The Way We Never Were Stephanie Coontz, 2016-03-29 The definitive edition of the classic myth shattering history of the American family Leave It to Beaver was not a documentary a man's home has never been his castle the male breadwinner marriage is the least traditional family in history and rape and sexual assault were far higher in the 1970s than they are today In The Way We Never Were acclaimed historian Stephanie Coontz examines two centuries of the American family sweeping away misconceptions about the past that cloud current debates about domestic life The 1950s do not present a workable model of how to conduct our personal lives today Coontz argues and neither does any other era from our cultural past This revised edition includes a new introduction and epilogue exploring how the clash between growing gender equality and rising economic inequality is reshaping family life marriage and male female relationships in our modern era More relevant than ever The Way We Never Were is a potent corrective to dangerous nostalgia for an American tradition that never really existed

China's Peasant Agriculture and Rural Society Jan Douwe van der Ploeg, Jingzhong Ye, 2016-05-20 China's agriculture and rural society has undergone rapid changes in recent years Many poorer farmers and younger people have moved to cities and yet China has an immense challenge to feed a growing and more affluent population This book provides a bottom up view of China's agriculture showing how the many millions of Chinese peasants make a living It presents a vivid description of the mechanisms used by rural households to defend and sustain their livelihoods increase their agricultural production and improve the quality of their lives The authors examine the newly emerging trajectories of entrepreneurial and capitalist farming and assess whether such alternatives will be able to meet the enormous social economic and environmental challenges that China faces The book also explores the paradigm that has underpinned the organisation and development of China's agriculture from ancient times to the present day This shows the importance of balancing in the Chinese model as compared to the one sided imposition of continual modernization in the western model It is argued that such balancing is at the core of the current Sannong policy referring to the three ruralities of food sovereignty wellbeing for peasant households and an attractive countryside

Sustainable Surfing Gregory Borne, Jess Ponting, 2017-03-16 Whilst being an ambiguous and contested concept sustainability has become one of the twenty first century's most pervasive ideas as humanity's increasing impact on the environment as well as increasing social and economic inequalities have local and global consequences Surfing is a globally recognised cultural phenomenon whose unique connection with nature and rapid expansion into a multibillion pound industry offers exciting synergies for exploring various dimensions of sustainability This book is the first to bring together the world's foremost experts on the themes of sustainability and surfing Drawing upon cutting edge theory and research this book offers multidisciplinary perspectives and methodological approaches on the social environmental and economic components of sustainable surfing Contributions provide unique discussions that bridge the gap between theory and practice exploring topics such as sustainable surf tourism surf econometrics surf activism surfing governance the surfing industry and technological advancements Each chapter produces in depth insights to provide foundational insights of the relationship between sustainability and surfing This book will appeal to multiple audiences in different disciplines and sectors Practitioners will benefit from the insights presented in this volume while both undergraduate and postgraduate students will find this volume an invaluable companion including those working in geography environmental studies sport sciences and leisure and tourism studies      2025 YCT Expert Team, 2025 26 NTA CSIR NET JRF Part A General Aptitude Solved Papers 378 695 E This book contains 73 sets of the previous year solved papers and covers mathematical sciences physical sciences chemical sciences life sciences and earth sciences      Climate Technology, Gender, and Justice Tina Sikka, 2018-12-14 This book is the first to undertake a gendered analysis of geoengineering and alternative energy sources Are either of these technologies sufficiently attendant to gender issues Do they incorporate feminist values as articulated by the renowned social philosopher Helen Longino such as empirical adequacy novelty heterogeneity complexity and applicability to human needs The overarching argument in this book contends that while mitigation strategies like solar and wind energy go much further to meet feminist objectives and virtues geoengineering is not consistent with the values of justice as articulated in Longino's feminist approach to science This book provides a novel feminist argument in support of pursuing alternative energy in the place of geoengineering It provides an invaluable contribution for academics and students working in the areas of gender science and climate change as well as policy makers interested in innovative ways of taking up climate change mitigation and gender      The Brain Warrior's Way Daniel G.
