When Religion Becomes Evil

Arthur G. Neal, Helen Youngelson-Neal

When Religion Becomes Evil:

When Religion Becomes Evil Charles Kimball, 2002-09-03 An expert on religion and the Middle East seeks to distinguish between authentic and corrupt forms of religious expression identifying ways in which the major religious traditions are vulnerable to corruption and how they can be corrected

When Religion Becomes Evil Charles Kimball, 2009-10-13 In this thoroughly revised and updated edition leading religion and Middle East expert Charles Kimball shows how all religious traditions are susceptible to these basic corruptions and why only authentic faith can prevent such evil The Five Warning Signs of Corruption in Religion 1 Absolute Truth Claims 2 Blind Obedience 3 Establishing the Ideal Time 4 The End Justifies Any Means 5 Declaring Holy War

When Religion Becomes Lethal Charles Kimball, 2011-02-25 A compelling look at today's complex relationship between religion and politics In his second book bestselling author Charles Kimball addresses the urgent global problem of the interplay between fundamentalist Abrahamic religions and politics and moves beyond warning signs the subject of his first book to the dangerous and lethal outcomes that their interaction can produce Drawing on his extensive personal and professional knowledge of experience with and access to all three traditions Kimball's explanation of the multiple ways religion and politics interconnect within Judaism Christianity and Islam will illuminate the problems and give readers a hopeful vision for how to chart a safer course into a precarious future Kimball is the author of When Religion Becomes Evil one of the most acclaimed post 9 11 books on terrorism and religion Reveals why religion so often leads to deadly results The author has scholarly knowledge and expertise and extensive personal experience with the peoples cultures and leaders involved Readable and engaging this book gives a clear picture of today's complex political and religious reality and offers hope for the future

Myth-Making and Religious Extremism and Their Roots in Crises Arthur G. Neal, Helen Youngelson-Neal, 2015-10-12 According to sociologist C Wright Mills we do not live in a world of solid fact but in a world permeated by culture constructed by humans through communication with each other Myth making shapes our lives beliefs and behavior Collective myths become plausible explanations for events past and future as each new generation constructs reality anew to make sense of the human condition Providing a sociological and multicultural analysis this book examines myth making in the today's world amid religious extremism and terrorism The authors discuss the imperative of myth in comprehending illness sexuality death and human relationships to the environment and other animals

Religion and the Domestication of Dissent Russell T. McCutcheon, 2016-04-08 Since the events of 9 11 the representation of Islam has increasingly come adrift from its actuality Scholars and pundits have effectively demonised a whole faith by wilfully apportioning blame and by ignoring the differences within the Islamic movement Religion and the Domestication of Dissent examines how the classifications we use to name and negotiate our social worlds notably religion are implicitly political The study ranges widely from contemporary film and art to the War on Terror and will be invaluable to readers interested in the politics behind the portrayal of dissenting religious groups

The Search for Truth about Islam Ben Daniel, 2013-01-01

Presbyterian pastor Ben Daniel tackles common stereotypes and misconceptions that tend to define Islam in the popular imagination Challenges for Christian Faith Clifford Chalmers Cain, 2021-05-07 The famed thinker and writer C S Lewis addressed issues that were paramount and pressing for religious persons in his time In this volume and in honor of Lewis experts in their fields examine topics and challenges that face Christians living their faith today Originally delivered as invited public lectures in a decade long series The Annual C S Lewis Legacy Lectures at Westminster College in Missouri they include faith and reason theological imagination religion and ecology the life and thought of Dietrich Bonhoeffer antisemitism Native American spirituality science and religion racism and poverty in the ministry and social action of Martin Luther King Jr misconceptions of Islam religious pluralism and religion and violence The authors argue that these issues must be acknowledged and confronted in order for Christianity to remain or to become relevant in the current century

