What Really Happened English Edition:

Heartless English Edition JONAXX,2023-06-02 Rozen Elizalde knows what he wants and won't let anyone or anything stop him from getting them. He is strong-willed, driven, stubborn, and resolute, which causes him to clash with the people around him, including his family. Despite all that, Rozen proves himself to be faithful, caring, and protective. Coreen Aquino likes to play things safe and is always caught in the middle of two big choices. She thrives in that constant state of uncertainty, forcing others to wait for her to make decisions. But when push comes to shove, Coreen is prepared to sacrifice for the people she loves, even if it means leaving the safety of her comfortable state of limbo. Rozen has been pining for Coreen since they were children, but Coreen likes his brother Noah more and has not exactly been subtle with her feelings. Add to that the fact that she likes the chase too much to give it up just like that. But Coreen and Rozen will soon learn that though the people we love can be cruel to us, the people who are most heartless to us are ourselves.

Happened in the Garden of Eden? Ziony Zevit, 2013-11-26 A provocative new interpretation of the Adam and Eve story from an expert in Biblical literature The Garden of Eden story one of the most famous narratives in Western history is typically read as an ancient account of original sin and humanity's fall from divine grace In this highly innovative study Ziony Zevit argues that this is not how ancient Israelites understood the early biblical text Drawing on such diverse disciplines as biblical studies geography archaeology mythology anthropology biology poetics law linguistics and literary theory he clarifies the worldview of the ancient Israelite readers during the First Temple period and elucidates what the story likely meant in its original context Most provocatively he contends that our ideas about original sin are based upon misconceptions originating in the Second Temple period under the influence of Hellenism He shows how for ancient Israelites the story was really about how humans achieved ethical discernment He argues further that Adam was not made from dust and that Eve was not made from Adam's rib His study unsettles much of what has been taken for granted about the story for more than two millennia and has far reaching implications for both literary and theological interpreters Classical Hebrew in the hands of Ziony Zevit is like a cello in the hands of a master cellist He knows all the hidden subtleties of the instrument and he makes you hear them in this rendition of the profoundly simple story of Adam Eve the Serpent and their Creator in the Garden of Eden Zevit brings a great deal of other biblical learning to bear in a surprisingly light hearted book Jack Miles author of God A Biography

The Gospel Miracles: What Really Happened? Michael J. Lowis, 2014-12-11 The Gospel Miracles examines the thirty five miracles performed by Jesus as reported in the four Gospels The objectives are firstly to try and determine what really happened at the time they were enacted and secondly to see if it is possible to explain them This exercise is neither an attempt to deny miracles nor to blindly accept the accounts as inerrant but it is an unbiased attempt to arrive at the truth The findings conclude that sometimes there are possible naturalistic or simple alternative explanations to a supernatural one However this does not discount the possibility that Jesus employed natural means at the right time for the right reasons The Gospel Miracles concludes with a summary of some more modern reports of miraculous events
