Trevin Wax, Thomas West

What S Wrong With The World:

The Conservator, 1906      What Is Wrong with Men Jessa Crispin, 2025-06-03 A hilarious ambitious work of trenchant cultural criticism that traces the origins of today s crisis of masculinity through Michael Douglas s oeuvre from the eighties and nineties How to be a Man That question and all the anxiety anger and resentment it stirs up is the starting point for a crisis in masculinity that today manifests as misogyny nativism and corporate greed gives rise to incels and mass shooters and leads to panic over the rights of women and minorities According to Jessa Crispin it is the most important question of our time and the answer to it might be found in an unlikely place the films of Michael Douglas In the 1980s the rules for masculinity began to change The goal was no longer to be a good respectable family man carrying on the patriarchal traditions of generations past Not only was it becoming unfashionable but increasingly difficult the economic and political shifts a slashed social safety net globalization made it harder to find a breadwinning income a stable home life and a secure place in the public sphere So then how to be a man From the early eighties to the late nineties Michael Douglas showed us how he was our president our Wall Street overlord our mass shooter our failed husband our midlife crisis our cop and our canary in the patriarchal coal mine His characters were a mirror of our cultural shift serving as the foundation for everything from the 1994 Crime Bill to Trump s ultimate rise With wry wit and wisdom Crispin examines the phenomenon of the Michael Douglas character as a silver screen seismograph registering the tectonic movements within our society that have fractured it in shocking ways Blending feminist arguments and pop culture criticism Crispin uses the iconic roles of Michael Douglas from Fatal Attraction to Wall Street to The Game as a lens to explore men s and our culture s ongoing anxieties around women money and power Ultimately What Is Wrong with Men reveals that the patriarchy has now fully betrayed men along with everyone else and shows how unpacking one of its most fervent icons can help us envision a pathway forward      What Is Wrong with People?! Mark Lutz, 2015-02-03 Many of us are stunned by the increasingly outrageous behavior of some people and the indifference those folks have about the effect their actions have upon the rest of us Others of us are discouraged by our own stuckness regarding some issue And then there are those caring individuals who try to help others only to watch them struggle and fail over and over These helpers experience their compassion slowly turning to frustration and hopelessness What Is Wrong With People avoids the two extremes that often result in greater pain and confusion over simplistic answers to complex situations and making things unnecessarily complicated and overwhelming In these pages you ll read about four conditions not one not forty that people can find themselves in Learn the remedies to each of these conditions and experience the freedom and empowerment that comes from embracing a complete solution Learn the secret to what is wrong with people      What Is Wrong With the Bible? Charles Giuliani, 2018-07-26 The Bible is the number one best selling book of all time No other literary work in history has ever held so many people captive to its claims It is viewed as God s word an infallible moral guidebook and a timeless provider of hope and comfort But is there really any truth to these views Is the Bible really worthy of all this fanfare This book will reveal the ugly truth that the Bible is not at all what its fans think it to be In fact it is the very antithesis thereof And this book will prove all of this by using the bible itself as its own refuter      Global Politics Jenny Edkins,Maja Zehfuss,2019-01-18

What is Wrong with Us? Eric Coombes, Theodore Dalrymple, 2016-11-08 Can any of us entirely banish from our hearts and minds grave misgivings about the condition of the culture we now inhabit Expressions of those misgivings are mostly unheard in public forums ignored in the dominant media and if noticed at all dismissed by state supported bureaucracies and commercial vested interests To have any chance of gaining attention they must resolve themselves into coherent forms We need to clarify our perceptions of the things that trouble us by articulating and developing our thoughts about them That is we are in need of serious criticism serious criticism aesthetic social and political which is notably lacking in the contemporary world especially in places readily available to the educated non specialist such as the quality weekend newspapers and especially perhaps in relation to the visual arts The pieces collected in this volume are not presented as amounting to an overall account or theory of our cultural condition They are offered merely as examples of serious criticism of what we need if we are to begin to think more profitably about our condition daring in defiance of contemporary dogmatism to make the necessary judgements of value without which our culture will continue to disintegrate

