and Pacific EAP other than several Pacific Island Countries has recovered from the succession of shocks since 2020 but is now slowing down Private consumption and the recovery of tourism had sustained growth in the region but is running out of steam Slowing global growth is leading to a contraction in exports Public investment and private investment also remain low in much of the region Most governments in the region are projected to consolidate fiscally in 2023 The revival of growth in the region will depend crucially on the state of the services sectors Even though manufacturing has powered EAP development services already account for more than half of value added and employment A digital revolution is leading to structural change within all services sectors with the combination of new domestic platform based services and more internationally tradable services boosting productivity Harnessing the digital revolution for inclusive economic growth requires deeper services reforms

Recent Trends in Correspondent Banking Relationships International Monetary Fund. Strategy, Policy, & Review Department,International Monetary Fund. Legal Dept.,International Monetary Fund. Monetary and Capital Markets Department,2017-04-21 Correspondent banking relationships CBRs which facilitate global trade and economic activity have been under pressure in several countries So far cross border payments have remained stable and economic activity has been largely unaffected despite a recent slight decrease in the number of CBRs However in a limited number of countries financial fragilities have been accentuated as their cross border flows are concentrated through fewer CBRs or maintained through alternative arrangements These fragilities could undermine affected countries long run growth and financial inclusion prospects by increasing costs of financial services and negatively affecting bank ratings

UN Human Rights Institutions and the Environment Sumudu Atapattu,2023-05-22 This book presents an in depth analysis of how UN human rights institutions and mechanisms have addressed environmental protection sustainable development and climate change Despite the increasing involvement of UN human rights bodies in addressing environmental degradation and climate change a systematic review of the convergence between human rights and the environment in these bodies has not been carried out Filling this lacuna this book surveys the resolutions general comments concluding observations decisions on individual communications and press releases It identifies principles that have emerged explores the ways in which human rights charter based and treaty based institutions are interpreting environmental principles and examines how they contribute to the emerging field of human rights and the environment Given the disproportionate effect that polluting activities have on marginalized and vulnerable groups Atapattu also discusses how these human rights mechanisms have addressed the impact on women children indigenous peoples people with disabilities and racial minorities Written by a world renowned expert on human rights and the environment this book will be of great interest to students and scholars researching and teaching in this important field of study The Great Music City Andrea Baker,2019-03-01 In the 1960s as gentrification took hold of New York City Jane Jacobs predicted that the city would become the true player in the global system Indeed in the 21st century more meaningful comparisons can be made between cities than between nations and states Based on case studies of Melbourne Austin and Berlin this book is the first in depth study to combine academic and industry analysis of the music cities phenomenon Using four distinctly defined algorithms as benchmarks it interrogates Richard Florida s creative cities thesis and applies a much needed synergy of urban sociology and musicology to the concept mediated by a journalism lens Building on seminal work by Robert Park Lewis Mumford and Jane Jacobs it argues that journalists are the cultural branders and street theorists whose ethnographic approach offers critical insights into the urban sociability of music activity Routledge Handbook of Human Rights and Climate Governance Sébastien Duyck,Sébastien Jodoin,Alyssa Johl,2018-02-15 Over the last decade the world has increasingly grappled with the complex linkages emerging between efforts to combat climate change and to protect human rights around the world The Paris Climate Agreement adopted in December 2015 recognized the necessity for governments to take into consideration their human rights obligations when taking climate action However important gaps remain in understanding how human rights can be used in practice to develop and implement effective and equitable solutions to climate change at multiple levels of governance This book brings together leading scholars and practitioners to offer a timely and comprehensive analysis of the opportunities and challenges for integrating human rights in diverse areas and forms of global climate governance The first half of the book explores how human rights principles and obligations can be used to reconceive climate governance and shape responses to particular aspects of climate change The second half of the book identifies lessons in the integration of human rights in climate advocacy and governance and sets out future directions in this burgeoning domain Featuring a diverse range of contributors and case studies this Handbook will be an essential resource for students scholars practitioners and policy makers with an interest in climate law and governance human rights and international environmental law Recent Advances in Soft Computing Radek Matoušek,2018-08-04 This book presents selected papers from the MENDEL conference that was held in Brno Czech Republic in June 2017 Consisting of two parts the book discusses recent advances in soft computing including intelligent image processing Part 1 addresses evolutionary computing swarm intelligence metaheuristics and optimization Part 2 then focuses on neural networks machine learning self organization fuzzy systems and advanced statistics The MENDEL conference was established in 1995 and it bears the name of the scientist and Augustinian priest Gregor J Mendel who discovered the famous Laws of Heredity The main aim of the conference was to create a regular opportunity for students academics and researchers to exchange their ideas and novel research methods
