Playing Without Rules Rachelle Ayala, 2017-10-15 The biggest mistake Marcia Powers ever made was letting ballplayer Brock Carter walk out of her life. She made him choose his career over her hometown and held onto a secret: a four year old daughter posing as her baby sister Brock's back, and this time he wants answers, especially when Marcia's little sister gets attached to him. Marcia's dad isn't telling, and neither are her friends. Brock is determined to rekindle their romance and pulls out all the stops, debunking every one of Marcia's excuses. Marcia is losing her heart again, but will she survive the fallout when Brock discovers the real reason she sent him away? What will Marcia lose to win back his trust and keep his love? Men of Spring Baseball romances can be read standalone, but are more fun when read together. Book 1 Playing Without Rules, Marcia Brock. Book 2 Playing Catch, Jeanine Kirk. Book 3 Playing for the Save, Jamie Ryan. Book 4 Playing Fastball, Tina Timmy. Prequel Novella Playing The Rookie, Jessica Jay. White's Rules, Paul D. White, Ron Arias, 2007-03-27 One heroic schoolteacher has saved hundreds of lives with unconditional love and zero tolerance for rule breakers. His students are the worst of the worst: drug addicts, gang members, and violent criminal offenders. They have flunked out or been thrown out of every other school they've attended. They may be the children of addicts, abusers, or even of good parents, but they have one thing in common: they have been rejected by everyone except Paul White. With ten simple rules, he has helped hundreds of kids turn their lives around. I can't remember when I've been this happy. Since I came here, I'm getting right with my family and friends. I'm off the drugs and staying out of trouble. I'm doing really well in school, and I've got a job. Kathy, fifteen. West Valley student, former crystal meth user. He never gives up on you. Roger, seventeen. Among students, they're the worst of the worst: chronic truants, drunks, drug addicts, even violent criminals. Some haven't been to school for months, even years. Some have spent a year or more locked up for gang related offenses and felony assaults. All of them, it seems, are on the short list of life's early losers. Enter Paul White, the teacher whose combination of unconditional love and unbreakable rules has changed and sometimes saved the lives of the most troubled students in Detroit, the San Francisco Bay Area, and Los Angeles. When they walk through the door of his one room high school, the West Valley Leadership Academy in Canoga Park, California, White treats them like his own children, loving them, protecting them, and requiring them to become men and women of moral courage, integrity, and high achievement. Sometimes it only takes one person to turn the tide. During his twenty five year career as a teacher, Paul

White has saved hundreds of students from falling through the cracks Veritable miracles have taken place in his classroom The reading skills of a fourteen year old recovering crystal meth addict climbed from a seventh to a tenth grade level in six months She finished high school at age sixteen and went on to complete a nursing program A fifteen year old girl was flunking out of school and so violent that the safety of the people around her couldn't be guaranteed After joining Paul's class she not only brought her grades up enough to graduate from high school at sixteen but has gone on to finish several semesters at a local community college A seventeen year old boy who had been a neo Nazi asked a Holocaust survivor to forgive him for his disrespectful behavior White's Rules is a lesson to parents and educators who can't control their kids or their classrooms For Americans who truly want to stop the violence end the apathy and improve academic performance White poses a challenge Try his rules The ten rule list that he developed covers everything from character values to schoolwork from getting off drugs to learning personal finance skills By enforcing these rules parents and educators can attack both the causes and the effects of the crisis in our schools This is the moving story of how the program evolved and what we can all do to save our youth one kid at a time
