HEADING

Won't You Be My Neighbor: My Moment as a Leader

TITLE

INTRO

The room was filled with the gentle hum of microphones and video cameras, cut only by the occasional cough or cleared throat. It was easy to feel out of place in this room full of wood furniture, leather seats, and powerful men capable of changing not just my life, but an entire sector of television programming as we knew it. I had never thought of myself as a leader, but I also knew that this was about something bigger than me, something that I could actually influence.

I took a deep breath and began to talk. I wasn't known to have a particularly commanding or powerful voice, but people always seemed to listen, including these men with their name placards and tall seats. They had been ready to cut funding for public broadcasting, which included programming that they had never seen. I was simply someone who lived in a neighborhood and cared about children's education, beyond just math and reading. All I could do was be honest.

BODY

To me, leadership is about connection. I know that I have a voice and an immense dedication to emotional intelligence in children. My ability to focus on other people goes hand-in-hand with my ability to speak through a tiger puppet. Both are about closing gaps and bringing people closer to a basic understanding. I hope to use my leadership abilities within the field of psychology to build more connections between people and communities.

CONCLUSION

- Write a narrative that uses your own voice and style
- Be humble, but don't be down on yourself

Essay from the year 2016 in the subject Theology Practical Theology grade Merit course MA language English abstract. This essay is an attempt to suggest an effective Christian leadership by basing on a case study of Christian leadership in Myanmar. The essay has three parts. The first part tries to find a good definition of leadership, Christian leadership, and being effective. After discussing different definitions made by some prominent writers and leaders, I articulate my own definition of an effective Christian leadership. The second part highlights the leadership situation in my own context. In other words, the second part discusses a key issue of Christian leadership in Myanmar where both political and Christian leaders tend to practice authoritarian leadership, and my critique on it. The final part is seeking an effective leadership for the Christian churches in the light of the key issue of Christian leadership in Myanmar. Here I suggest an incarnational leadership which calls the leaders to engage in suffering, dying to their comfort zones, as a suitable leadership that will meet the need of the people today.

Block,2011-09-01 Like the book of Romans in the New Testament the book of Deuteronomy provides the most systematic and sustained presentation of theology in the Old Testament And like the Gospel of John it represents mature theological reflection on God s great acts of salvation in this case associated with the exodus of Israel from Egypt Unfortunately for many Christians Deuteronomy is a dead book either because its contents are unknown or because its message is misunderstood The essays in this collection arise from a larger project driven by a passion to recover for Christians the life giving message of the Old Testament in general and the gospel according to Moses in particular The meditations cover a wide range of topics from explorations into the meaning of specific texts to considerations of the ethical and homiletical relevance of the book for Christians today
