A man with dark curly hair, glasses, and a beard stands on a city street. He is wearing a dark suit jacket over a grey button-down shirt and a red and grey striped scarf. Why are There Differences in the Gospels? Mike Licona,2017 Why are there differences in the stories of the Gospels Licona turns to Greek classicist Plutarch for an answer assessing differences that appeared when Plutarch told the same story more than once in his Lives He suggests the differences in the Gospels often resulted from their authors employing the same compositional devices used by Plutarch

WHAT DOES THE BIBLE REALLY SAY ABOUT DEATH? Edward D. Andrews, 2014-10-21 What is the Bible's viewpoint Without delving into an endless stream of what man has said Andrews looks at what the Bible says about death and the like Why do we grow old and die What happens at death Is there life after death or is this all there is Do we have an immortal soul Are we all going to heaven Is there really such a place as hellfire Andrews has answered these questions and far more Death in the Bible is viewed as an enemy of humanity The apostle Paul offered us hope from this last enemy death He wrote Death is to be brought to nothing The last enemy to be abolished is death 1 Cor 15 26 The New English Bible How could Paul be so sure Even though Paul had formerly been an enemy of Christianity the one who had been raised from the dead Jesus Christ taught him personally Acts 9 3 19 This is why Paul also wrote For as by a man Adam came death by a man Jesus Christ has come also the resurrection of the dead For as in Adam all die so also in Christ shall all be made alive 1 Corinthians 15 21 22

figure of the Devil Sullivan's narrative moves through centuries of historical religious and cultural conceptions of evil and the Devil from the Mesopotamian and Egyptian gods to the Book of Job to the New Testament to the witch hunts in Europe in the 15th through 17th centuries to the history of the devil worshipping Black Mass ceremony and its depictions in 19th century French literature He references major literary religious and historical figures from the Persian sages Zoroaster and Mani Plato Thomas Aquinas John Milton Edgar Allan Poe Aleister Crowley and many more among them Charles Baudelaire from whose work Sullivan took the title of the book But this is not just a cultural history Sullivan intersperses original reporting and personal reflection He travels to Catemaco Mexico to participate in the Hour of the Witches an annual ceremony in which hundreds of people congregate in the jungle south of Vera Cruz to negotiate terms with El Diablo He takes us through the most famous and best documented exorcism in American history which occurred in 1928 and lasted four months He ponders the psychology of evil through his encounter with one brutal serial killer and he reports on the Satanic Panic of the 1980s detailing the shocking story of a small town in Texas that one summer in 1988 unraveled into paranoia after a seventeen year old boy was found hanging from the branch of a horse apple tree and rumors about cult worship spread throughout the wider community Randall Sullivan whose reportage and narrative skill has been called extraordinary and enthralling by Rolling Stone takes on a bold task in this book that is both biography of the Devil and a look at how evil manifests in the world

Why Are There Differences in the Gospels? Michael R. Licona, 2016-11-17 Anyone who reads the Gospels carefully will notice that there are differences in the manner in which they report the same events These differences have led many conservative Christians to resort to harmonization efforts that are often quite strained sometimes to the point of absurdity Many people have concluded the Gospels are hopelessly contradictory and therefore historically unreliable as accounts of Jesus The majority of New Testament scholars now hold that most if not all of the Gospels belong to the genre of Greco Roman biography and that this genre permitted some flexibility in the way in which historical events were narrated However few scholars have undertaken a robust discussion of how this plays out in Gospel pericopes self contained passages

Why Are There Differences in the Gospels provides a fresh approach to the question by examining the works of Plutarch a Greek essayist who lived in the first and second centuries CE Michael R Licona discovers three dozen pericopes narrated two or more times in Plutarch's Lives identifies differences between the accounts and analyzes these differences in light of compositional devices identified by classical scholars as commonly employed by ancient authors The book then applies the same approach to nineteen pericopes that are narrated in two or more Gospels demonstrating that the major differences found there likely result from the same compositional devices employed by Plutarch Showing both the strained harmonizations and the hasty dismissals of the Gospels as reliable accounts to be misguided Licona invites readers to approach them in light of their biographical genre and in that way to gain a clearer understanding of why they differ The Essential Evangelical Parallel Bible John R.
