When Can U Register For 2016 At Sol Plaatje:

Sol Plaatje's Mhudi Sabata-mpho Mokahe, Brian Willan, 2021 Sol Plaatje's Mhudi is the first full length novel in English to have been written by a black South African and is widely regarded as one of South Africa's most important literary works. Set in the 1830s it tells the tale of Mhudi and Ra Thaga a romantic story set against a violent backdrop of war between Barolong and Matebele complicated by the intrusions of Boer trekkers with whom the Barolong form an alliance. It is notable among other things for the way Plaatje uses the past to explore the roots of the oppression and injustice suffered by his people a century later when the book was written. Funds of Knowledge and Identity Pedagogies for Social Justice Moisés Esteban-Guitart, 2023-07-21 This edited volume takes the US derived concept and praxis of funds of knowledge and applies it globally to critically analyse current education in line with social justice antiracism and culturally sustaining pedagogies. Edited by one of the premier international voices for the funds of knowledge approach and in particular funds of identity theory chapters foreground first hand participatory research practice experiences with learners schools and local communities. These experiences demonstrate the positive social justice inspired pedagogical actions that result in and reveal powerful possibilities for a decolonialised antiracist praxis that aims to eradicate deficit thinking in education. Further the inclusion of voices that are typically othered in the construction and distribution of academic knowledge make this a seminal volume in the field. Ultimately the volume will be of interest to scholars students and researchers working in the sociology of education psychology of education and those specifically dealing with antiracism decolonialism and equity within education

The South African Tradition of Racial Capitalism Zachary Levenson, Marcel Paret, 2024-06-28 This book documents the emergence and development of the theory of racial capitalism in apartheid South Africa. It interrogates the specificity of this theory in the South African context and draws lessons for its global applicability. Racism and capitalism have a long history of entanglement. Nowhere is this more evident than in South Africa where colonial and apartheid regimes used explicit systems of racial hierarchy to shore up profit. It is therefore no surprise that South Africa has represented a key site for thinking about the role that racism plays in shaping state policy labor markets patterns of capital accumulation and working class struggle. Illuminating these dynamics this volume develops a distinctive South African tradition of thought about the relationship between racism and capitalism. The South African Tradition of Racial Capitalism contributes to a burgeoning literature on the concept of racial capitalism the origins of which many commentators trace back to apartheid South Africa. It pays particular attention to the crucial role of anti apartheid activists as theorists whose important insights remain relevant for scholars and activists around the globe. This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

South African Urban Change Three

Decades After Apartheid Anthony Lemon, Ronnie Donaldson, Gustav Visser, 2021-06-10 This book provides an analysis of South African urban change over the past three decades. It draws on a seminal text Homes Apart and revisits conclusions drawn in that collection that marked the final phases of urban apartheid. It highlights changes in demography, social as well as economic structure and their differential spatial expression across a range of urban sites in South Africa. The evidence presented in this book points to a very complex set of narratives in urban South Africa and one that cannot be reduced to a singular statement so the conclusions of the various investigations are in many ways open. As urban apartheid represented one clear outcome, its post-apartheid urban legacies varies greatly from city to city. As such, this book is a great resource to students and academics focused on urban change in South African cities since the demise of apartheid and scholars of urban policy making in South Africa and Southern urbanists generally.

Hospitalities Merle A. Williams, 2020-12-23 This collection of imaginative essays traces notions of hospitality across a sequence of theoretical permutations not only as an urgent challenge for our conflicted present but also as foundational for ethics and resonant within the play of language. The plural form of the title highlights the inter-implication of hospitality with its exclusive others holding suspicious rejection in tension with the receptiveness that transforms socio-cultural relations. Geographically, the collection traverses the globe from Australia and Africa to Britain, Europe and the United States, weaving exchanges from south to north as well as south to south and thoughtfully remapping our world. Temporally, the chapters range from the primordial hospitality offered by the earth through the Middle Ages to contemporary detention centres and the crisis of homelessness. Thematically, hospitality embraces sites of dwelling and the land, humans and animals in their complex embodiment, spectres and the dead dolls and art objects. This text openly welcomes the reader to participate in shaping fresh critical discourses of the hospitable whether in literary and linguistic studies, art and architecture, philosophy or politics.