The Gospel of John Frederick Dale Bruner, 2012-02-22 The author of a much loved two volume Matthew commentary 1990 that he greatly revised and expanded fourteen years later Frederick Dale Bruner now offers The Gospel of John A Commentary more rich fruit of his lifetime of study and teaching Rather than relying primarily on recent scholarship Bruner honors and draws from the church's major John commentators throughout history including Augustine Chrysostom Aquinas Luther Calvin Bultmann Barrett and many more Alongside this historical interpretation is Bruner s own contemporary interpretation which incorporates a lucid translation of the text references to recent scholarship and his pastoral application of the Gospel to present day experience Like Bruner s other work this commentary is rich in biblical insights broadly historical and deeply theological Here is what Eugene Peterson said about Bruner s earlier work on Matthew This is the kind of commentary I most want a theological wrestling with Scripture Frederick Dale Bruner grapples with the text not only as a technical exegete although he does that very well but as a church theologian caring passionately about what these words tell us about God and ourselves His Matthew commentary is in the grand traditions of Augustine Calvin and Luther expansive and leisurely loving the text the people in it and the Christians who read it The same could well be said about the present John commentary which promises to be another invaluable resource for pastors teachers and laypeople alike

The God Who Comforts Douglas D. Webster, 2016-01-07 The God Who Comforts is a spiritual reading of Jesus' upper room discipleship sermon What started out as a Passover meal became an inspiring and spiraling manifesto of comfort and challenge Jesus propels the conversation forward into our hearts and minds When Jesus got up off his knees and resumed his place of authority he framed this strategic discourse in the Truth that cannot be packaged as a consumer product or programmed to fit the secular mind Four distinct comings shape Jesus' sermon in the upper room his final coming the Parousia his gift of the Spirit the Paraclete his death and resurrection the Passion and his abiding fellowship the Presence These four comings are the ways in which Jesus draws near to his disciples reassuring them that they are not alone Throughout this conversation we are in the company of the eleven hearing Jesus speak to us as he spoke to them This discourse continues to reset twenty-one centuries of discipleship according to the revelation of Jesus Christ

Can God Be Free? William L. Rowe, 2004-04-22 In the three major religions of the West God is understood to be a being whose goodness knowledge and power is such that it is impossible for any being including God himself to have a greater degree of goodness knowledge and power This book focuses on God's freedom and praiseworthiness in relation to his perfect goodness Given his necessary perfections if there is a best world for God to create he would have no choice other than to create it For as Leibniz tells us 'todo less good than one could is to be lacking in wisdom or in goodness But if God could not do otherwise than create the best world he created the world of necessity not freely And if that is so it may be argued that we have no reason to be thankful to God for creating us since as parts of the best possible world God was simply unable to do anything other than create us he created us of necessity not freely Moreover we are confronted with the difficulty of having to believe that this world with its Holocaust and innumerable other evils is the best that an infinitely powerful infinitely good being could do in creating a world Neither of these conclusions taken by itself seems at all plausible Yet each conclusion appears to follow from the conception of God now dominant in the great religions of the West William Rowe presents a detailed study of this important problem both historically in the writings of Gottfried Leibniz Samuel Clarke Thomas Aquinas and Jonathan Edwards as well as in the contemporary philosophical literature devoted to the issue Rowe argues that this problem is more serious than is commonly thought and may require some significant revision in contemporary thinking about the nature of God

Socratic Ignorance and Platonic Knowledge in the Dialogues of Plato Sara Ahbel-Rappe, 2018-04-25 In this highly original and provocative book Sara Ahbel Rappe argues that the Platonic dialogues contain an esoteric Socrates who signifies a profound commitment to self knowledge and whose appearances in the dialogues are meant to foster the practice of self inquiry According to Ahbel Rappe the elenchus or inner examination and the thesis that virtue is knowledge are tools for a contemplative practice that teaches us how to investigate the mind and its objects directly In other words the Socratic persona of the dialogues represents wisdom which is distinct from and serves as the larger space in which Platonic knowledge ethics epistemology and metaphysics is constructed Ahbel Rappe offers complete readings of the Apology Charmides Alcibiades I Euthyphro Lysis Phaedrus Theaetetus and Parmenides as well as parts of the Republic Her interpretation challenges two common approaches to the figure of Socrates the thesis that the dialogues represent an early Plato who later disavows his reliance on Socratic wisdom and the thesis that Socratic ethics can best be expressed by the construct of eudaimonism or egoism