The Problem with Interreligious Dialogue Muthuraj Swamy, 2016-03-24 Muthuraj Swamy provides a fresh perspective on the world religions paradigm and interreligious dialogue By challenging the assumption that world religions operate as essential entities separate from the lived experiences of practitioners he shows that interreligious dialogue is in turn problematic as it is built on this very paradigm and on the myth of religious conflict Offering a critique of the idea of dialogue as it has been advanced by its proponents such as religious leaders and theologians whose aims are to promote inter religious conversation and understanding the author argues that this approach is elitist and that in reality people do not make sharp distinctions between religions nor do they separate political economic social and cultural beliefs and practices from their religious traditions Case studies from villages in southern India explore how Hindu Muslim and Christian communities interact in numerous ways that break the neat categories often used to describe each religion Swamy argues that those who promote dialogue are ostensibly attempting to overcome the separate identities of religious practitioners through understanding but in fact they re enforce them by encouraging a false sense of separation The Problem with Interreligious Dialogue Plurality Conflict and Elitism in Hindu Christian Muslim Relations provides an innovative approach to a central issue confronting Religious Studies combining both theory and ethnography American Theological Inquiry, Volume Two, Issue Two Gannon Murphy, 2009-08-01 American Theological Inquiry ATI was formed in 2007 by Drs S Gannon Murphy PhD St David s College Univ Wales Theology Presbyterian Reformed and Stephen Patrick PhD Univ Illinois Philosophy Eastern Orthodox to open up space for diverse Christian academicians who affirm the Ecumenical Creeds to share research throughout the broader Christian scholarly community in America ATI reaches thousands of Christian scholars throughout the United States particularly specialists in theology Though ATI is a new journal scholars who publish with ATI benefit from exposure to a vast non insular network of one of the broadest Christian academic communities possible At the Edges of Liberalism S. Aschheim, 2012-06-15 The essays in this volume seek to confront some of the charged meeting points of European especially German and Jewish history All in one way or another explore the entanglements the intertwined moments of empathy and enmity belonging and estrangement creativity and destructiveness that occurred at these junctions The Concept of Peace in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Georges Tamer, 2020-10-26 The eighth volume of the series Key Concepts of Interreligious Discourses investigates the roots of the concept of peace in Judaism Christianity and Islam and its relevance for the present time Facing present violent conflicts waged and justified by religious ideas or reasons peace building prevails in current debates about religion and peace Here the central question is How may traditional sources in religions help to put down the weapons and create a society in which everyone can live safely without hostilities and the threat of violence When we take the Sacred Scriptures of Judaism Christianity and Islam into consideration it becomes obvious that the term peace and its equivalents in Hebrew Greek and Arabic describe at first an ideal state based on the love mercy of God to his creation It is a divine gift that brings inward peace to the individual and outer peace resting upon justice and equality One main task of Jews Christian and Muslims in the history is to find out how to bring down this transcendent ideal upon earth The volume presents the concept of peace in its different aspects as anchored in the traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam It unfolds commonalities and differences between the three monotheistic religions as well as the manifold discourses about peace within these three traditions The book offers fundamental knowledge about the specific understanding of peace in each one of these traditions their interdependencies and their relationship to secular world views Christian Right Victory Chet Harnett, 2019-04-20 Medal of Honor recipient Noe Haleakua joins the Christian fundamentalist church Good Day Ministries at the urging of his private business billionaire boss Rolf Lambert where Lambert introduces Noe to the pastor Guy Austin Fanning Through Pastor Fanning s powerful inspirational sermons reinforcing the righteousness of the fundamentalist Christian path Noe works to resolve his personal PTSD ridden conflict from his Afghanistan tour of duty A life long admirer of the Knights of The Round Table Noe tries his hand at learning to ride and joust where his liberal British trainer in equestrian sport Fiona attempts to destroy Noe s Christian Right faith on his path to absolution Through the strength of Pastor Fanning s sermons Noe is able to hold firm in his Christian faith and commit to becoming a Christian soldier fighting for Christian Right victories in politics and life Ultimately Noe is victorious in his fight against the practice of abortion Retrieving Apologetics Glenn B. Siniscalchi, 2016-01-07 Given the popes recent statements of their desires to implement the New Evangelization it is imperative that Catholic theologians and other intellectually engaged laypersons retrieve the vital discipline of apologetics For the New Evangelization places particular emphasis on repropounding the Gospel to those who have experienced a crisis of faith due to secularization One salient method of Catholic apologetics used to be characterized by three demonstrations each of which assumes the conclusions established in the previous step s Some might think that this classical method of apologetics has been abandoned in the postconciliar Church but Siniscalchi s book updates it Unlike the classical apologetics of the preconciliar era Siniscalchi engages contemporary scholarship in a variety of academic disciplines such as philosophy history biblical studies sociology and theology to develop the steps that are necessary for showing the reasonableness of faith

Seven Myths of Military History John D. Hosler, Alfred J. Andrea, Andrew Holt, 2022-03-01 This brief provocative and accessible book offers snapshots of seven pernicious myths in military history that have been perpetrated on unsuspecting students readers moviegoers game players and politicians It promotes awareness of how myths are created by the spurious misuse and ignorance of history and how misleading ideas about a military problem as in asymmetric warfare can lead to misguided solutions Both scholarly and engaging this book is an ideal addition to military history and historical methodology courses In fact it could be fruitfully used in any course that teaches critical thinking skills including courses outside the discipline of history Military history has a broad appeal to students and there s something here for everyone From the so called Western Way of War to its sister myth technological determinism to the academic party game of once faddish Military Revolutions the book shows that while myths about history may be fun myth busting is the most fun of all Reina Pennington Norwich University

