Victorian Religious Revivals David Bebbington,2012-05-31 Revivals are outbursts of religious enthusiasm in which there are numerous conversions In this book the phenomenon of revival is set in its broad historical and historiographical context David Bebbington provides detailed case studies of awakenings that took place between 1841 and 1880 in Britain North America and Australia showing that the distinctive features of particular revivals were the result less of national differences than of denominational variations These revivals occurred in many places across the globe but revealed the shared characteristics of evangelical Protestantism Bebbington explores the preconditions of revival giving attention to the cultural setting of each episode as well as the form of piety displayed by the participants No single cause can be assigned to the awakenings but one of the chief factors behind them was occupational structure and striking instances of death were often a precipitant Ideas were far more involved in these events than historians have normally supposed so that the case studies demonstrate some of the main patterns in religious thought at a popular level during the Victorian period Laymen and women played a disproportionate part in their promotion and converts were usually drawn in large numbers from the young There was a trend over time away from traditional spontaneity towards more organised methods sometimes entailing interdenominational co operation Revolutionary Patriots of Charles County, Maryland, 1775-1783 Henry C. Peden, Jr.,2009-05-01 This volume is a research tool for locating the men and women of Charles County Maryland who served in the military pledged their service tendered material aid to the army took the Oath of Fidelity served in an office or on a