Anxious Joburg Nicky Falkof, Cobus van Staden, 2020-10-01 An interdisciplinary account of the life of Johannesburg, South Africa's global south city. Anxious Joburg focuses on Johannesburg, the largest and wealthiest city in South Africa, as a case study for the contemporary global South city. Global South cities are often characterised as sites of contradiction and difference that produce a range of feelings around anxiety. This is often imagined in terms of the global North's anxieties about the South: migration, crime, terrorism, disease and environmental crisis. Anxious Joburg invites readers to consider an intimate perspective of living inside such a city. How does it feel to live in the metropolis of Johannesburg? What are the conditions, intersections, affects and experiences that mark the contemporary urban? Scholars, visual artists and storytellers all look at unexamined aspects of Johannesburg life. From peripheral settlements to the inner city to the affluent northern suburbs, from precarious migrants and domestic workers to upwardly mobile young women and fearful elites, Anxious Joburg presents an absorbing engagement with this frustrating, dangerous, seductive city. It offers a rigorous critical approach to Johannesburg, revealing the way in which anxiety is a vital structuring principle of contemporary life. The approach is strongly interdisciplinary, with contributions from media studies anthropology religious studies urban geography migration studies and psychology It will appeal to students and teachers as well as to academic researchers concerned with Johannesburg South Africa cities and the global South The mix of approaches will also draw a non academic audience     Identities and Education Stephen Carney, Eleftherios Klerides, 2021-01-28 Education is central to the project of individual and collective identity formation national development and international relations and is crucial in moments of crisis What should be the agenda of study and action for education in such times Identities and Education engages with this crucial question seeking to examine and problematise our contemporary moment Through the heuristic of the concept of identity it specifically aims at creating a space for understanding our current challenges and considering the potential of education to address them Contributors in this volume explore identity crisis and education not only in interdisciplinary inter sectional relational and eclectic ways but also through comparative lens The book includes contributions from leading scholars from Austria Cyprus Germany Greece Portugal the UK and the USA and covers issues and themes including fear hope refugee education and global citizenship education

Rural Cinema Exhibition and Audiences in a Global Context Daniela Treveri Gennari, Danielle Hipkins, Catherine O'Rawe, 2018-10-19. Although it has only been in the last decade that the planet's population balance tipped from a predominantly rural makeup towards an urban one, the field of cinema history has demonstrated a disproportionate skew toward the urban. Within audience studies, however, an increasing number of scholars are turning their attention away from the bright lights of the urban and towards the less well lit and infinitely more variegated history of rural cinema. Rural Cinema Exhibition and Audiences in A Global Context is the first volume to consider rural cinema going from a global perspective. It aims to provide a rich and wide ranging introduction to this growing field and to further develop some of its key questions. It brings together eighteen international scholars or teams, all representatives of a dynamic new field. Moving beyond a Western focus is essential for thinking through questions of rural exhibition, distribution, and cinema experience. Since over the relatively short history of cinema, it is the rural that has dominated cinema goers' lives in much of the developing world. To this end, the volume also innovates by bringing discussions of North American and European ruralities into dialogue with contributions on Kenya, Brazil, China, Thailand, South Africa, and Australia.

Inclusive Education in South African Further and Higher Education Tsediso Michael Makoele, Cina P. Mosito, 2025-05-26. A historical overview of the evolution of inclusive education alongside the emergence of concepts such as equity and access, highlighting how these ideas have evolved, been enacted, and practiced in the higher education institutions (HEIs) of South Africa since 2001.

Handbook of Anglophone World Literatures Stefan Helgesson, Birgit Neumann, Gabriele Rippl, 2020-09-07.

University on the Border Lis Lange, Vasu Reddy, Siseko H. Kumalo, 2021-08-27. The volume explores and thinks through the process of decolonising the South African higher education system by examining MustFall. The text offers theoretical insights from a historical, contemporary, and multidisciplinary lens while examining the embedded meanings of the university as an institution, idea, and set of practices to show the shifts and changes that were inaugurated by MustFall along with the historicities that define the university both locally and globally. The retro and prospective insights presented in the book surface the crisis of authority that places the university in a state of precarity, which is framed in the book as the border. The volume proposes the concept of the border, recognising its conceptual and analytical dynamism as a generative space that can facilitate new imaginaries and articulations of this social institution, the university.

Building Organizational Capacity and Strategic Management in Academia Kayyali, Mustafa, 2024-11-01. As higher education institutions face challenges like technological advancements, student demographics, and funding constraints, effective strategic management is essential. This involves enhancing institutional capabilities through improved governance.

resource allocation and stakeholder engagement while fostering a culture of innovation and collaboration By prioritizing strategic planning and capacity building academic institutions can remain relevant and responsive to the needs of students faculty and the broader community Further research empowers universities to achieve sustainable growth and fulfill their educational and social objectives Building Organizational Capacity and Strategic Management in Academia explores the crucial role of leadership and strategic management in boosting the capacity and effectiveness of higher education institutions It examines the complex dynamics of organizational change innovation and sustainable growth within the setting of academia This book covers topics such as brand management information technology and strategic planning and is a useful resource for business owners academicians educators managers computer engineers scientists and researchers