The Impact of Ethnic, Political, and Religious Violence on Northern Nigeria, and a Theological Reflection on Its Healing Sunday Bobai Agang, 2011-09-07 This publication seeks to challenge established thinking about the causes of violence in Northern Nigeria It explores immediate and long term effects of that violence through reflection study and survey of previous research The fundamental argument within is that ethnic political and religious violence has affected Christian perspectives and core values and thus has hampered efforts towards just peacemaking

Celebrating Humanity Jack Bloomfield, 2008-03 CELEBRATING HUMANITY We are a divided people We are a divided planet What would it take to see a world transformed into a place where when we see one another our first thought is this is my brother this is my sister this is a member of my family Jack Bloomfield author columnist and humanitarian believes that our divided world is rooted mainly in unchallenged prejudice ignorance and intolerance In Celebrating Humanity Jack shares his insights through an assortment of his columns on The many faces of prejudice most often found in areas of race religion politics social status and sexual orientation The importance of getting closer to those we don t know don t understand or who we are afraid of The need to educate ourselves when it comes to our racial religious cultural or sexual differences The hope that it is possible to change and that unity and understanding among all people is possible He suggests that we must take our own personal inventory to see where prejudice ignorance or intolerance are alive in our own hearts and lives and do whatever it takes to root them out Bloomfield says For some it will be little more than self awareness and a commitment to change while for others it will take a much deeper study of themselves At whatever level we all must take a look within and when we do healing will be possible and unity and understanding among all people can become a reality

Human Identity at the Intersection of Science, Technology and Religion Christopher C. Knight, 2016-05-13 Humans are unique in their ability to reflect on themselves Recently a number of scholars have pointed out that human self conceptions have a history Ideas of human nature in the West have always been shaped by the interplay of philosophy theology science and technology The fast pace of developments in the latter two spheres neuroscience genetics artificial intelligence biomedical engineering call for fresh reflections on what it means now to be human and for theological and ethical judgments on how we might shape our own destiny in the future The leading scholars in this book offer fresh contributions to the lively quest for an account of ourselves that does justice to current developments in theology science technology and philosophy

Human Identity at the Intersection of Science, Technology and Religion Dr Christopher C Knight, Professor Nancey Murphy, 2013-06-28 Humans are unique in their ability to reflect on themselves Recently a number of scholars have pointed out that human self conceptions have a history Ideas of human nature in the West have always been shaped by the interplay of philosophy theology science and technology The fast pace of developments in the latter two spheres neuroscience genetics artificial intelligence biomedical engineering call for fresh reflections on what it means now to be human and for theological and ethical judgments on how we might shape our own destiny in the future The leading scholars in this book offer fresh contributions to the lively quest for an account of ourselves that does justice to current developments in theology science technology and philosophy

Messiah Anthony Pearce, 2022-08-03 Messiah An objective explanation of Christianity explains how Christianity came about what is actually in the Bible what Christians believe and how different Christian denominations have developed It is written from a neutral stance and does not seek to promote or denigrate Christianity Messiah summarises the Bible s contents and its broad theological meaning in a readable and concise manner It emphasises that the Bible should not be read literally but critically in its historical context Messiah explains the early history of the church the great division of the Reformation and the many Protestant sects that have subsequently arisen

Fighting Words Hector Avalos, Is religion inherently violent If not what provokes violence in the name of religion Do we mischaracterize religion by focusing too much on its violent side In this intriguing original study of religious violence Prof Hector Avalos offers a new theory for the role of religion in violent conflicts Starting with the premise that most violence is the result of real or perceived scarce resources Avalos persuasively argues that religion creates new scarcities on the basis of unverifiable or illusory criteria Through a careful analysis of the fundamental texts of Judaism Christianity Islam and Hinduism Dr Avalos explains how four scarce resources have figured repeatedly in creating religious violence sacred space e g the perception by three world religions that Jerusalem is sacred the creation of holy scriptures believed to be privileged revelations of God s will group privilege stemming from such beliefs as a chosen people or predestination which also creates a group of outsiders and salvation by which concept some are accepted and others rejected Thus Avalos shows religious violence is often the most unnecessary violence of all since the scarce resources over which religious conflicts ensue are not actually scarce or need not be scarce Comparing violence in religious and nonreligious contexts Avalos makes the compelling argument that if we condemn violence caused by scarce resources as morally objectionable then we must consider even more objectionable violence provoked by alleged scarcities that cannot be proven to exist He also examines the Nazi Holocaust and the Stalinist Terror which have been attributed to the pernicious effects of atheism or secular humanism By contrast Avalos pinpoints underlying religious factors as the cause of these horrific instances of genocidal violence This serious philosophical examination of the roots of religious violence adds much to our understanding of a perennial source of widespread human suffering Hector Avalos Ames IA is associate professor of Religious Studies at Iowa State University the author of five books on biblical studies and religion the former editor of the Journal for the Critical Study of Religion and executive director of the Committee for the Scientific Examination of Religion
