The Hackable City Michiel de Lange, Martijn de Waal, 2018-12-05 This open access book presents a selection of the best contributions to the Digital Cities 9 Workshop held in Limerick in 2015 combining a number of the latest academic insights into new collaborative modes of city making that are firmly rooted in empirical findings about the actual practices of citizens designers and policy makers It explores the affordances of new media technologies for empowering citizens in the process of city making relating examples of bottom up or participatory practices to reflections about the changing roles of professional practitioners in the processes as well as issues of governance and institutional policymaking Management

Fundamentals Robert N. Lussier, 2020-01-07 Packed with experiential exercises self assessments and group activities the Ninth Edition of Management Fundamentals develops essential management skills students can use in their personal and professional lives The Non-Technical Founder Josh MacDonald, 2018-04-03 Everyone has an idea that they think is the next big thing The problem is it's probably an app or software idea and most people probably don't know how to code and their record for managing programmers is little to none Even if they do know how to code they're not quite sure how to get their first one thousand customers The Non Technical Founder walks readers through the stages of validating whether their next big thing is good bringing the idea to life and getting those first customers Fair Shot Chris Hughes, 2018-02-20 deeply felt and cogently argued Hughes makes a powerful case that deserves a respectful hearing The Financial Times Facebook co founder Chris Hughes argues that the best way to fight income inequality is with a radically simple idea a guaranteed income for working people paid for by the one percent The first half of Chris Hughes's life played like a movie reel right out of the American Dream He grew up in a small town in North Carolina His parents were people of modest means but he was accepted into an elite boarding school and then Harvard both on scholarship There he met Mark Zuckerberg and Dustin Moskovitz and became one of the co founders of Facebook In telling his story Hughes demonstrates the powerful role fortune and luck play in today's economy Through the rocket ship rise of Facebook Hughes came to understand how a select few can become ultra wealthy nearly overnight He believes the same forces that made Facebook possible have made it harder for everyone else in America to make ends meet To help people who are struggling Hughes proposes a simple bold solution a guaranteed income for working people including unpaid caregivers and students paid for by the one percent The way Hughes sees it a guaranteed income is the most powerful tool we have to combat poverty and stabilize America's middle class Money cold hard cash with no strings attached gives people freedom dignity and the ability to climb the economic ladder A guaranteed income for working people is the big idea that's missing in the national conversation This book grounded in Hughes's personal experience will start a frank conversation about how we earn in modern America how we can combat income inequality and ultimately how we can give everyone a fair shot Intellectual Property Law and Policy