Historical Dictionary of South Africa Christopher Saunders, Peter Limb, 2020-12-15 As the most influential and powerful country on the entire continent of Africa an understanding of South Africa's past and its present trends is crucial in appreciating where South Africans are going to and from where they have come South Africa changed dramatically in 1994 when apartheid was dismantled and it became a democratic state Since 2000 when the previous edition appeared further big changes occurred with the rise of new political leaders and of a new black middle class There were also serious problems in governance in public health and the economy but with a remarkable popular resilience too This third edition of Historical Dictionary of South Africa contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 600 cross referenced entries on important personalities as well as aspects of the country's politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about South Africa

African Migration, Human Rights and Literature Fareda Banda, 2020-12-24 This innovative book looks at the topic of migration through the prism of law and literature The author uses a rich mix of novels short stories literary realism human rights and comparative literature to explore the experiences of African migrants and asylum seekers The book is divided into two Part one is conceptual and focuses on art activism and the myriad ways in which people have sought to write justice Using Mazrui's diasporas of slavery and colonialism it then considers histories of migration across the centuries before honing in on the recent anti migration policies of western states Achiume is used to show how these histories of imposition and exploitation create a bond which bestows on Africans a status as co sovereigns of the First World through citizenship The many fictional examples of the schemes used to gain entry are set against the formal legal processes Attention is paid to life post arrival which for asylum seekers may include periods in detention The impact of the increased hostility of receiving states is examined in light of their human rights obligations Consideration is paid to how Africans navigate their post migration lives which includes reconciling themselves to status fracture taking on jobs for which they are over qualified while simultaneously dealing with the resentment borne of status threat on the part of the citizenry Part two moves from the general to consider the intersections of gender and status focusing on women LGBTI individuals and children

Focusing on their human rights and the fictional literature chapter four looks at women who have been trafficked as well as domestic workers and hotel maids while chapter five is on LGBTI people whose legal and literary stories are only now being told The final substantive chapter considers the experiences of children who may arrive as unaccompanied minors Using a mixture of poetry and first person accounts the chapter examines the post arrival lives of children some of whom may be citizens but who are continually made to feel like outsiders The conclusion follows starting with two stories about walls by Hadero and Lanchester which are used to illustrate the themes discussed in the book Few African lawyers write about literature and few books and articles in Western law and literature look at books by or about Africans so a book that engages with both is long overdue This book provides fascinating reading for academics students of law literature gender and migration studies and indeed the general public

Public Intellectuals in South Africa Chris Broodryk, 2021-07-01 This edited collection gives voice to neglected public intellectuals in the arts humanities and journalism in South Africa who gave voice and presence to those who have been marginalized and silenced in South African history Edward Said described a public intellectual as someone who uses accessible language to address a designated public on matters of social and political significance The essays in Public Intellectuals in South Africa apply this interpretive prism and activist principle to a South African context and tell the stories of well known figures as well as some that have been mostly forgotten They include Magma Fuze John Dube Aggrey Klaaste Mewa Ramgobin and Koos Roets alongside marginalized figures such as Elijah Makiwane Mandisi Sindo William Pretorius and Dr Thomas Duncan Greenlees The essays capture the thoughts and opinions of these historical figures who the contributors argue are public intellectuals who spoke out against the corruption of power promoted a progressive politics that challenged the colonial project and its legacies and encouraged a sustained dissent of the political status quo Offering fascinating accounts of the life and work of these writers critics and activists across a range of historical contexts and disciplines from journalism and arts criticism to history and politics it enriches the historical record of South African public intellectual life This volume makes a significant contribution to ongoing debates about the value of research in the arts and humanities and what constitutes public intellectualism in South Africa

Sensitive Negotiations Nikki Hessel, 2021-08-01 Throughout the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Indigenous peoples in North America and the Pacific engaged with the latest and most fashionable British Romantic poetry as part of transcontinental and transoceanic cross cultural negotiations about sovereignty treaty rights and land claims In Sensitive Negotiations Nikki Hessel uses examples from North America Africa and the Pacific to show how these Indigenous figures quoted lines from famous poets like Lord Byron and Felicia Hemans to build sympathy and community with their audience Hessel makes new connections by setting aside European derived genre barriers to bring literary studies to bear on the study of diplomacy and scholarship from diplomatic history and Indigenous studies to bear on literary criticism By connecting British Romantic poetry with Indigenous diplomatic texts artefacts and rituals Hessel reimagines poetry as diplomatic and diplomacy as poetic Home is where Your Politics are Jessica A. Scott, 2024 Home Is Where Your Politics Are is a vivid consideration of queer and trans activism in the US South and South Africa situated in their own contexts and international narratives about those contexts. The book traverses international borders as boldly as the activists present in the text declare these spaces home.
